SING SONG OF OMAHA IN EAST

W. H. Hunter Addresses Real Estate Exchange on Advertising.

ASK EASTERNERS TO AK-SAR-BEN

Let Merchants Send Invitations with Every Bill of Goods They Order from the Big Dealers.

"Advertising Omaha" was the subject of an address by W. H. Hunter of The Bee before the Real Estate exchange at its bi-weekly meeting Wednesday at the Commercial club. Mr. Hunter laid stress upon the importance of advertising the city and its resources in the east as well as in places where it is better known. He suggested several methods of securing the desired results and spoke of the news bureau maintained by the Chamber of Commerce of Spokane. It is conducted by a competent newspaper writer, who succeeds in sending to news editors interesting stories which tell of the resources, opportunities and great commercial records made in the northwest and above all "keeps the Spokane date line in the newspapers of the country."

BACK TO THE FARM FOR HARRY

The adventures of Harry Delaney were nipped in the bud when Officer Wilson picked him up at Union station Tuesday evening and took him to the police station. Harry said he was enroute to California. He had $3 with him. But the minions of the law thought it was too big a trip for a 15-year-old boy to be taking and they questioned him further. Then Harry told the whole story. He lives on a farm five miles from Dubuque, Ia. The quiet life suited him until recently, when he grew tired of the monotonous round of daily chores. Then he had a disagreement with his father and the latter administered a thrashing. Then Harry had gathered together all the cash he could and started upon his travels. He will be returned to the farm.
