Long Delayed Gift Finished

learn with feelings of relief that Faul Bartlett's statue of General Lafayette, known as the gift of on school children of the United France, has at last been finished, and there is every indication that before many more months the bronze will have been cast and set up on the pedestal where, since 1900, a weather-beaten, crumbling plaster cast has represented it. President Failieres has seen the work and complimented the sculptor.

When the plaster model was set up it was believed that it would be replaced by the bronze monument in a year or more at the latest, but time passed and apparently the statue was as far away as ever. The makeshift of plaster became broken and shabby until at last Americans in Paris considered it little short of a national disgrace.

But the end is apparently near and the American colony rejoices.

The movement to erect the statue took definite shape eight years ago when a committee was formed in Chicago to collect money. Robert J. Thompson, the secretary, was the most active worker in the cause and associated with him were such men as Archbishop Ireland, Ferdinand W. Peck, Thomas Hastings and Melville E. Stone. The presentation was planned to add interest in this country to the universal exhibition in Paris in 1900, and subscriptions came School children throughout the United States raised $80,000. Congress appropriated $15,000 for an issue of Lafayette dollars to swell the fund. The Daughters of the Revolution gave $10,000, and other contributions made up a total of about $120,000.

The French people approved of the idea with enthusiasm on the hands across the sea principle, and when Mr. Thompson went abroad to make the arrangements President Loubet entertained him and gave him the presidential box at the opera. The site assigned for the statue is one of the best in Paris. It is the Square de Neuveau Louvre, commanding a view of the great thoroughfare which runs through the Tulleries Gardens.

To make a bronze statue requires time. The committee had planned for an unvelling on Independence day in 1900, so a plaster cast was made to rost upon the pedestal, everywhere by the grateful French, and had written.

Queen Sawapa Pongsi, and there is reason mingle with the world. The king and queen have kept in seclusion during their travels in northern Italy and Switzerland, but it is doubtful if they will be as successful evading notice if they come to the King Chulalongkorn is an autocrat, but he is a man of learning who has profited by a European education. He is one of the most enlightened Asiatic rulers, speaks and writes both English and French and

PAUL BARTLETT'S STATUE OF LAFAYETTE TO BE ERECTED IN PARIS-THE GIFT OF THE SCHOOL CHILDREN OF THE UNITED STATES.

away with burdensome internal taxes, trays bearing food, from which he makes monument. The unveiling was a great address in French and to read a letter of French army, Paul Deschanel, president of delay will there be another celebration one of the Ptolemies, had left his throne event. The American flag was hung out congratulation which President McKinley the Chamber of Deputies, and Armand when the bronze statue is in place? There at his death to herself and younger brother majesty. Prahbat Somdetch has more than twenty vessels and for his organized the army.

longkorn Klow, king of Siam, ter, which carries rapid fire guns.

to believe that in a month or two America opened up canals for irrigation and trans- his choice, Archbishop irland journeyed all the way Ambassador Porter presided at the ex- were present. President Loubet made a this time.

memories equally dear to both countries." killed by Herod the king,

Soon afterward the committee on the statue, consisting of George Post, John that this city was founded by Alexander Lefarge and J. Q. A. Ward, chose a sculptor, the Great, and I venture that it then had who had lived in Paris for many years, to more people than it has today. It was not make the statue. Then came a long period only a great commercial port, but was a statue was not finished did not get much antiquity. Its manuscripts numbered 900,000 satisfaction and the plaster cast on the and artists and students came here from pedestal in the Square du Nouveau Louvre everywhere to study. At the time of the A hoof fell off the plaster horse and a boot it was taken by the Arabs, along about Aropped from the plaster hero.

covered the whole with bronze paint. But the paint peeled off in spots and Americans ed it he brought in a colony of Jews, and and even polite Parisians could not help at the time the Mohammedans came the noticing that the horse's neck was strangely Jewish quarter had 40,000 people. shaped and that his tall did not fit him. Americans grumbled and grew angry. They considered that the presence of such years to make a statue for Boston and the tore her limb from limb. years on it.

"I know people are asking why I cannot is important.

19 when he went to America.

