SCHOOL AND COLLEGE WORK

Board of Managers at Union Make Some Needed Changes. USEFULNESS OF SCHOOL ENLARGED Iowa College Has Visit from Dr. Lyman Abbott and from Dr. Steiner, Who is Doing Special Work. At their recent annual meeting the board of managers of Union college, College View, Neb., outlined the following improvements for the coming year: The physical laboratory is to be moved from its present room on the third floor to the basement in order to give a firmer foundation for the instruments; an appropriation was made for additional appliances for this department. To meet the need for this change the tailor and dressmaking department will be located elsewhere. The library is to be enlarged by adding a portion of the room adjoining, now used by the history department, and new encyclopedias and maps are to be added for the use of the German, Swedish and Danish departments. A permanent summer school is to be established, the first term to consist of six weeks this coming season. The acreage of fruits and vegetables is to be increased and a home canning factory established to preserve the unused products of the growers for the propagation of early vegetables and fruits and specimens for the botany, agriculture, horticulture and floriculture classes is to be created. The Christian Record Publishing company for the blind will give up its room in the basement and find quarters elsewhere. By these arrangements the college will have the use of six more class rooms than at present. It was voted to enlarge the carpenter shop to twice its size and install electric lights, power, and power plant, the board felt that economy should be practiced in this year's improvements. The new power plant and laundry were inspected by the board and accepted. The school has an enrollment of 154 students, and the business manager's report showed a good financial standing. But few changes were made in the teaching force. Some of the teachers are desirous of entering evangelical work next year, and one, Prof. M. S. Reppe of the Danish-Norwegian department, was granted a year's leave of absence to study in Denmark.

The Young Women's Athletic association elected the following officers for the next year, beginning with the spring term: President, Zilpah Barbour, Taber; vice president, Myrta Oppenheimer, Shenandoah; secretary, Gail Marshall, Arlington, Neb.; treasurer, Grace Clark, Farragut. The basket ball team from Tarkio college played its return game here Thursday night. As anticipated, the war veterans victors. Owing to illness and other matters, only two of Taber's first team were able to play. The substitutes did their best, but there was a lack of teamwork, which showed itself throughout the game. Tarkio sent a many set of students, who were the favorite opponents of all by their gentlemanly conduct, while they were playing. As indicated last week the contract for the new pipe organ has been closed. This was made possible by the generous assistance of Dr. Andrew Carnegie, who has promised to give the last $1,250. The instrument is of the finest quality, and is equipped with all modern improvements, with water for its motor power, and is to be in place ready for action not later than June 5. The organ will be one of the best in the central west. The annual banquet of the Douglas County Bar association participated in the annual banquet of the association, which was held at the home hotel Saturday evening, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Charles A. Ross acted as toastmaster. The guests of the association were Judge Charles B. Letton of the Nebraska supreme bench, and Supreme Court Commissioners Root, Good, Epperson and Duffie. Judge Eliezer Wakeley of Omaha was also an honored guest of the evening. Following the disposal of the substantial features of the feast, Toastmaster Ross called for responses to the several toasts. The first speaker was Judge George A. Day of the district bench, who responded to the sentiment "Judicial Reminiscences." His address was brief, yet at the same time replete with many humorous recollections of the bench. J. J. Boucher responded to the toast "Our Association," in which he gave a number of interesting reminiscences of the early days of the association and its later successes. "A Modern Craze," was the subject of a brief address by Warren Switzer. He characterized that craze as the craze of numbers rather than of quality in the matter of population. He went into the question of the undesirable quality of foreign immigration now pouring into the United States. Edward S. Leary responded most eloquently to the toast, "The Young Lawyer." He was followed by Charles Battelle on the subject of "The Twins," which was a recital of the hopes and aspirations of the young lawyer and the difficulties he encountered in combating with the old practitioners. Judge C. B. Letton of Lincoln spoke of the improvement in the standard of the American lawyer of today, and the expectations of quality and ability demanded by the world to engage in the profession. Speaking of supreme court matters, Judge Letton said: "Since I have been on the supreme bench I am becoming more impressed daily with the necessity of reform in our methods of legal procedure. The province of the courts is to protect society as well as individual. The rights of one are as imperative as the other, and for this reason the courts are less prone to reverse the proceedings of the lower courts where the trial has to all appearances been complete and fair."

