Address of the President.

'As president of the Wise Memorial hospital, the pleasant duty devolves upon me to give you a short history of the association, said Arthur D. Brandels. "No doubt the majority of you know that the organization etective Dunn and Iowa Attorney was started by Mrs. J. L. Brandels, Mrs. Sonnenberg and a few others, in 1901. On November 15 of that year, they opened a Detective Dunn and W. O. Stricker, an hospital, in a small way, in a frame buildattorney of Aurelia, Is., arrived in Omaha Ing at 2208 Sherman avenue. Unfortunately, she was called away from our midst before this could be accomplished.

"After her death, the board elected me to succeed her as president. With the asthe father of the girl to come to Omaha, sistance of Hon. Edward Rosewater and where he sought the assistance of the local Mrs. Sonnenberg, we succeeded in interesting Mr. Slimmer of Waverly, Ia., who was known to give largely to hospitals that were nonsectarian. Mr. Slimmer came to Omaha and looked over the field, and said he would give us $15,000, provided the good citizens of Omaha would give $45,000, in order to build a $60,000 hospital. The only condition made was that at all times it must be nonsectarian, and must have a certain number of free beds in the wards.

"When Mr. Slimmer's proposition to contribute $15,600 came to us, the majority of the board thought it would be impossible to make the donation available, under the condition that the citizens of Omaha should the effort. Hon Edward Rosewater and I started out one afternoon and made our first call on our good citizen, Guy C. Barton. After having the matter laid before him he gave us a very large donation which practically assured the building of
