

CHOICE OF RHOADS WISE

Selection of Fort Crook Man Popular in Manila.

OPERATING SURGEON THAT POST

Distinguished by His Successful Operations on Secretary of War.

MANILA, P. I., July 15.—(Special Correspondence.)—The assignment of Captain Thomas L. Rhoads, late assistant chief surgeon of the Thirtieth infantry at Fort Crook, to the post of operating surgeon of the division hospital here is considered by those familiar with his record to be a very wise choice for a position of so great importance.

Captain Rhoads has distinguished himself in the realm of surgery both in and outside of the army. One of his most famous pieces of work was the operation he performed on Secretary of War Taft with such signal success. He also performed a difficult operation on Brigadier General Funston.

The position of operating surgeon at the division hospital here is considered one of the most important in the medical department of the army, as more delicate and difficult operations are performed on soldiers in these islands than in any division in the United States.

The post has been filled for the last two years by Major Alexander N. Stark, whose work brought him credit to his corps.

Captain Rhoads has a remarkable record as a surgeon. For the five years previous to his appointment to the army he was assistant to Dr. W. W. Keen, professor of surgery at Jefferson Medical college, Philadelphia and one of the foremost surgeons in the country.

In 1882 at the beginning of the Spanish war Captain Rhoads entered the army. He had charge of the surgical ward at the Third Reserve hospital, now the Luneta barracks, in 1890. He then served with the First cavalry in field service for six months and after that had charge of the surgical work in the First reserve—now division—hospital.

He served from May until November, 1898 as assistant surgeon in the navy. He had charge of the surgical work at the general hospital in San Francisco during the Spanish war. He was also instructor in surgery at West Point for two years.

Obstacles of Civil Service. The civil service in the islands threatens to be seriously impaired. The numbers of those under the service who resign their positions and take the first steamer for the United States is increasing alarmingly. It is astonishing and disheartening to those who expect to stay here to see the large numbers, who are deserting the service. Men who have been here two, three, four, six or seven years and are just in the position where they might get something really good are leaving their places and going home.

In the opinion here that the civil service in so far as it pertains to these distant islands should be revised. Under conditions as they now exist men leave and go home just when they have passed their period of probation and are getting the best of the service to the government. For the first twelve months everything is strange, the natives unknown quantities, the language a hierarchy. In

METHODISTS AT HOT SPRINGS

Twenty-Eighth Annual Conference of Black Hills Mission in Session.

HOT SPRINGS, S. D., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—The twenty-eighth annual conference of the Black Hills mission of the Methodist Episcopal church convened here this evening. Following is the program for the session:

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper administered by Bishop Warren. Organization and conference business. Missionary sermon by Rev. Thomas Andrews. Bible lecture, "Sermon on the Mount," by Rev. Thomas Andrews. D. L. L., D., president, Dakota Wesleyan university. Song service led by Rev. A. L. Baker. Anniversary of Home Missions and Church Extension societies; address by Thomas C. Hill, D. D., Denver, Colo. Devotional services led by Rev. J. M. Gardner.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 18.

Sunday school. Conference love feast, led by Dr. C. B. Clark. Sermon by Bishop Henry Warren, D. D. Anniversary of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Mrs. C. B. Clark, chair. Address by Miss Parks, missionary from Manila. Temperance anniversary; addresses by Rev. Butterfield of Miller, S. D., and Alonzo E. Wilson of Chicago. Epworth League service, led by Rev. W. E. Jeffrey. Anniversary of Foreign Missionary society. Reading of appointments by the bishop.

WILL OPEN UP RAIL MILL

Mr. Harriman When in Laramie Reported to Have So Said.

LARAMIE, Wyo., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—When Mr. Harriman was in Laramie Monday he is said to have told an official that he had long been contemplating opening up the Laramie rail mills and the information given out comes chiefly from this source.

Mr. Harriman has long complained of the expense of buying rails from the Steel trust and the development of iron mountain is the solution of the problem of obtaining material with which to open up the rail shops at Laramie.

The information was that with the completion of the Union Pacific line now building from North Platte to Bridgeport that road will open up an industry at Laramie, which has long lain dormant, for the new branch, it is thought, will reach to the famous untapped fields of iron mountain. The ore from that ledge will be shipped down to the shops at Laramie, and the milling of rails and castings will begin once more, after twenty years.

At present the Union Pacific is making bolts, fish plates and other small steel necessities at Laramie shops, but the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. and the Steel trust is doing most of the rail work, for the reason, as given out by the authorities when the rail mills were abandoned at Laramie years ago, that the supply of iron was insufficient.

