OMAHA, Feb. II, 1908.

Bearish sentiment predominates and weak cuoies weakened grain values. Selling is nearly and values feil off early, with no sustaining power in evidence.

Wheat opened weak and lower on renewed liberal liquidation. Pressure resulted from very hearish statistical conditions and Argentina continues to offer freely. Little or no support was in evidence and values dropped considerably. May wheat opened at 83%c and closed at 82%c.

Corn is easier as a result of pressure in wheat and a poor cash demand. Reports as to the country reserves are extremely bullish and terminal receipts are backing these reports. May corn opened at 50%c. OMAHA, Feb. 11, 1908.

bullish and terminal receipts are backing these reports. May corn opened at 55%c.

Oats are easier on heavy selling and much increased slewator receipts. Demand is fight and market shows no action. May oats opened at 49%c and closed at 49%c.

Primary wheat receipts were 514,000 bushels.

Corn receipts were $28,000 bushels and shipments were 498,000 bushels.
Chearances were 160,000 bushels of corn, nose of pats and wheat and flour equal to 76,000 bushels.
Laverpool closed 16144d lower on wheat and unchanged on corn.
Seaboard reported 31,000 bushels of wheat and 34,000 bushels of corn taken for export. Local range of options:

Oats were weak in sympathy with wheat and corn. Cash interests were the principal sellers, but the volume of business was not large. May opened to lower at $34c. sold between $5365%c, and closed at $53605%c.

A 5c advance in live hogs has a tendency to offset the slump in grain prices as an influence on provisions, the market being quite steady all day. There was a fairly active demand from investors. At the close May pork was off Sc, at $11.90.

Lard was also off Sc at $1.42\squares files.

Estimated receipts for Thursday: Wheat is cars; corn 301 cars; oats 124 cars; hogs $6.00 head.

make itself felt even before yesterday's session of weakness was over, asserted its influence decisively in today's stock market after a substantial but temperary rally in prices. Recoveries, though material, did not cover more than a part of yesterday's decilnes and the force of the demand was decidedly less felt at the higher stages of the raily and seemed exhausted in a final reaction. The market, in fact, became profoundly dull in the latter part of the day sand the volume of dealings of the day before shrunk to about the average of last week's duil trading.

Some of the rumors which were in circulation in the immediate neighborhood of the Stock exchange yesterday looked somewhat absurd in the more sober atmosphere of over night consideration, the news publications practically ignoring them by reason of their unauthentic character. A covoring by the bears was a natural consequence of these conditions. There was at the same time a cossation of pressure to sell which looked like liquidation yesterday and was pressed with some urgency. ever, was reasonably free, and by noon a very fair clearance had been made, the general average of prices being just a shade lower than yesterday.

Cow stuff was in very moderate supply and, as the demand was somewhat broader than on yesterday, it did not take dealers long to get down to business, and prices were anywhere from fully steady to as much as 6610c higher than yesterday. Veal calves held just about steady, and there was rather a better tone to the market for bulls, stags, etc.

was rather a better tone to the market for bulls, stags, etc.
Stockers and feeders constituted a comparistively small percentage of the receipts today, and largely for this reason the market was active and higher as far as it went. Some of the more desirable grades sold fully 10c better than yesterday, and everything at all useful in this line was picked up early at the advance noted. As usual, light and medium weight stuff was slow sale, but prices were not materially different from what they have been of late.

HOGS—There was another good run of hogs today nearly 14,000 head being reported in before noon. Contrary to the general expectations eastern markets were all reported active and higher, with only moderate supplies on sale and both local packers, shippers and speculative buyers got into the game here early and quickly cleaned up the offerings at prices that were all of 5510c higher than yesterday. As has been the case for some time past, the good heavy and butcher weight hogs sold to the best advantage, but light weights that were fat also met with ready sale and the range of prices narrowed down quite a little. Inferior, thin and under weight stuff was discriminated against and sold at the bottom of the list, but for fair to good hogs of all weights the range was comparatively narrow. Tops today brought $4.55, as against $4.56.75, vesterday, and the bulk of the trade today was at $4.10514.25, as against $4.5664.15 yesterday.

BUFFALO GEORGE CONVICTED

Lyman County Jury Succeeds in Sending Last Cattle Rustler to

MITCHELL, S. D., Feb. 11 -(Special.)-At the term of circuit court for Hanson county held at Alexandria, States Attorney Williamson of Lyman county succeeded in convicting William George, better known as "Buffalo." The prisoner was tried on two counts of grand larceny and was convicted of both, aside from sufficient evidence being introduced in one of the trials to prove conclusively that "Buffalo," while under bonds, succeeded in running off two head of cattle from the Indians on the reservation and butchering them, as their distance north of Murdo. Today "Buffalo" was brought before Judge Smith for hig sentence and the court gave him the full benefit of the law, being sentenced five years on each count.

With the conviction of George about the last of the cattle rustlers out on the Sioux reservation is placed behind the bars for safe keeping. The first break that came in the wholesale cattle rustling that had been going on out on the reservation for a good many years was when the notorious Jack Sully was stirred from his hiding places and finally caught with the goods on him down at Verdigris, Neb. Jack was brought back and was placed in the jail at Mitchell for safe keeping until court set in Lyman county. It was at the beginning of the year and at that time the newly elected sheriff died. In the excitement that followed Sully made his escape from the jail one Sunday evening and Totals31,135 81,325 31,759 got away safely into his old haunts on the reservation, where he hid successfully until the government officers finally drove him from his hiding place. After a chase over blood Lyman county desperado who has just been lodged in the Sloux Falls penitentiary by Sheriff Sheldon to serve a term of ten years. The threat to the sheriff was made as the prison doors closed behind the desperado. While in Sloux Fails Sheriff Sheldon gave the particulars of an attempt to escape which was made by the desperado only a short time before he was transferred from the Lyman county jail to the Hanson county jail for trial. In some way the desperade got hold of a razor and converted the blade into a saw, with which he had the bars of his cell practically sawed off when daylight came and put a stop to his work. The suspicion of the deputy sheriff in charge of him was attracted to the prisoner, and an inspection showed the condition of the bars.

COURT COMPELS MORE CARE Pennsylvania Must Pay Damages for Failure to Heed "This Side Up."

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.-That railroads in New York state must observe the injunction "This side up," when it is placed on a freight package, has been decided by the court of appeals. The decision comes in a suit brought by Stephen Hoye against the Pennsylvania railroad for $350, the value of a number of electric batteries which were damaged in transit because the railroad paid no attention to the printed warning on the box. When he went to the raffroad company for a settlement, Mr. Hoye says he was told that railroad men had long ceased to pay any attention to such as injunction and that it was considered a
