Railroads Asked to Do Their Share to Make the City Present a Neater Appearance and He More Healthful.

Kie, the city clean and if you cannot keep it clean, keep it as clean as you can," in the slogan of Mayor Macrae. The funds at the disposal of the health department are limited, and there is but one special officer whose duties are to prevent as far as possible violations of the city ordinances prohibiting the throwing of garbage and other refuse in the alleys, vacant lots, etc. The street supervisor, under direction of the committee on streets and alleys, has had a force of men cutting weeds on the public thoroughfares, but the owners of unimproved lots have done practically nothing in this respect towards improving the appearance and at the same time the health of the city. Noxious weeds cover the vacant lots in every part of the city and conditions have become such as to prompt the following appeal to the people of Council Bluffs from Mayor Macrae:

I ask all citizens of Council Bluffs to co-I ask all citizens of Council Bluffs to cooperate with the committee on streets and the health department to this plain violation of law.

I further ask the Rock Island, the Burlington, the Northwestern, the Wabash, the Great Western, the Union Pacific and the Milwaukee railroad companies and the Dusha & Council Bluffs Motor company to help this movement along by cutting the weeds on their rights-of-way and lots in the city.

While the law apparently gives the health department the power to go ahead and destroy these weeds and have the expense charged to the property involved, i do not think such an extreme step is needed in the present case, believing, as I do, that the loyalty of our citizens to the general interests and a laudable pride in the appearance of our beautiful town will cause every man, woman and child and every corporation to do their part in this general cleanup.

Colonel Bishop of Blues Gains Advantage Over Lincoln of Browns.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Aug. 10.-(Special.)-Through the execution of a shrewd flank movement Colonel Bishop and the army of the Blues gained a decided advantage over Colonel Lincoln and the Browns in FALL TERM OF WESTERN IOWA COLLEGE OPENS AUGUST 26. SEND FOR CATALOGE.

Bishop took his position on the west side of the road, and by a flank movement was able to cut off one of the battalions of Lincoln's army. Thus crippled, Lincoln fell back.

Further flank movements were executed with good effect by Bishop which gave the Blues the clear advantage in today's maneuvers. Because of the fact that most of the forces of both armies are National Guardsmen from the offices and shops of the cities the maneuvers were called off at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Both armies posted outguards to guard against any sudden hostile attack and activity will be renewed in the morning, probably at about

The flercest part of today's engagement was near the home of Dr. Squires, half way between the state rifle range, where the Brown army has been camping and the Corydon bridge, where the Blues crossed this morning. All the modern appliances of warfare worked perfectly during the engagement. The field telephone service and wireless telegraphy were both used to advantage. Some little difficulty was experienced by the Signal corps early in the day. Teamsters from Des Moines were engaged to bring the Signal corps paraphernalia out and to haul it from place to place. Last night they disappeared and this morning there was a scurrying to find farmers with teams. They were secured without great difficulty, before the main engagement opened between the two armies

ARAPAHOE, Neb., Aug. 10.-(Special Telegram.)--The coroner's jury returned its the holding of Ott Stevens, city marshal, for trial, and his preliminary hearing will be held at Beaver City before Justice Murrin on Monday, August 12. The evidence offered points strongly to his firing the fatal shot. The sheriff was privately notified of the jury's actions, and with his prisoner was well on his way to Beaver City before the verdict was made public.

Briefly, the testimony showed a man gave his son two bottles of beer to take homo his wife and the marshal took them away from the boy and was going to arrest his father for bootlegging. The father said he would not go along with the marshel without a warrant and the marshal hit him with his club. The workingmen numbered a few score first, then American citizen. He is an anarchist.- a few hundred, then thousands. There was a similar increase in the number of investors who would hold me to account. While I worked for myself I had to work son hitched up to a lumber wagon Friday for them whether or no. Today, retired afternoon and took a load of women to from active business, retired, that is, from business for myself, the capital I have opens opportunities for thousands of others to place their savings profitably. No man with money can escape this responsibility or loosen this yoke from his neck. Servants, and Not Masters. "We are servants, and not masters. We who are or have been engaged in large business affairs. It is to our vital interest that the country prosper, that the people prosper. That they can destroy us or our business, or at least destroy our power of serving them. We would probably suffer the least. The richest man can eat but three meals a day and it does not take a fortune to dress very well indeed, or to provide real fuxury in living. The men who have acquired the largest fortunes have not pursued wealth, but business got as far as Seward and discovered he success. Had they desired money for the enjoyment of money they would have stopped far short of spending their lives, as they have, in the struggle that is business. The natural ambition of every man to make good provision for his family can be satisfied far short of the point reached by the big men of the industrial world of today. But they continue to toil at their deaks because they love achievement, for the keen delight in creating where nothing was, and some time, I believe, people will be convinced that they are tolling for love of country as well." When it comes to the attacks on him and his associates. Mr. Rockefeller shows himself the philosopher. He does not pretend to like the assaults, nor does he pretend to haughty indifference and he is not affectedly flippant in his comments But he is not bitter toward those who assnil him. He says it is a misunderstanding that will right itself in time He frankly regrets it, but he seems even more distressed at what he considers the danger of losing a good opportunity to capture the trade of the world than over the personal phase of the attacks "We are proud of our national sense