FRITZ SCHEFF'S HUSBAND

Petition in Bankruptcy Against Baron Fritz von Bardeleben at New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Baron Fritz von Bardeleben, who is the husband of Fritz Scheff, the actress, and who has been in the business of importing post cards and lithographic supplies at 20 West Third street, was the subject of a petition in bankruptcy filed yesterday by creditors.

GEN. CORBIN FOR CONGRESS

Republicans of His Home District in Ohio May Nominates Him.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Lieutenant General H. C. Corbin, who was in this city today, when asked what he had to say about the announced intention of his friends at his old home, Batavia, to nominate him for congress in the Sixth district, said:

"I am not asking anything from my people, but there is nothing I would refuse them. I am not ambitious. I am a plain American citizen, accustomed to obey commands. I would do anything to serve my people if they wished it so."

The Sixth district has had a factional fight on hand for several years, but it is believed by many that with General Corbin as the republican candidate all friction within the ranks would be eliminated.

HUGE WATER MAIN BURSTS

Chicago Yards and Homes Inundated, Endangering Lives.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—With a roar that brought frightened sleepers from their beds for blocks around, a thirty-six inch water main in Chicago avenue burst early today, shooting a column of water sixty feet into the air, imperiling several lives and damaging property to the extent of several thousand dollars.

OFFICERS RESCUE HOTEL GUESTS

Carry Women and Children from Their Rooms—Damage to Property Will Be Very Heavy.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—With a roar that brought frightened sleepers from their beds for blocks around, a thirty-six inch water main in Chicago avenue burst early today, shooting a column of water sixty feet into the air, imperiling several lives and damaging property to the extent of several thousand dollars.

CARNIVAL OF SWEET PEAS

Tourists and Trains Are Laden with Flowers as Forerunner of Festival.

BOZEMAN, Mont., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Every passenger train that passes through this city during the day is met by women of Bozeman with bouquets of sweet peas, in sufficient number to give every passenger a small bunch, and these are handed to the trainmen to distribute through the train while it stops here.

RIDES WHEEL LIKE GODIVA

Sleeping Girl Clad Only in Nightgown Startles Police at Fort Dodge, Ia.

FORT DODGE, Ia., Aug. 16.—The ghostlike apparition of a girl astride a bicycle flitting about the streets after midnight will startle residents in the east end any longer. For weeks pedestrians abroad late at night have been scared.

Clad in a flowing white garment, with hair streaming behind her and the gas rider had excited a good deal of interest as well as fright. Several attempts made to follow the rider had failed because the bicycle always disappeared.

CHAPMAN ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Prominent Nebraska City Merchant Says Wife Always Asks For It.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Calvin Chapman has filed his petition in district court praying for a divorce from his wife. Both are well known residents of this county, having resided here since 1885. They were married in this city June 4, 1885, and have since made their home here.

WRECK NEAR RUSSELL, IOWA

Burlington Train Derailed and Eleven Persons Hurt—Omaha Man Among Victims.

RUSSELL, Ia., Aug. 16.—The fast Burlington train No. 4, en route from Denver to Chicago, was wrecked a mile east of Russell, Ia., yesterday afternoon, injuring eleven persons, two of whom may die.

WOMAN IS SEVERELY BURNED

Mrs. Becker of Grand Island Severely Injured by Gasoline Explosion.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Mrs. Fred Becker, ar. was, frightened, though not fatally burned and the residence threatened with fire through an unusual accident at their home. Mrs. Tannhausen, daughter of Mrs. Becker, was about to fill a gasoline stove with the fluid when the telephone bell rang.

NYE BURIED IN NEW YORK

Newspaper Man to Be Laid to Rest This Afternoon in the Metropolis.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The last rites over the body of Fred Nye, associate editor of the New York World, who was accidentally killed in a street car accident here Tuesday, will be held here today. He will be buried in New York.

DEATH RECORD.

Harry H. McGee, one of the best known clerks of the Omaha and Ogden division of the railway mail service, died at his home in Fremont Friday morning after an illness of several weeks of tuberculosis.

PASTY FOOD

Too Commonly Used.

The use of pasty cereals is not advisable. A physician says: "Pasty cereals are very indigestible and a bad thing for the stomach, causing a depressed feeling and quite a train of disorders, particularly of the intestines and nerves."

GOVERNOR FREAR INAUGURATED

He Promises a Settlement of Land Question in Hawaiian Territory.