TIMELY REAL ESTATE GOSSIP

Local Exchange is Interested in Court House Bond Proposition. RAILROAD SHOPS ALMOST A GO C. A. Ralston of Chicago Writes Local Promoters that Plans for Buildings at Seymour Park Will Be Here Soon. Of all the questions which have agitated the Omaha Real Estate exchange recently, the question of a new courthouse for Douglas county is certain to be the longest discussed and the chances are that the proposition will be better received by a large fraction of the exchange, who believe the present courthouse "good for twenty-five years yet." Following a report by a special committee, the courthouse question will be the special order of business at the next meeting of the exchange. F. D. Wead is one who is sure the present courthouse and jail can be remodeled to advantage. "I would put more stories under the courthouse and more stories on top of the jail," said Mr. Wead. "I have the greatest confidence in the architects who have been talking about remodeling the basement to be placed under the present courthouse, cutting down the terraces, and making more room. The objection has been made that the structure would not look good if another kind of stone was used for the basement, but I believe The Bee building and the city hall will forward the best plan for the two different kinds from that used in the superstructure. The Douglas county courthouse may be made good for twenty-five years with a little sensible remodeling, while the jail can be made a story higher." But the whole question is to be threshed out at the next meeting of the exchange. Edward S. Leary responded most eloquently to the toast, "The Young Lawyer." He was followed by Charles Battelle on the subject of "The Twins," which was a recital of the hopes and aspirations of the young lawyer and the difficulties he encountered in combating with the old practitioners. Judge C. B. Letton of Lincoln spoke of the improvement in the standard of the American lawyer of today, and the expectations of quality and ability demanded by the world to engage in the profession. SHIRTS IRONED BY HAND

DEAR SIR—With the ever-present wish to make the Model Laundry all that the name implies, we have added a Hand Shirt Ironing Department. While the ironing process is but one of many through which a shirt must pass in the course of its manufacture, it is the most important. In the ordinary process of ironing or pressing by machine, time is an important factor in the process. Each individual article receives the undivided attention of the operator. The buttons have special and careful attention, the neckband and the wristbands or cuffs, if there they are, are cut and pressed by hand. The hand process is tedious and requires much more time, but it is more comfortable and will wear longer. We intend to make this department a success by turning out only the highest quality of work. The keynote of the department will be not quantity, but quality of workmanship. It will be under the direct supervision of an expert hand ironer who has made this part of the work a special study. Send us a trial order; you will be pleased with the result. The very small additional cost of having your shirts ironed by hand will be more than balanced by the neat appearance and increased life of the shirt. Write for our list of prices and a list of 125 or independent A.I.S. Be sure to notify the driver, or the office that you wish your shirts ironed by hand. OWL DRUG COMPANY, Cor. 16th and Harney Sts., Omaha, Neb.

The Following Tells How One 22 Grain Triangule of Diasepsin Will Digest 3,000 Grains of Food and Cure Stomach Misery in Five Minutes. Some people think they have indigestion, others Catarrh of the Stomach, others Nervousness, Cancer or Dyspepsia, etc. Call it this if you will, but the real name for your trouble is Fermentation of what you eat, with only partial digestion. Everything you eat turns to either Acid, Stomach gas, or Stomach poison, which weakens the digestive organs, causing a lack of gastric juice. Your food is only half digested, and you are affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, burning sensation, a feeling of vomiting, heartburn, water brash and tenderness in the pit of the stomach, silvery tongue, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, nausea, belching of gas, distention, headache, neuralgic twinges, mental depression and many other common symptoms. You can cure all this by not eating, by not putting any food in your stomach to ferment, but how about the nourishment
