Congressman Denies Any Aspirations to Succeed to Senatorship. *

a Candidate for the Allison Succession.

A number of Iowa newspapers having reently suggested Congressman Walter L. Smith of this city as a likely successor to injuries from the burning. United States Senator Allison, Mr. Smith decreed it incumbent on him yesterday to make the following statement: I am not an aspirant, much less a candidate for the United States senate, and will not be a cardidate to succeed Senator Allison. It would be a very great honor to be senator from lowa and it is certainly most gratifying to me to know that there are gratifying to me to know that there are those who regard me as qualified for that high office. My candidacy is, however, entirely out of the question. When the suggestion of my passing from the house of representatives to the senate was made in some of the conventions of the counties comprising the Ninth conferessional district. I publicly amounced at the time that I was Joseph Bigelow was sentenced to twenty days in police court yesterday for slashing Walter Hart with a jackknife. Both are colored. Bigelow declared Hart called him an offensive name.