I am making haste. Suppose I took four- of her time.

een years, what would people say?" Bartlett made these remarks more than a year ago, but now the end is in sight and before long the plaster-statue which has Caesar, who had come to Alexandria to caused Americans in Paris annoyance will settle the claims of herself and brother to which later was to uphold the bronze from St. Paul to deliver the dedicatory ercises, and the commander-in-chief of the have disappeared. But in the face of the throne of Egypt. Her father, who was Failieres, later president Loubet made a is no way of answering that question at and according to custom the two were to tect them from injury until they can be taken to the musuems of this city and

They date back to the old Alexandria and were chiseled out several hundred years bespeech and the French senate and chamber fore Joseph and Mary took the little baby passed resolutions of gratitude for "the Jesus on an ass across the desert into this gift of a monument that will perpetuate valley of the Nile that He might not be

It was 332 years before Christ was born center of learning, religion and art. It is Americans who tried to learn why the said to have had the grandest library of began to show the effects of the weather. Caesars it was as big as Boston, and where 641 A. D., it had 4,000 palaces, 400 public Bartlett did some artistic patching and baths, 400 places of amusement and 12,000 gardens. When Alexander the Great found-

Scraped Her Bones with Oyster Shells. It was at Alexandria that St. Mark first a monument was a national disgrace, and preached Christianity to the Egyptians, and the Parisians smiled at it. Bartlett did later on the city became one of the Chrisappealed to and about the only satisfac- tian centers of the world. It was there that tion the questioners got was this explana- Hypatia lived, and it was there that the Christian monks led by Peter the Reader tore her from her charlot as she was about ordinately long time to take in making to go into a heathen temple to worship and an equestrian status. Other sculptors have massacred her. They scraped her flesh taken longer. Saint-Gaudens took fourteen from her bones with oyster shells, and then sculptor of Joan of Are worked for twelve It was here in Alexandria that Cleopatra corrupted Caesar and later on brought Marc Antony to a suicidal grave. There find inspiration. I have found inspiration, are carvings of Cleopatra still to be seen I mean to take my time, because the work on some of the Egyptian temples far up the Nile, and I have a photograph of one which The statue will be cast in bronze in is still in good preservation in the Temple America. I am taking for my model a of Denderah. Its features are Greek rather horse of the late General McClellan. It is than Egyptian and she was a Greek by her a very big horse and I shall represent ancestry rather than a Simon-pure daugh-Lafayette as very youthful. He was only ter of the Nile. She was not noted for her beauty, but she had such a wonderful "I do not think the committees complain charm of manner, sweetness of voice and of my delay. Archbishop Ireland has writ- brilliancy of intellect that she was able to ten asking me to make haste, but I believe flirt with and captivate the greatest men

Came to Caesar in a Bed Tick. Cleopatra's first Roman love was Julius marry and reign together. One of the brother's guardians, however, had dethroned Cleopatra; he had banished her and she was not in Egypt when Caesar came. It is not known whether it was at Caesar's request or not, but the story goes that she made her way back secretly to Alexandria and was carried inside a bed tick on the back of a servant to Caesar's apartments upon the throne, and when he left for This takes about an hour and from then Rome some time later he took her along Antony had been conquered by Octavi-Twice a week, according to Oriental anus, his brother-in-law, and it is said that

ple who are suspected of treason are im- FOURTEEN MILES OF ROSES Lawson's Farm Covered with

FRANK G. CARPENTER.

Rambler Blossoms. The greatest rose show in the world has been that at Dreamwold, Thomas W. Law-Owner of Four and Twenty Golden Um- fourteen miles of crimson ramblers have brellas. His subjects prostrate themselves been in bloom. Practically every building and fence on the place is overgrown with the flaming blossoms, and it is quite probable that no such scene of floral gorgeous-

The rose bushes number 6,500 and erigin-Mr. Lawson's idea, when he was planning this vast estate, to have at every other fencepost along the fourteen miles of fence planted. This was done nearly five years ago, but the bushes were stolen almost as fast as they were set out. Mr. Lawson, of the royal chambers were ordered in placed the stolen ones and kept replacing them until the thieving stopped. Now the The king is an enthusiastic Buddhist and bushes are so large that it would be impossible to steal them

The bushes were started, as Mr. Lawson planned, and true to their name, they rambled. One glorious bush, just above the space occupied by seven posts and is evidently not through with its ramblings yet Its blossoms are just as fine, in spite of their profusion, as those on the smaller bushes