HONOLULU, Aug. 16.—Governor Frear was inaugurated today. He promises a settlement of the agricultural land question in the interest of the holders of small tracts. Mott Smith has qualified as secretary of the territory. A. S. Hartwell as chief justice of the supreme court, and Judge Ballou as associate justice.

BALTIMORE WANTS THE FLAG

Historic Star-Spangled Banner Apostrophized by Francis Scott Key.

The flag which, fluttering over old Fort McHenry, inspired Francis Scott Key to write the verses which now compose the national anthem, on that morning nearly a quarter of a century ago, may be turned over to the city of Baltimore for safe keeping.

The flag is now in the possession of Colonel George Armistead, the son of the fort, to whom it was presented by the government in recognition of his distinguished and gallant services.

Several attempts have been made to induce Mr. Appleton to part with his heirloom to some historical society or museum, but without success. Only two or three months ago Governor Wardwell invited Mr. Appleton to give the banner to the state of Maryland, but the New York man declined.

Now, however, Mayor Mahool has received a letter from Mr. Appleton, in which the latter expresses the opinion that the relic should be turned over to Baltimore, and says that he will take up the matter with the mayor within the next few weeks.

The house in which the flag was made still stands at the northwest corner of Pratt and Albemarle streets, Baltimore. It is a small building with two stories and an attic. Ninety years ago the place was owned by Mrs. John Pickersgill, who was Miss Mary Young, and it was she who did the principal work on the flag.

STRIKE INVOLVES RAILROAD

(Continued from First Page.)

extensive business with these giant monopolies, has had just that very proposition placed squarely before him. The telegraphers of the country know just exactly what they make the best association at this time that their cause is a common one.

"Since this strike began thousands of patrons of the telegraph right here in Omaha have heard the same story from telegraph managers. The story has been different from what it would be if there were a strike on one of the big railroads. In fact, only a few people would be affected by such a condition and they would use some other line. Right now the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies are saying to the people, possibly not in so many words, but surely they are using the argument daily: 'The people have got to come to us anyway and so far as this strike is concerned, we are not particular what the people, or even the telegraph patrons of the country, say. We have got their business and they can't give it to anybody else. While we will do the best we can, we can make no promise that their programs are delayed twenty-four or forty-eight hours, we will regret it, but we have the money for these telegrams and we are going to keep it, because they can't get it back. We have the upper hand on the public and the operators and we are going to keep it.'

"The telegraph operators are prepared to show by thousands of witnesses in any court that the above situation is the actual condition. Where the public is laughed at one when it makes complaint of this condition the telegraph operators are scoffed at a hundred times if they make bold to assert their manhood. If this contest ever comes before a court high enough to make a full investigation it will disclose conditions that the people have never dreamed of. The telegraph operators are ready to prove by every evidence that was ever required by a court that these are the actual conditions, and the people may go into this fight with the strikers without fear of placing themselves in antagonism to a single interest except the telegraph monopoly.

"The public is a common one, and while the public may be temporarily inconvenienced by this strike, the people will be the actual beneficiaries. We want to make the broad assertion that whether this strike is won or lost it is the greatest boon the people of the country have ever had. It can only be the means of awakening everybody to what has been permitted to exist for years simply because there appeared to be no sane remedy. Every person with a grievance against the telegraph has learned to forget it with this parting exclamation: 'Well, what are you going to do? They have it their own way.'

"The purpose of this statement is not to create a prejudice against persons, but to call attention to the actual conditions, of which the people are fully aware and are only waiting for an opportunity to overcome.

"We are not even prepared to say an ill thing of the officials of the telegraph companies, generally speaking. Of course there are quite a number of them who are ready to grind us to the last ditch—to even starve us into submission—but they are few. We believe that 99 per cent of the superintendents of the country would, in their own hearts, be glad to see the operators win this contest. They know full well that it is to the interest of themselves and the people alike, and that every victory won by the telegraph operators is an even greater one for them, regardless of the fact that they do not feel that they are officials of the corporation. There is no wish to tell family secrets nor to betray confidences, but the telegraphers are prepared to prove everything they tell the people in this statement.

ILL WIND THAT BLOWS NO GOOD

At Least One Man is Benefited by the Strike.

There have been some digressions from the ordinary course of business in Omaha because of the telegraphers' strike, which have brought good and bad fortune to those concerned. One Omaha man considers that the strike has benefited him directly to the extent of $50.

"I had been keeping an eye on a certain railroad stock for a long time," he says. "Monday morning it dropped to a figure at which I considered it a good buy. I hurried down to the bank and told them I was for 30 shares."

