Profit Reaping Takes Edge Off the Market. Cables Higher, but Not Potent

Foreign Reports Lack Influence Anticipation of a Good Crop

OMAHA, March 4, 1908. Profit reaping takes the edge off the market. Cables came higher, but did not carry the influence anticipated.

Wheat was steady to firm on the start, but fell off on heavy profit taking. Corn opened steady, but the high points and selling was general.

Primary receipts were 50,000 bushels and shipments 25,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 63,000 bushels and shipments of 25,000 bushels.

Clearances were 70,000 bushels of corn, 200 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of oats.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Volume of Dealings is Small and Confined to Professionals. DAY BARRER OF PRICE MOVEMENT

Reduction in Calumet and Hecla Dividend and Price of Copper in London Affected Metal Shares.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The small volume of business, traders, whose operations now make up the score of daily transactions in the stock market, struggled vainly today to effect a decided movement.

Arguments as a nominal expansion of the bull market were practically barren of price movements or news of any interest.

The flattening out of the market completely the hopes of any immediate revival of dealings in securities.

The lethargy of the market is recognized as the reflection of the pause in the progress of affairs and in the hesitation in the formation of definite operations over the direction to be taken when progress is resumed.

Opinions are divided over the probable action of the Bank of England tomorrow on the official discount rate tomorrow.
