TAX COMMISSIONER IS BUSY

Since Decision of Court He Has Put His Force to Work on the Books in the Office of the Clerk.

Following the lead of the mayor and council of both cities and the action of several orders, the South Omaha Live Stock exchange met Thursday afternoon and a screw driver and some tools from B. J. passed resolutions of respect and honor Ball. to the memory of W. A. Paxton. The committee selected to draw up the resolutions was F. Chittenden, Jay Laverty and Thomas B. McPherson, Mr. Paxton was more closely allied to the South Omaha market than any other man of the city. It was his special interest. He put in practically twenty-five years at this market. He was personally known to almost every man in the yards. The following is the report of the committee:

An all-wise Providence has called to his everlasting home one of whom it may be truly said that he was not only our brother, but our warm personal friend.

Mr. W. A. Faxton was the chief factor in the organization of the Omaha stockyards and had always been a father to this epterprise. His keen foresight, sound business judgment, rugged honesty and true friendship are universally recognized, and his memory will live forever in the heart of every member of this exchange, for he was a special friend to everyone of us, great and small.

The mighty oak that had stood unscathed the storms of years that have gathered about and threatened the very existence of this market; the rock of Gibraltar which had always successfully met and withstood attacks of every foe of the stock yards and the welfare of this exchange has yielded to no earthly foe, but has at last succumbed to that grim reaper, who finally claims us all. It is fitting that the veneration and love in which we held W. A. Paxton should be expressed in this resolution; therefore be it Resolved, by the South Omaha Live Stock exchange, That in the passing of Mr. W. A. Paxton we and each of us have met with a personal and irreparable loss.

Resolved, That we extend to his dear family our heartfelt sympathy, with the assurance that we weep with them in their grief.

Resolved, That our exchange hall be draped for sixty days in suitable mourning is the report of the committee:

Resolved, That our exchange hall be in honor to his memory.

Resolved, That copies of this preamble and resolution be spread upon our records and that a copy of them be presented to Mr. Paxton's family.

Another robbery occurred yesterday afternoon at 2:30. The residence of W. R. Tibbits, Twenty-third and Polk streets, was entered and a small revolver and a dollar or two in change was taken. The robber was seen and a good description was given to the police. He was a negro of medium height, with brown skin, weighing about 160 pounds. He was last seen going toward Buff town.

Tax Commissioner Gives Up. The tax commissioner submitted to the inevitable, and yesterday his deputies were installed in the clerk's office, where they were busily engaged in preparing the tax lists for the use of the city treasurer. This arrangement is in accord with the determination of the clerk to keep absolute possession of the books. Judge Kennedy held that the books were part of the record of the clerk and that his action on point was legal. The work of transcribing the record and preparing the lists must be done by October 1, at which time the city taxes are due. They become delinquent January 1.

Mass Meeting on Paving. It is anticipated that there will be a mass meeting of citizens of Missouri avenue at the time of the announced conference with Hugh Murphy over the question of the paving. This meeting is to be held today. Pearl Memorial Methodist Church to Be Dedicated.

REV. H. C. JENNINGS PREACHES

Rev. George A. Luce is Pastor This New Church, Which Strengthens Local Beligious Forces.

The dedication services of Pearl Memorial Methodist Episcopal church, at the Binney, orner of Twenty-fourth and Larimore streets, will take place Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Henry C. Jennings, D. D., publishing agent of the firm of Jennings & Graham, Chelmati, Chicago and Kansas City, will preach the dedicatory sermon. Mr. Jennings is a member of the Minnesota conference and was elected to the publishing agency at the general conference eleven years ago, held at Cleveland, and is now senior partner. He has proven himself one of the most eminent business men the church has ever honored with such a position, and because of this and other sterling qualifications will probably be promoted to the episcopacy at the general conference in Baltimore, dillion dollars worth of silk passed through May, 1968. He and Jesse W. Jennings, manager of the Kansas City depository, are distant relatives.

church, was born at Industry, Franklin county, Maine, February 17, 1854. His ancestors were among the earliest settlers of New England and of good old Congregationalist stock. Mr. Luce received a liberal education in the common schools and at to preach before he was 18 years old, and at 30 became a member of the New Hampshire conference, serving at Colebrook and Sanbornville. In 1890 he was transferred to the North Nebraska conference and stationed at Randolph. This has been followed Sunday. y pastorates at Tekemah Neligh, South Centh Street missions, Walnut Hill, Columbus and Pearl Memorial. In these pastorates churches have been built at Sanbornville, Randolph, Carroll, Winside, Belden, Neligh, and Pearl Memorial, besides various other improvements and parsonages. In his work Mr. Luce added over $25,000 to the church property, more than 500 have professed conversion, and as many been received by letter. In recognition of his excellent traits and abilities the Misouri Wesleyan college conferred upon him the doctor's degree in divinity in 1899. The present church is not only a monument to the genius of this minister in building churches, but also the munificent gift of money made by his own efforts and because of which the church is named, Pearl Memorial in honor of Mrs. Luce's maiden name. Pearl Memorial church is of cement stone and finished in yellow pine, and takes its place among the galaxy of thirteen, with bright prospects of usefulness, Already its membership is over 100 and its Sunday school 150. Miss Cordella A. Reld has presented two aintings to the Epworth league room of the Pearl Memorial Methodist Episcopal church. The pictures are suitably framed recently sued in district court by Dr. James and the following is a description of them: The first is entitled "Answer to Prayer," and illustrates the artist's thought that prayer is answered by God's messengers, though the person praying cannot at the ime know it is answered. A girl is standing alone in a forest praying, and above her head angels draw near bending over to eatch her words. This picture is the illustration of the scripture text: "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened." The second illustrates "Victory Over Death," the spirit rising from the grave, a twilight scene, with tall evergreen trees in the background, and the edge of a cemetery, from which a spirit is rising from a newly made grave. A light from heaven look of triumph back at the grave it has just left. This illustrates the scripture text. "O death where is thy sting? O has studied under the best masters in one of the best art schools in the United States. She has painted some of the most prominent persons in the United States, and her work has been presented in the states' collection. Her portrait of Congressman Davis was said to be one of the best pieces of work ever produced in his native state. The two paintings she has presented to the Bethany branch. First Baptist, 2863 Leavenworth, Sunday school at 3 p. m. the following paragraphs:

The plaintiff further represents that said defendant, wholly regardless of his obligations as a husband, soon after the said marriage commenced the excessive use of intexicating liquors and has for two years last past been a habitual drunkard.

The plaintiff further represents that on or about the 20th day of June. 1907, the defendant, regardless of his duties as a husband, was guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff without any cause or provocation on her part the said defendant assaulted this plaintiff about 9 o'clock at night when she was putting her child to bed, hitting her in the face and making her nose bleed until she and her child were covered with blood.

FIST FIGHT IN POLICE COURT Excited Italians Come to Blows in Presence of Judge on Bench.

The beauties of the Italian language were displayed to the police court Saturday morning, when the complaint was heard against Filadiffi Cantania for assault and battery. Josef Salerno, the complainant, and the defendant both wanted to testify at once and six or seven witnesses on each side kept up a continual speechfest and NEW YORK. July 21.—Rear Admiral Francis W. Dickens, U. S. N., retired, who was a passenger on board the steamship Arabic, which came into port today from Liverpool, said that there was little likelihood of trouble with Japan. The admiral said that the United States had virtually introduced Japan to the society of nations some fifty years ago and that ever since finally came to blows, while Judge Craw-
