

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Liverpool Cables Come Lower and Make Domestic Exporting Weak.

WHEAT SOFT AT THE OUTSET

Domestic Situation Develops Later and Values Are Advanced on Bullish Reports and Covering by Shorts.

OMAHA, March 13, 1908. Liverpool cables came lower and gave the domestic market a start opening.

Advanced prices are bringing the grain out of the country and terminal arrivals are steadily increasing.

Wheat was a little inclined to be soft at the opening today, but soon recovered.

Corn values were higher, with buying general and offerings light.

Options opened firm and higher, with much increased interest being centered as the campaign for delivery draws nearer.

Primary wheat receipts were 55,000 bushels and shipments 28,000 bushels.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Market Becomes Dull and at Times is Febrile.

SPECULATORS ARE CONFUSED

Issues Recently Strong Are Fed Out in Sales While Other Issues Are Advancing—Bonds Are Irregular.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The stock market opened dull today and the decrease in activity was accompanied by an uncertainty, and at times, feverish price movement.

Speculators were confused by the moderate speculative sentiment to a large extent.

Stocks which have been strong recently were fed out in sales.

The appearance of a resuming market, the character of the support on declines carried an impression of continued guardianship of the market by operators equipped with powerful resources.

Foreign influences were not in favor of the market.

Liquidation and London suffered from the effect of new loans.

Market a decline in British consols in spite of the easing of the London discount rate.

DUNN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Sentiment is More Cheerful Because of Good Weather. PRICES OF SECURITIES RISE

Farm Implement Factories and Tin-plate Mills Are Resuming Operations—Some Reductions of Wages.

NEW YORK, March 13.—R. O. Dunn's Weekly Review of Trade will say tomorrow: Sentiment is more cheerful because of good weather.

Prices of securities are rising because of the improvement in the weather.

Farm implement factories and tin-plate mills are resuming operations.

Some reductions of wages are being made in various industries.

Building permits in February showed a decrease as compared with the same month last year.

Small gains are recorded in some departments of iron and steel industry.

Other lines remain unchanged, but news of the week contract has been a factor.

Some show a reasonable tendency toward improvement in the coal trade.

Production now falling little below normal in this division and specifications of the backlog more than other sections of the industry.