"The clerk took down my order and I was on pins and needles even at that brief delay. Then he called my attention to the fact that a strike had just been called and that my message might not reach New York for a day or so."

SANDALS AND SHORT SLEEVES

Style of Dress for Men Next Summer, and Lace Trousers to Boon.

"Sandals will be all the rage next summer for men's wear. The kind the boys wear this year, you know."

The speaker looked like a traveling salesman and he spoke to men who looked like traveling salesmen. They were sitting in chairs in the shade of the Paxton hotel. The man addressed looked at the other in astonishment.

STRIKE INVOLVES RAILROAD

(Continued from First Page.)

extensive business with these giant monopolies, has had just that very proposition placed squarely before him. The telegraphers of the country know just exactly what they make the best association at this time that their cause is a common one.

"Since this strike began thousands of patrons of the telegraph right here in Omaha have heard the same story from telegraph managers. The story has been different from what it would be if there were a strike on one of the big railroads. In fact, only a few people would be affected by such a condition and they would use some other line. Right now the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies are saying to the people, possibly not in so many words, but surely they are using the argument daily: 'The people have got to come to us anyway and so far as this strike is concerned, we are not particular what the people, or even the telegraph patrons of the country, say. We have got their business and they can't give it to anybody else. While we will do the best we can, we can make no promise that their programs are delayed twenty-four or forty-eight hours, we will regret it, but we have the money for these telegrams and we are going to keep it, because they can't get it back. We have the upper hand on the public and the operators and we are going to keep it.'

"The telegraph operators are prepared to show by thousands of witnesses in any court that the above situation is the actual condition. Where the public is laughed at one when it makes complaint of this condition the telegraph operators are scoffed at a hundred times if they make bold to assert their manhood. If this contest ever comes before a court high enough to make a full investigation it will disclose conditions that the people have never dreamed of. The telegraph operators are ready to prove by every evidence that was ever required by a court that these are the actual conditions, and the people may go into this fight with the strikers without fear of placing themselves in antagonism to a single interest except the telegraph monopoly.

"The public is a common one, and while the public may be temporarily inconvenienced by this strike, the people will be the actual beneficiaries. We want to make the broad assertion that whether this strike is won or lost it is the greatest boon the people of the country have ever had. It can only be the means of awakening everybody to what has been permitted to exist for years simply because there appeared to be no sane remedy. Every person with a grievance against the telegraph has learned to forget it with this parting exclamation: 'Well, what are you going to do? They have it their own way.'

"The purpose of this statement is not to create a prejudice against persons, but to call attention to the actual conditions, of which the people are fully aware and are only waiting for an opportunity to overcome.

"We are not even prepared to say an ill thing of the officials of the telegraph companies, generally speaking. Of course there are quite a number of them who are ready to grind us to the last ditch—to even starve us into submission—but they are few. We believe that 99 per cent of the superintendents of the country would, in their own hearts, be glad to see the operators win this contest. They know full well that it is to the interest of themselves and the people alike, and that every victory won by the telegraph operators is an even greater one for them, regardless of the fact that they do not feel that they are officials of the corporation. There is no wish to tell family secrets nor to betray confidences, but the telegraphers are prepared to prove everything they tell the people in this statement.

"The telegraph operators are prepared to show by thousands of witnesses in any court that the above situation is the actual condition. Where the public is laughed at one when it makes complaint of this condition the telegraph operators are scoffed at a hundred times if they make bold to assert their manhood. If this contest ever comes before a court high enough to make a full investigation it will disclose conditions that the people have never dreamed of. The telegraph operators are ready to prove by every evidence that was ever required by a court that these are the actual conditions, and the people may go into this fight with the strikers without fear of placing themselves in antagonism to a single interest except the telegraph monopoly.

"The public is a common one, and while the public may be temporarily inconvenienced by this strike, the people will be the actual beneficiaries. We want to make the broad assertion that whether this strike is won or lost it is the greatest boon the people of the country have ever had. It can only be the means of awakening everybody to what has been permitted to exist for years simply because there appeared to be no sane remedy. Every person with a grievance against the telegraph has learned to forget it with this parting exclamation: 'Well, what are you going to do? They have it their own way.'

"The purpose of this statement is not to create a prejudice against persons, but to call attention to the actual conditions, of which the people are fully aware and are only waiting for an opportunity to overcome.

