

BIG TASK FOR FRANCE

Nation Must Restore in the Whole of Morocco

GERMANY READY TO ACQUIESCE

Large Number of Punitive Expeditions Will Be Required.

ALL QUIET AT CASABLANCA

Two Thousand Additional Men Landed From French Warships.

MOORISH QUARTER IN RUINS

Shells Set Fire to Buildings and Debris Lying in the Streets.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—In spite of the firm intention of the French government to keep within the terms of the Algeiras convention in its dealings with Morocco, the French press clearly foresees that France, unless the situation rapidly improves, has entered upon a long and heavy task. The newspapers express the opinion that France, upon which the chief burden in restoring security to the disturbed country will fall, may be forced to occupy in turn all the Moroccan ports, and then probably be compelled to undertake a punitive expedition to Fez, after which it would be impossible to withdraw, as was the case with the British in Egypt. As the British bombardment of Alexandria enhanced the prestige of Great Britain in Egypt, so it is argued, the French bombardment of Casablanca will have a similar effect in Morocco. An expedition to Fez, the newspapers point out, would, like the British victory at Tel el Kebir, complete the parallel.

The Petit Parisien today prints an interesting interview with a high personage in the German Foreign office, who indicates that Germany recognizes the logic of the situation and is prepared to acquiesce in France's "inevitable predominance" in Morocco, provided France is prepared to give a quid pro quo in the shape of an admission of German government and German industrial securities into the French market.

Quiet at Casablanca.

TANGIER, Aug. 8.—A steamer which arrived here today from Casablanca reports that quiet has been restored among the natives there and that the Europeans are all well. The bombardment of the place by the French for eight hours, the native quarter was much damaged.

Additional French forces were landed at Casablanca yesterday afternoon. The report of the bombardment of Mazagan by the French cruiser Du Chayla is confirmed.

French Land Many Men.

The French warships yesterday landed 2,000 additional men at Casablanca, where street fighting apparently continued, judging from the desultory firing heard day and night by those on board the ships anchored off the town. The Jewish quarter of Casablanca has been sacked, many persons were massacred in the streets, the city is said to be full of dead Moors and the Moorish quarter is in ruins, having been set on fire by the shells from the big guns of the cruisers. All the stores are closed and much hunger and distress prevails among the poor.

The foreign consuls have ordered the stores to be reopened and have established a special tariff for foodstuffs, designed to mitigate the sufferings of the poor. The Europeans, who are all safe either on board ships or at the consulates are guarded by bluejackets. The warships continue to drop an occasional shell into the groups of Kabyles on the coast in order to prevent them from approaching the town.

A dispatch from Rabat says that the Kabyles have given the government a fortnight in which to withdraw the French controller of customs. Otherwise they say they will attack the town. The activity among the Andleras tribesmen near Tangier is creating some apprehension that a surprise attack may be made on the city.

Mazagan Nearly Destroyed.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—A special dispatch from Tangier says that the greater part of Mazagan was destroyed by the bombardment, but the consulates were not injured. It is reported that during the shelling of Mazagan the Moors attacked the Jewish quarter of the town and killed many persons.

The French charge d'affaires has made the following formal demands on the Moroccan government: "First—That the Moroccan authorities at Casablanca place themselves under the orders of the commander of the French forces. "Second—That the security of the French citizens at Fez and other places in the interior be guaranteed. "Third—That the Moroccan authorities hasten the reparations for the murder of Dr. Mauchamp. "Fourth—That the Moroccan authorities expedite the preparations for the application of the reforms agreed upon by the Algeiras convention."

SECURITIES ON DOWN GRADE

Prices of Stocks at New York Crumble by Degrees.

CAUSE NOT EASILY ESTABLISHED

British Consols Go at New Low Level—Heavy Selling by the Holders of Railroad Shares.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—With British consols selling at a new low level and American stocks generally lower in London, following the sharp declines here yesterday, the opening of the New York stock market today was attended with unusual interest.

The sharp decline in quotations yesterday was without explanation further than it was due to heavy selling by holders of railroad and other shares, who did not care to retain their securities at this time. There was nothing to show whether their desire to sell was because they were tired of waiting for an upward movement, or because of the low supplies of money, or because of depressed sentiment in Wall street over the difficulties in which many corporations find themselves with the national and state governments.

First transactions showed large sales at lower prices. Union Pacific was 1/4 lower than last night on sale of 3,500 shares and Northern Pacific was 1/4 lower. Other shares sold at from 1 to 1/2 below yesterday's final quotations.

The market was generally in a nervous state, but the trading was not attended with any unusual excitement. Today's declines were attributed to sales by speculators who desire lower prices and to holders who did not have the funds to protect their brokers against further losses.

The so-called Standard Oil and Frick groups of stocks were the centers of attack, including in that designation Union Pacific, Reading, Amalgamated Copper and American Smelting and in close sympathy the Hill railroads and St. Paul.