There are nearly forty roses to each cluster of blossoms, and the number of clusters on one bush can hardly be counted. To view them separately, blossom by blosson is a delight, but the marvel comes when the eye rests on a stretch of brilliant, vivid crimson that seems, beside its own color, to hold some of the dancing warmth of the sun's rays. So rich in tone are the petals try she wears knickerbockers. No Euro- that the whole scheme of color seems to belong to something living, not to inanimate flowers. Visitors from all over the country are flocking to see this interesting sight, and some eminent floriculturists have thought it worth their while to journey to Dreamweld to study the dashing array of plants. The say never were crimson ramblers seen in such profusion and never were they so rare in color and size. The dazzling whiteness of the fencing that surrounds Dreamwold and the green of the rose leaves form the only contrast to the deep crimson of the thickly-bunched blossoms. The mile track that goes around the polo ground is hedged with the bushes and standing in the judges' stand, one looks off over a sea of red. The Highway, as the road is called that leads to Dreamwold hall, the home of the Lawson family, is lit erally a path of roses, and the raceway fore Christ was born. The only object of that goes past the tracks is a glorious

Not only is the ornamented part of the tory of old Egypt. It was put up only 1,600 estate decorated, but the working part of years ago, and long after Alexandria had the farm, which, in this case, happens to become one of the greatest cities of the be ornamental, also, has its quota of brilworld. The monument has been said to liant buds. They twine on either side of the and the stables and cover the chicken house, which, by the way, is as artistic as its inmates. Each paddock, pasture and driveway is ablaze with blooms, and wherever one goes on the farm, he is guided and led on by the banners of the roses. Around the paddocks the colts sometimes chew off the buds and blossoms, but they cannot do any damage where there are so many of the rich blossoms, and their paddocks are

The bushes have been in bloom for over a week, and every day brings them nearer their fulfillment of most profuse beauty, and unfortunately nearer their final fading and dying. More plants have been set out During the last few months they have been this year, and the ones already planted will digging in the earth far below its founda- be larger next season, so that the display tion and have taken out several massive in July, 1908, ought to be something to stone sphinxes, the heads of some of which chailenge any similar sight in any other a glow of crimson just the same.

Old Dutch Cleanser

does all the cleaning for the up-to-date housekeeper. This new cleanser does everything-cleans, scrubs, scours and polishes and is the quickest, handiest, cheapest and best cleanser ever discovered.

Scours

Pots, Kettles and Pans

perfectly "sweet" and clean, quickly taking off the hardest "burned-in"

Scrubs 3 Wood Floors by getting right down into the grain of the wood, taking up every speck of dirt and carrying it away.

and corrosion.

Polishes all smooth metal surfaces easily and brilliantly. Prevents all rust, tarnish

Old Dutch Cleanser, clean water and a brush or cloth will keep everything spick and span with very little help from you.

Large, Sifting-top Can (at all Grocers') . . 10c

THE CUDAHY PACKING CO., So. Omaha, Neb.

Sickness cannot exist when the body is properly nurtured and fed. STORZ MALT EXTRACT is a delicious liquid food and tonic which can be assimilated by the most delicate stomach. To the brain-worker, the convalescent, the nursing mother, or anyone needing up-building and sustaining nourishment, STORZ MALT EXTRACT is invaluable. Great benefit can also be obtained from it in cases of indigestion or dyspepsia, extreme nervousness, sleeplessness, or anaemic conditions of the body.

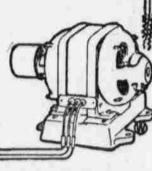

Over eight hundred physicians of the middle west have tested and indorsed STORZ MALT EXTRACT, and it was awarded Gold Medal for purity and excellence at the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, Portland, Ore., 1905.

Our beautiful illustrated beeklet, entitled, "Has Your Blood Red Corpuscies?" telling in detail about the manufacture and uses of STORZ MALT EXTRACT, will be mailed you free upon request.

Storn Malt Extract is sold by leading druggists overywhere. STORZ MALT EXTRACT DEPT. (10) OMAHA, NEB.

Powerful facts about

With electric power you have no false motions -no slipping of belts-no waits-no delaysstarts when you say so and stops when you have finished. You pay for only what you use. Would it not pay for you to investigate.

Your office furniture and your office

He'll never know, that you saved 30 to 50 per cent, by buying it of us—All the style and quality of the best there is in furniture—The reason you save so much is because you buy it of us at whelessie.

