WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.-Senator Aldried, chairman of the senate committee on finance, today reported his bill providing for an emergency increase in the national bank circulation. The report was authorized at a meeting of the committee held today, at which all the republican sembers present voted for a resolution authorizing the reporting of the bill and all the democrats voted for the Bailey sub- to the senate. stitute. Senator Hanabrough, who favors a central bank scheme, was not present. and his vote was unrecorded. The only democrats in attendance were Senators sas City. Teller, Bailey and Daniel. Senator Taliaferro, who is absent in Florida, was recorded as for the Balley substitute. Senstor Money was also absent and his vote was unrecorded. Mr. Aldrich said he would call the bill up for consideration on Monday, February 10.

Mr. Aldrich says be made this announcement as to time so that the senators might have ample opportunity to prepare for the discussion of the bill. He said that the committee had under consideration some amendments to the bill relating to railroad bonds and probably would suggest them at a later day. He explained that the bill was the bill of the majority of the committee and that members of the minority might have a substitute to offer later. He also added that his correspondence with the Interstate Commerce commission on the subject of railway securities would be pre-

To The Bee correspondent the postmaste general stated that he had carefully rear vestigate the charges made by Mr. Covel against Mr. Thomas, but he did not find them of sufficient importance to withhole the name of Mr. Thomas from being seni to the senate as postmaster at Omalia is succeed Captain H. E. Palmer. The postmaster general said these charges were based upon Mr. Thomas' connection with the school board a number of years ago when Mr. Covell was attorney for the board. The board selected another attorhas been "sore at Mr. Thomas ever since. The charges filed against Mr. Thomas were of a character that the postmaster general could not fail to take cognizance of and an inspector was sent to Omalis to examine closely into the charges.

The report of the inspector reached Washington on Tuesday, but in the absence of the postmaster general they were not taken up by that official until today and after careful consideration of the report of the inspector Mr. Meyer decided exonerated Mr. Thomas from any wrongdoing in the premises.

Papers Marked Special.

While The Bee correspondent was in the postmaster general's office he authorized the first assistant postmaster general to prepare the nomination papers for Mr. Chomas and marked the same special. It is just possible that Mr. Thomas's

Election Affair in Which All Arguments Should Be Public. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 .- "An election is a public affair and participation in politics is a civic duty. All arguments used in lections should be used publicly, and all means employed, used to secure the election of or to defeat a candidate should be by means which the one using them would not be ashamed to have the world know." This epitomizes the views of William J. Bryan on the subject of publicity of cam-fore the house committee on elections of president and vice president. In addition to the full membership there were present Perry Belmont and Samuel paign contributions as expressed today be-

Gompers and other labor leaders. Mr. Bryan declared that reforms only when abuses are recognized. "Not until there is an evil to be remedled," he said, "does one think of a remedy." The thing to be remedled in American politics, he continued, was the use of money to secure control of the government, money being advanced by those antegonts-tic to the public purse." When a man resorted to secrecy, he said, oday sent a message to the legislature Loumsberry & Co. of New York, and were Minichiello and also of Dominic Minichiello. it must be because he has something to gain that he does not want the world to know, or that he distrusts the intelligence or patriotism of the people.

Mr. Bryan insisted that the most im-YARMOUTH SUIT NEXT WEEK portant thing to be done was to make the campaign contribution known before the election. He realized that there was an advantage in the finding out after the horse is stolen how the door was unlocked, "but," be said. "I think it much better to the hearing of the suit brought by the theft is contemplated." The trouble about countess of Yarmouth, who was Alice the publication of expenditures after electhe organizations, he said, and then make