The speculators for the decline used as their principal fresh ammunition the reports from Washington of the intention of the Department of Justice to push criminal prosecutions against heads of corporations. The quick rallies of 1 to 2 points in the first hour left the market unsettled and feverish.

Standard Oil sold down 11 points to 48. Interests who sought stocks to support the market, let them go at intervals in the afternoon, but there were no serious set backs and the market rallied easily when the selling ceased.

The market became steadier, but when the earlier losses had been retrieved there was no disposition to follow the advance and the market fell into the hands of the price of Standard Oil in the curb market fell an extreme 19 points from last night's closing of 67 on the sale of seventy-five shares. The stock subsequently shared in the vigorous rallying tendency shown on the Stock exchange.

"Insurgents" Purchase Paper.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—The announcement is made that W. S. Bowen, for the last five or six years editor of the Sioux Falls Daily Press, has sold his interest in the paper and, on September 1, will transfer the ownership to a purchaser or purchasers. The name or names of those who have purchased Mr. Bowen's interest in the paper have been withheld, but the fact that during the last few days several state officials, who are leaders of the insurgent or dominant faction of South Dakota republicans, have been in the city has given rise to the rumor that the interest of Mr. Bowen in the paper has been secured by the insurgent leaders, with a view to furthering the interests of Governor Dinkley.

Interurban in Wyoming. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 8.—(Special.)—All indications point to the fact that the Cheyenne city council, at its meeting August 30, will grant to William J. Barker of the Denver Gas and Electric company a franchise to construct and operate an electric street railway between Cheyenne and Fort Russell, with branch lines throughout the city. Barker's application for such a franchise was received last night and was favorably regarded. The franchise he desires is almost identical with that just forfeited by Eugene Swenson in Denver, calling for the commencement of work within the main line within ninety days and its completion within 180 days; providing specifications guaranteeing a substantially constructed and moderately equipped system, limiting city fares to cents for many years, in the early days, being connected with the old Yankton Press and Dakotan.

NO DISASTER AWAITS CORN

Superintendent Holden of Ames College Takes Wind of Calamity Howler's Sails.

About two weeks ago one L. R. Trowbridge of Tabor, Ia., appeared in Omaha and invited himself to lecture before the Omaha Grain exchange on a subject of a corn root disease which he said was prevalent. He proved to be a calamity howler on the subject of crops. He delivered a harangue on the floor of the exchange telling of the calamity which had traveled over Iowa and Nebraska examining the corn and had found it so badly damaged by a root disease that the crop would be an exceedingly short one.

After carefully writing for the local papers an interview of the alarming nature sometimes given out by shrewd manipulators when they wish to bull the market, he did some trading in local grain offices. The papers did not print his interview away to assign a cause for the crumbling ease of prices of securities in the American market.

The sharp decline in quotations yesterday was without explanation further than it was due to heavy selling by holders of railroad and other shares, who did not care to retain their securities at this time. There was nothing to show whether their desire to sell was because they were tired of waiting for an upward movement, or because of the low supplies of money, or because of depressed sentiment in Wall street over the difficulties in which many corporations find themselves with the national and state governments.

POLE SHOOTS TWO HOT MEN

Without Warning Kills One and Fires at Another, Who Cannot Recover.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 8.—Ludwig Sczegiel, said to be an unattached Polish priest of Chicago, walked into a hotel at 1311 Chestnut street, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. It is said he drew a revolver and fired upon two proprietors, twin brothers, named Steven and Andrew Starzynski. Steven died within an hour and Andrew cannot recover. The cause of the shooting is a mystery.

Sczegiel, who was arrested, refuses to talk, and nothing could be learned from either of his alleged victims. When Sczegiel came to Pittsburgh about ten days ago he went to the hotel kept by the brothers, accompanied by a woman, whom he introduced as his housekeeper. They secured an apartment of two rooms. The woman, who is a native of Chicago, is reported to be held as a suspicious person. She denies all knowledge of the shooting. Sczegiel, it is said, had been drinking heavily ever since he arrived in the city. It was stated by Mrs. Starzynski, wife of Andrew, that she noted ten minutes before the shooting a note pinned to the apartment door, signed by Sczegiel and the woman. Her husband, she said, went upstairs and reprimanded the pair for making a disturbance. If then went downstairs and joined his brother in the dining room. In a few minutes, she says, the priest appeared in the doorway, and she saw him shoot at the two men.

The prisoner wears the partial dress of a clergyman, although his attire does not indicate to what denomination he belongs. The police authorities do not believe the man is a member of any clerical order, but that he had a purpose in assuming the disguise.

RACE RIOT IN HILLSBORO

Assault of White Men Stir Citizens to High Feeling Against Blacks.

HILLSBORO, Ill., Aug. 8.—Ill feeling toward negroes which has been brewing since last Friday night, when John T. Madrox, an aged white man, was assaulted by a negro, culminated in a race riot last night and the majority of negroes were chased out of town. Negroes and white citizens fought in the public streets for several hours and the business section was in a turmoil. Finally a number of negroes fled from town and order was restored. D. J. Fry, who has a contract for paving work and employed negroes, insisted that his employees be protected, but to no effect.