OMAHA PRINTING CO. Farnam and 10th Sta., Own.

will see the oriental potentate and the one portation, established telegraphic communi- After breakfast about 200 priests are ad-of his many wives who is recognized as cation with China and postal facilities, mitted. They depend upon charity for the latest trip of the couple because, un- navigable streams, improved the judicial which the royal breakfast party drops the like European royalties, theirs is not an in- system, proclaimed religious liberty, built food that they have not selected for their cognito assumed only to allow them to hospitals and an art museum and re- own use. Then the king and his family

King Chulalongkorn on His Travels adjourn to the temple, where he acts as and thus presented to the mighty Roman Phra Paramende Maha Chuia- own use is a royal yacht of 3,000 tons regis- The king is a hard worker, as a sketch priest, lights the altar candles and reads She so delighted him that he put her back of a day's routine will show. He gets up from the holy books. of the golden throne and lord During his reign, which has been peace- at 5 and breakfast is served by members of the white elephant, is traveling ful and prosperous, he has instituted many of the harem in the gardens. Twelve we until luncheon the king spends in his and kept her there for a year or so. When incognite in Europe with her majesty, reforms. He has abolished slavery, done men kneel before him and present silver library, where he has a big collection of Caesar was murdered Cleopatra, who had foreign books and newspapers. He goes returned to Egypt, made a conquest of to his bath at 2 o'clock, where his wives Marc Antony and she remained his sweetshampoo and perfume him. Then he talks heart from that time up to the day when to his wives and plays with his children he committed suicide upon the report that queen. Very little has been written about erected lighthouses and buoys, charted their food and present big bowls, into until he goes to the audience chamber to she had killed herself. This was after take up matters of state.

custom, he sits outside his palace gate to Cleopatra tried to capture the heart of seeive petitions and complaints from his Octavianus before she herself committed subjects. Twice a week he presides over suicide by putting the poisonous asp to her the San Luang, a secret society like the breast, Inquisition of Spain, and by its order peoprisoned and tortured to extract confession.

--

No sovereign receives more homage from nis people, and he possesses a list of titles that is imposing. He is Supreme Arbiter of the Ebb and Flow of the Tide, Brother of the Moon, Half Brother of the Sun and son's farm, near Scitnate, Mass., where as he passes and his favorite wives and his brothers kneel before him.

Finances do not worry him. His income is about $10,000,000 a year and his gorgeous ness was even seen anywhere before. palace contains much treasure. The palace is divided into outer and inner parts and ally were place sixteen feet apart. It was no European male has ever penetrated the

The Siamese hold the inner palace so sacred that it is had form even to allude that enclose the grounds a crimson rambler to it. The palace, which is the official residence, is built in Italian style, but the roofs are Siamese. The European furniture is of immense value and the adornments however, with his usual determination, re-London and cost $500,000.

encourages the display of pomp and grandeur in buildings, which best takes form in the completion of the temples begun by his ancestors. The wonders of these create a great impression upon Occidental visitors Dreamwold smithy, has spread along the and stories are told of gilded halls, gigantic precious stones and floors inlaid with silver and gold. In the midst of these temples rises the famous statue of Buddha covered with emeralds.

Of wives the king has many, but he can elevate only two of them to royal dignity. The custom still exists in Siam that on state occasions the princes and nobles present their prettiest daughters to the king. His supreme wife, Sowapa Pongsi, is his half-sister, both having the same father. She is 43, but looks younger. Her features are of Japanese type and in her own counpean queen is so rich in jewelry as she,

Love of Jewels.

The king, too, loves jewels and buys about $500,000 worth a year. The throne of state is decorated with many of them and in magnificence is second only to the peacock throne of Persta. It is composed largely of gold and is studded with precious stones. The king's mantle of state is declared to be the most valuable mantle in the world. It has been handed down from king to king, each adding precious stones, until now it is almost solidly encrusted with gems.

KING OF SIAM LANDING AT DOVER ON HIS WAY TO VISIT KING

Italians doing business in Cairo. They also furnish some of the best mechanics.

officers are native Egyptians. There are some French among the officials who have manage sugar and cotton mills owned

Returning to Alexandria, sitting here in in Egypt and they operate as far north as this $5 a day hotel, surrounded by all the luxuries of Paris or New York, I find it The Italians number about 25,600 and the hard to realize that I am in one of the very cab by mile after mile of modern build-stand over the grave of Pompey, but it was Tollway, which leads to the farming part really erected by an Egyptian prefect as a of the estate, they climb over the smithy landmark for sailors, a burning fire upon its top being visible for miles about this part of the Mediterranean sea. The pillar consists of a massive column of polished granite as big around as the botler of a raffroad lecomotive and as high as a tenstory flat. It consists of one solid block of stone, standing straight up on a pedestal It was dug out of the quarries of Assouan far up the Nile valley and was brought down the river on rafts and lifted in some way or other to its present position. An evidence of its modern origin is now to be seen in the excavations which the antiquarians are making about the pedestal.

ings, and traveling over the site of the metropolis which flourished here long be-note still left is Pompey's pillar, and that sight, with its bank of roses on either side. is new in comparison with the earliest his-

Alexandria the Ancient.

the modern power

Omaha Electric Light and Power Company

> Y. M. C. A. BUILDING Telephone Douglas 1062

stationery-should be your first careit's your introduction to your customers.

