South Main Street Pires. It has been suggested that the water ompany should long ago have reinforced the mains in the implement district. To this the answer is that every fire chief since 1890 has in his annual report, complimented the company on its fire service-Walters, Levine, Nicholson, Templeton and Bates. There has never been a suggestion from fire chief or council that the main in the implement district was insufficient until Mr. Kiersted made his test in 1906. Up to that time the company denies all knowledge that the main was too small. As late as 1906 the water committee-John

Olson, chairman-made a report on hydrant rentals of the time ending April 1, but made no criticism of fire service and made no recommendations for enlargement or extension of mains. ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 28.-United States Senator Pettus of Alabama died last state, from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy with which he was seized while at Senator Pettue' daughter and his grandson, E. W. Pettus, jr., reached Hot Springs an hour before the senator's death, but he did not recognize them. The attending physicians say that from the moment of the apoplectic stroke Senator Pettus suffered no pain and that he passed away quietly. While the funeral arrangements have not been completed, it is announced that the body will be prepared for burial here and on Monday will be taken to Selma, Ala., for interment. The funeral services probably will be held in Selma, Tuesday next or

Senator Pettus arrived at Hot Springs about a week ago from Tate Springe, Tenn. Up to the time of the seizure he was apparently in the best of health. At the breakfast table yesterday, it is said, he wa unusually cheerful and when he was stricken the guests of the hotel thought he merely had a fainting fit. Physicians were summoned from Asheville for consultation with the local physicians, and it was seen that there was no hope of the senator's recovery. Senator Pettus celebrated his 86th birthday anniversary at Tate Springs last week. and on that occasion his unusual vigor was the subject of comment.