OVER INCH RAIN IN FOUR HOURS

Wind Gets Up to a Thirty-Six-Mile Gulp.

According to the weather bureau the rain began falling Wednesday night at 7:55 and continued until shortly after midnight. The amount of precipitation was 1.19 inches. While the rain fell for this period of four hours has been twice exceeded in Omaha, it will still be a good rain. The storm came from the northwest. The maximum wind velocity during the night was thirty-six miles an hour. At Sioux City a wind velocity of fifty-six miles per hour was reported during the night. The rain was general throughout the east portion of the state. The heaviest precipitation reported was at Council Bluffs, 2 1/2 inches. At Fairbury and Fairmont 1.96, at Ashburn 1.32 and at Ashland 1 inch. The wires were down at Columbus and Oakdale, and also at Valentine, hence no reports were received from those localities. No rain is reported at all North Platte. The condition for Thursday night and Friday promises showery weather with thunder storms.

BIG PAPPIO IS OUT OF ITS BANKS

Fractions Stream Swells Up Because of Little Rain.

The county commissioners received word Thursday morning that the heavy rains had swollen the Big Pappio to such an extent it was out of its banks and was threatening the Center street pavements and the new steel bridge just completed on the Center street road. It was so feared the grading on West Q street was damaged. County Engineer Bell with some of the commissioners went out to examine the roads along the creek and to take measures to prevent further damage.

FIREMEN HURT IN STORM

Second Assistant Chief Bruised and Driver Gets Broken Leg.

Indirectly the terrific electrical storm of Wednesday night, which soaked so many hundreds of pleasure seekers in and around Omaha and did other more serious mischief, was the cause of James H. Francis, driver for Second Assistant Fire Chief Martin J. Dineen, getting his leg broken and Dineen getting badly bruised. They were on a run to the fire at the residence of Casper E. Yost, Thirty-ninth and Davenport streets, Wednesday night. They were going west on Cumming street, taking the north side of the street, as the north had been torn up by the laying of conduits and ran into a huge pile of crushed rock and paving machinery at Thirty-ninth street. There was no lantern on the obstruction and the horse ran squarely into it, throwing both men out upon their faces.

Mr. Francis sustained a broken leg and the assistant chief was bruised, but not badly enough to prevent his reporting for duty Thursday morning.

The damage to the Yost residence probably will amount to about $75. The house was burned in several places and some furniture, including a large dining room table was damaged by falling glass. Mr. Yost at first came out of town and there was no one in the house but two women servants.

Close Call from Lightning.

The son of W. A. Sharrar, 264 Erskine street, had almost miraculous escape from death by lightning Wednesday evening. He was asleep in one of the upstairs rooms of the house, when a bolt entered the window set fire to the cash curtains and then them over on the bed. The bed clothes immediately caught fire. Mr. Sharrar called to his father and brother and grabbing the clothes carried them into the bath room, where the fire was extinguished. If the bolt had struck him or if he had been sleeping soundly he would have been burned to death before help could have reached him.

The bolt crossed the room and tore a hole in the partition. The house did not catch fire. The fact Mr. Sharrar was partially awakened by the storm is all that saved his life. The other members of the family had not yet gone to bed. His father is a clerk in the county assessor's office.

The same house was struck by lightning and badly damaged about six years ago. Several basements of residences in the low ground on Dewey avenue, between Twenty-eighth street and Park avenue, were badly flooded.

The chimney on the residence at 572 South Twenty-eighth street was demolished by the lightning and the house otherwise slightly damaged.

The tall smokestack at the Shriver apartment house on South Twenty-sixth street was demolished by the wind.

MATT CARROLL ALL BUT DROWNED

Goes Out of Sight in Muddy Water, but Escapes.

Wednesday evening Frank Furay and Matt Carroll came down from Krug park on the early wave of the storm and reached the shore at Cumming in good order. Here they got the car to transfer and while waiting for the Twenty-fourth street car, after the rain had lulled, crossed the street to the south side for a glass of beer and a sandwich. Carroll bought himself a prescription he wanted filled and darted back across the street on his way to Schmidt's drug store. He had forgotten the book being done there by the Independent Telephone company, but the hole was still there and a little over six feet deep.

Furay and those with him were horrified to see Carroll suddenly disappear and then thought of what might have happened. He was out of sight in muddy water, but soon came to the surface, and was fished out, dripping and slimy, but injured more in his feelings than elsewhere.

BAR AGAINST ALGER'S BOOKS

Worcester, Mass., Public Library Regards His Works Much Too Sensational.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 8.—The works of Horatio Alger, Jr., the noted writer of books for boys, have been barred from the shelves of the Worcester Public Library. Alger is now in the same class as Mark Twain, Robert W. Chambers, Walt Whitman and other well known producers of literature, some of whose works have been barred from free public libraries in Worcester county towns and cities. At the library the reason for barring Alger's books, which have been on the shelves for years, is that they were not truthful and are too sensational.
