DEMAND BY COMMISSION HOUSES

Shorts Take Advantage of the Decline to Cover and Absorb the Openings-Wheat Sells Off Quickly.

OMAHA, Jan. 20. 1908.

Hiervy Argentina estimates caused crowd to seil on the opening.

Commission house demand was strong on the low levels and sent values back. Shorts look advantage of the decline to cover and absorbed the offerings.

Wheat opened steady at yesterday's close, but sold out quickly on heavy estimates and very favorable new crop reports. The crowd stayed bearish and closed May wheat at $650.

Corn sold off several fractions in sympathy with wheat and a much looser country delivery. Cash demand was poor and the market did not get the necessary support to sustain prices. May corn opened at $50c and closed at 50c.

Osts opened at yesterday's close, but sold off readily and the decline did not stop until values had reached a 2c loss. May cats opened at $50c and closed at 51c.

Primary wheat receipts were $75.000 bu., against receipts last year of $85.000 bu., against receipts last year of $85.000 bu., and shipments were $85.000 bu., and and shipments were $85.000 bu., and shipments were $85.000 bu. of or $85.000 bu. of or $85.000 bu. of or $85.000 bu. of or

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Wheat prices in the local market broke 2c today from the high point because of heavy selling by holders. At the close the May delivery showed a net loss of 24c. Corn was off 4.0%c. Oats were ige lower. Provisions were b to 71/5c higher.

were 1/4c lower. Provisions were 5 to 7/3c higher.

The wheat market was weak all day. The general news was favorable to the bears and the market received little support except from shorts. Sharp declines in the price of wheat at the principal European grain centers and liberal offers from Argentina had a depressing affect at the opening. As the session advanced bearish sentiment was increased by large primary receipts, a decline in the price of cash wheat at southwestern markets and by an estimate of large forthcoming. Argentine shipments. Several prominent longs were active sellers during the last part of the session. The market closed weak with prices near the low point. May opened house to 100%c, lower, at $1.00% to $1.00%c, sold at $1.00%c/lower, and then declined to 38%c. The close was at $8.008%c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 114,000 bu. Primary receipts were 472,000 bu. against 207,000 bu. on the same day Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 14,000 bu. Primary receipts were 472,000 bu. against 307,000 bu. on the same day last year. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 234 cars, against 340 cars last week and 147 cars, are, against 340 cars last week and 147 cars, are, against 340 cars last week and 147 cars, are, against 340 cars last week and 147 cars, are year ago. The slump in wheat had only a slight effect on the corn market because of the continued small receipts, and reports of poor condition caused by damp weather. The market weakened late in the afternoon and closed easy. May opened a shade to the lower, at 60% c and closed at 60% c. Locally receipts were 273 cars, with none of contract grade.

Oats ware weak in sympathy with wheat and because of liberal primary receipts. May opened 14c to 15c lower, at 53% c to 53% c, and sold off to 52% c, where it closed. Local receipts were 132 cars.

Provisions were firm all day, the market being well supported because of smaller receipts of live hogs. Shorts and local packers were active buyers. At the close May pork was up 7% c, at 5127%. Lard was 5c higher, at 57%. Barlmated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 21 cars; corn, 258 cars; oats, 121 cars; hogs. 3000 head.

AWAITING PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Alleged Extracts from the Document Cause Sensation, but Wenkness One to This Pactor is Overcome.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The profound duliness of the stock market was its salient feature today. Outside participation was a negligible quantity. The professionals sesmed as much indisposed to operate on one side of the market as on the other. The influences which were current in the early part of the day were unmistakably depressing to sentiment. The contingent of room traders attempted to take advantage of this by selling stocks. Prices yielded without vigorous resistance, but the supply of stocks coming out of the decline was scanty. A position of underlying firmness was argued from this and the professional sales were therefore covered by corresponding purchases. The improvement had little effect in prompting active commitments owing to the desire to wait the publication of President Rooseveit's special message to congress tomorrow and observe its effect on general opinion. Brokers' offices quite generally claimed to be well informed on the contents of the message and abstracts circuisted at the stock exchange professing to give with great exactness passages of the document containing a strain of invective against some of the prominent culated at the stock exchange professing to give with great exactness passages of the document containing a strain of invective against some of the prominent interests in the corporation world and against their actions, as well as a vigorous criticism and denunciation of the world of the stock exchange itself, created a considerable sensation. While the early weakness of the market due to this influence was overcome, the continued dullness was attributed to the repressive influences of the same factor.

The closing of two of the smaller clearing house banks which had been unable to throw off the incubus of distrust, although the original causes had been eliminated, was not a marked factor in the stock market nor was the run precipitated on another institution for the same reason. The conditions affecting the banks have been clearly known and frankly discussed for some time past, and their evident peculiarity with the immediate institutions affected deprived them of any influence for the disturbance or feeling over the general situation. The reports of a waiting line of depositors at the telier's window of a New York clearing house bank contained too many reminders of an unpleasant past, however, to be entirely dow of a New York clearing house bank contained too many reminders of an unpleasant past, however, to be entirely without effect. Some special weakness in Delaware & Hudson was due to the movement among holders of its securities to oppose the company's plans for raising funds. The reduction of the anthracite output left other members of the group of coalers sensitive to the inflence of this stock. The weakness of the London copper market was against any advance in stocks. The day's reduced dealings were mostly concluded before noon and the market was in a torpid state for the latter part of the day.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,732,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Money was in increased demand on the market today and discounts were quiet. On the Stock exchange the settlement was concluded satisfactorily. The broadening out of investment buying and fair speculation caused a buoyant tone and prices of British shares, led by consols, made a further improvement. An internediate setback disappeared on the strong bank return, which caused a firm close. Foreigners made general advances. Russians, Japanese and Peruvians received the most attention, while revived demand for diamond shares was noticeable. American securities were tide. Business was restricted by fears of what President Roosevelt might say regarding corporations in his message to congress, but the professionals kept values steadily above parity until the afternoon, when the receipt of the New York opening caused a sagging tendency and made the close duil. SHEEP-Receipts of shep this morning were by no means excessive, only twenty-three cars being reported in. At the same time there were good sized runs at other points, so that the total supply of sheep on sale was quite large. The feeling on the market was decidedly against the sellers. From everywhere came reports of slow, dull markets, with the demand limited. At this pointed the market was the next ting to dead. Buyers did not seem to have orders, at least not orders of any size, and they were in no hurry to fill what they did have. As a result they made very little effort to buy anything on the opening. Thus the morning passed with practically nothing doing, but the feeling was very weak and lower. It was very late before anything of consequence was done.

When buyers did get down to business.

trouble at all for holders to secure good strong prices for anything coming under this nead. Even the light cattle, if they possessed any quality, sold fairly well, although prices were no higher. The demand for feeders has been one of the surprises of the market this week. In apite of the fact that beef cattle have broke so sharply feeder buyers have stood up and taken everything desirable at good firm prices. firm prices.

The trade on beef steers was dull throughout and the feeling none too good at any sime. Sales as a rule did not show very much change as compared with yesterday, but still in some cases salesmen who happened to have pretty good luck yesterday thought that the market was lower again today.

Cows and heifers sold in about the same manner as beef steers; that is, the trade was slow and the feeling not very good. The market is right at the lower than late last week, and more than that off as compared with the best time last week. Spayed heifers at $3.75 today were a cut off from the same bunch that sold last week at $4.20. Those in today possibly were not quite as good.
