Borge said nothing, but nodded his head. Just when Berge will make his announcement is not known to the public yet, but some of his friends are urging him to say he would be a candidate right off. Berge will take issue with Shallenberger about abolishing the railway commission, though he will ank that the law be charged.

The announcement of Shallenberger is taken here to mean that he will give W. H. Thompson his support for delegate-at-large to the national convention and in return Thompson will support Shallenberger for governor. Friends of Berge would like to break up the Bryan slate, but are afraid to make such a move, though they may ask him to change it so that Berge caff get some glory out of it to help him in the campalan.

Mayor Brown and Dr. Hall appeared shocked when they read that a democrat had said they were at outs. Mayor Brown said there was nothing to the story and he quoted Dr. Hall saying the same thing. The mayor said some time ago some one ran to Dr. Hall with a story that he was opposed to the doctor, but both were good friends now. The fuss was straightened out by the mayor enlisting for Hall for U. S. Pat. Offic national committeeman and Hall enlisting for Brown for delegate-at-large. It may be possible that progressive democrats who are opposed to both will not accept the deal as made and will insist in the democratic convention in naming the national mmitteeman without allowing the deal to be made up in Lincoln. If friends of Berge control the convention it is possible Mr Bryan may be forced to change his slats Conl Men State Position.

down a box from the shelves and was greatly surprised to find the box empty. An investigation followed immediately, and about fifty boxes were found empty, from which the shoes had been removed, the empty boxes being placed in their former position on the shelves. The loss is estimated at $100. Just when the robbery occurred is hard to tell. On Tuesday night of last week night watchman J. L. Fulton came suddenly on a couple of suspicious looking individuals in the rear of the Tibbet's store who escaped in the darkness. Last evening a bunch of skeleton keys were found on the streets. The work, it is thought, was done by professionals.