"We are not even prepared to say an ill thing of the officials of the telegraph companies, generally speaking. Of course there are quite a number of them who are ready to grind us to the last ditch—to even starve us into submission—but they are few. We believe that 99 per cent of the superintendents of the country would, in their own hearts, be glad to see the operators win this contest. They know full well that it is to the interest of themselves and the people alike, and that every victory won by the telegraph operators is an even greater one for them, regardless of the fact that they do not feel that they are officials of the corporation. There is no wish to tell family secrets nor to betray confidences, but the telegraphers are prepared to prove everything they tell the people in this statement.

"The telegraph operators are prepared to show by thousands of witnesses in any court that the above situation is the actual condition. Where the public is laughed at one when it makes complaint of this condition the telegraph operators are scoffed at a hundred times if they make bold to assert their manhood. If this contest ever comes before a court high enough to make a full investigation it will disclose conditions that the people have never dreamed of. The telegraph operators are ready to prove by every evidence that was ever required by a court that these are the actual conditions, and the people may go into this fight with the strikers without fear of placing themselves in antagonism to a single interest except the telegraph monopoly.

"The public is a common one, and while the public may be temporarily inconvenienced by this strike, the people will be the actual beneficiaries. We want to make the broad assertion that whether this strike is won or lost it is the greatest boon the people of the country have ever had. It can only be the means of awakening everybody to what has been permitted to exist for years simply because there appeared to be no sane remedy. Every person with a grievance against the telegraph has learned to forget it with this parting exclamation: 'Well, what are you going to do? They have it their own way.'

"The purpose of this statement is not to create a prejudice against persons, but to call attention to the actual conditions, of which the people are fully aware and are only waiting for an opportunity to overcome.

"We are not even prepared to say an ill thing of the officials of the telegraph companies, generally speaking. Of course there are quite a number of them who are ready to grind us to the last ditch—to even starve us into submission—but they are few. We believe that 99 per cent of the superintendents of the country would, in their own hearts, be glad to see the operators win this contest. They know full well that it is to the interest of themselves and the people alike, and that every victory won by the telegraph operators is an even greater one for them, regardless of the fact that they do not feel that they are officials of the corporation. There is no wish to tell family secrets nor to betray confidences, but the telegraphers are prepared to prove everything they tell the people in this statement.

"The telegraph operators are prepared to show by thousands of witnesses in any court that the above situation is the actual condition. Where the public is laughed at one when it makes complaint of this condition the telegraph operators are scoffed at a hundred times if they make bold to assert their manhood. If this contest ever comes before a court high enough to make a full investigation it will disclose conditions that the people have never dreamed of. The telegraph operators are ready to prove by every evidence that was ever required by a court that these are the actual conditions, and the people may go into this fight with the strikers without fear of placing themselves in antagonism to a single interest except the telegraph monopoly.

"The public is a common one, and while the public may be temporarily inconvenienced by this strike, the people will be the actual beneficiaries. We want to make the broad assertion that whether this strike is won or lost it is the greatest boon the people of the country have ever had. It can only be the means of awakening everybody to what has been permitted to exist for years simply because there appeared to be no sane remedy. Every person with a grievance against the telegraph has learned to forget it with this parting exclamation: 'Well, what are you going to do? They have it their own way.'

"The purpose of this statement is not to create a prejudice against persons, but to call attention to the actual conditions, of which the people are fully aware and are only waiting for an opportunity to overcome.

FORMERLY W.K. SCOTFIELD ORKIN BROS. FORMERLY W.K. SCOTFIELD 1510 DOUGLAS ST. SKIRT SALE Up to $15 Values $7.95 Saturday we will place on sale about 100 Women's Skirts that are positively worth $12.50 and $15.00 for $7.95. Most of these Skirts are new fall samples—some are the remainder of broken lines. If you want a real skirt bargain, then come here Saturday—$12.50 and $15.00 Skirts on sale SATURDAY 7.95 of our forefathers. We will not adopt knee breeches at once, but there will be an improvement. "Here is my secret. Fashion decrees that next summer we shall wear a little lace on the bottom of our trouser legs, not the kind that—"

BOARDING HOUSE COLLAPSES

Five Persons Are Killed, Eleven Injured at Chicago—Heroic Rescues.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Five persons were killed and eleven others were injured, three seriously, early today in the collapse of a two-story frame building at Fifty-fifth and Fry streets, occupied as a boarding house. The bodies of the dead were taken from the ruins by policemen and firemen, who risked their lives when compelled to crawl under the wreck to reach the victims.