Everything Needed for the Office has as his advisor Prof. Henry Edward Strobel, who left the chair of international law at Harvard university last winter, to take the post. The king is said to be the most up-to-date and liberal monarch in Asia. His second son has studied tactics in the German army and another son spent considerable time with the Russians. One of Eighty-Four. King Chulalongkorn is one of old King Phra's eight-four children. The old king had the idea that the integrity of his kingdom depended upon keeping out Europeans, but in spite of that fact he recognized the advantages of western education and in 1862, against his own feelings and on the grounds of expediency, he decided to engage an English tutor for his family.

United States.

So he wrote to an English governess, Mrs. Leonowen, and asked her to come and teach English and literature, but not to preach the Christian religion. She came, and the young prince, who later became king, was her favorite pupil. He learned English and French quickly and made rapid progress in the six years she spent with him, but at the end of that time she rebelied at the old king's temper and gave up her pob in 1868, a few months before the old king died.

When Chulalongkorn ascended the golden throne he was only 15, and he ruled under a regency until 1873, when, according to Stamese law, he was recrowned and assumed authority. At that time the work of ruling was divided between two kings. Chulalongkorn had two-thirds of the power and the second king, who was maintained mostly for show, did the rest of the work. Chulalongkorn did not like that arrangement and he and the second king had a row. The second king fled to the British consulate for protection and that was the end of his power. When the second king died in 1887 Chulalongkorn abolished the office of subordinate ruler and Slam will never have any more difficulties on that

His Rule is Liberal. The kingship is now hereditary and the king is an absolute monarch, but he has a cabinet council of six royal princes and thirteen ministers of state. As soon as Chulalongkorn gained this absolute power he began to introduce western ideas into his kingdom. First he issued a decree making the crown prince heir to the threne. Then he than 200,000. The greater part of it is to introduced railways and built a navy. He be found in Alexandria and Cairo, and in

Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder Cleanses and beautifies the teeth and purifies the breath.

Used by people of refinement for over a quarter of a century. Convenient for tourists.

J. H. Lyon DIS.

fall before the British, and took steps to as in Sues and Port Said. There are more by them. save his own kingdom by playing one Greeks than any other. The Greeks have power against another. In that way he been exploiting the Egyptians and the Nile Russians, together with a few Americans stopped encroachments and the integrity valley for more than 2,000 years and they and Belgians. The Germans are largely of his domain was guaranteed. His navy are today the sharpest, shrewdest and in evidence as clerks and they carry on most unscrupulous business men in it. They mercantile businesses in many of the cities. do much of the banking and money lending. The British community amounts to about and until the government established banks 20,000, but a large number of these are of its own and brought down the rate of soldiers or civil officials, and among them interest, they demanded an enormous usury are something like 6,000 Maltese and 600 from the Egyptian peasants. They loaned British East Indians. Practically the money on lands and crops, and their in- whole government is administered by the terest rate is said to have averaged 150 British, although many of the subordinate per cent per annum This was changed about six years ago by the establishment of the Agricultural bank held over from the time when France was on the part of the government, that bank powerful in Egypt; a few have come to ending money to the farmers at 9 per cent to within 50 per cent of the value of their by Frenchmen, and others are shop keepers farms. Today the peasants all over Egypt in Alexandria and Cairo. can get money at $ per cent, and the Greeks have had to come down on their rates. There are now over 40,000 Greeks

Carpenter's Letter

(Continued from Page Three.)

20,000. There are many Italian shops here to look up relies of the past, going in a in Alexandria and there are hundreds of Many of them are masons and the greater saw his neighbor on the west, Burmah, the other towns of the Nile valley, as well of a similar nature have been constructed

French somewhere between 15,000 and oldest cities of history. I started out today are still wrapped in ciethe in order to pre- part of the world.—Philadelphia Record.