The dead: MRS. ANNIE NOSAL, owner of boarding house. MISS BON DAUGHTER and SISTER. ALBERT STEHM, a boarder.

HYMENEAL

Dunbar-Ferguson.

HASTING, Neb., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—One of the prettiest of recent weddings in this city was that of Miss Edna Dunbar and Mr. Cyril Ferguson last night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. S. Hufson of the Baptist church in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dunbar, at 8 o'clock. Miss Vida Ferguson, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and John Dunbar, brother of the bride, was best man. Miss Alice Sawyer of Omaha played the wedding march. The bride and groom left almost immediately after the ceremony for Denver. After a short visit there and in the mountains they will go to Wagon Mound, N. M., where they will make their home. Mr. Ferguson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ferguson of this city. He is engaged in business in Wagon Mound.

Grand Jury at Deadwood.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—The work of drawing a grand and petit jury for the regular September term of United States court at Deadwood has been completed by Daniel S. Glidden, United States court commissioner, and Oliver S. Pender, clerk of the United States court in this city. The Deadwood term promises to be quite an important one, and there will be a great deal of work for both juries. The grand jury will be required to report at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday, September 3, the day court convenes, while the petit jury will report the following day. In accordance with an order issued over a year ago the names of those drawn upon the two juries are withheld from the public.

ILL WIND THAT BLOWS NO GOOD

At Least One Man is Benefited by the Strike.

There have been some digressions from the ordinary course of business in Omaha because of the telegraphers' strike, which have brought good and bad fortune to those concerned. One Omaha man considers that the strike has benefited him directly to the extent of $50.

NYE BURIED IN NEW YORK

Newspaper Man to Be Laid to Rest This Afternoon in the Metropolis.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The last rites over the body of Fred Nye, associate editor of the New York World, who was accidentally killed in a street car accident here Tuesday, will be held here today. He will be buried in New York.

WOMAN IS SEVERELY BURNED

Mrs. Becker of Grand Island Severely Injured by Gasoline Explosion.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—Mrs. Fred Becker, ar. was, frightened, though not fatally burned and the residence threatened with fire through an unusual accident at their home. Mrs. Tannhausen, daughter of Mrs. Becker, was about to fill a gasoline stove with the fluid when the telephone bell rang.

STRIKE INVOLVES RAILROAD

(Continued from First Page.)

extensive business with these giant monopolies, has had just that very proposition placed squarely before him. The telegraphers of the country know just exactly what they make the best association at this time that their cause is a common one.

"Since this strike began thousands of patrons of the telegraph right here in Omaha have heard the same story from telegraph managers. The story has been different from what it would be if there were a strike on one of the big railroads. In fact, only a few people would be affected by such a condition and they would use some other line. Right now the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies are saying to the people, possibly not in so many words, but surely they are using the argument daily: 'The people have got to come to us anyway and so far as this strike is concerned, we are not particular what the people, or even the telegraph patrons of the country, say. We have got their business and they can't give it to anybody else. While we will do the best we can, we can make no promise that their programs are delayed twenty-four or forty-eight hours, we will regret it, but we have the money for these telegrams and we are going to keep it, because they can't get it back. We have the upper hand on the public and the operators and we are going to keep it.'

Nebraska State Fair Lincoln, September 2 to 6, '07 SEE THE AIR SHIP Good Races—Amateur Athletic Meet—Western League Base Ball—Best Stock in the World

The Real Value

If you have headache or neuralgia you want relief, want it quick. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills stop the pain in just a few minutes. But their real value lies in the fact that they leave no bad after effects. They do not create nausea or derange the stomach. Nothing can therefore take the place of Anti-Pain Pills for the relief of headache or other pain.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do all that is claimed for them in curing headache and neuralgia. I was in Farmington and I had a fearful headache; the gentlemen of the house said, "Take one of my wife's Pain Pills," and I did, and in less than one-half hour I felt as well as ever. I asked the name of these and he said Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I purchased a box, and told my family I had found a great prize—something to cure headache. My three daughters also used them. O thousand thanks for such a remedy."

MRS. JAMES BLACKBURN, 36 Sumner St., Rochester, N. H. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

LOOK LOOK LOOK SATURDAY IN THE NORRIS STORE

You can buy any man's or woman's low shoe or Oxford for— 1.95

You can buy any man's or woman's high shoe in the store for— 2.45

NORRIS' CHILDREN'S SHOES AT ONE-HALF PRICE

BENSON & THORNE 1515-1517 DOUGLAS STREET

LOOK LOOK LOOK SATURDAY IN THE NORRIS STORE