MAN SUSPECTED OF FORGERY

Hay and Grain company at 1014 North Sixteenth he bought $11 worth of feed and paid for it with a check on a Council Bluffs bank supposed to be worthless. The police station was notified that he was bound for Council Bluffs when he secured a horse and buggy for that purpose at the Beta bars and the two captains met him at the bridge. He will be turned over to the South Omaha authorities. As evidence of his alleged forging operations he carried a number of check books, several of them on the First National bank of Chanute, Kan. One of these books was marked as the property of E. E. Pritchard and it is believed that he misread this name and thought he was giving it when he called himself E. E. Richards.

Everybody Has a Want.
You probably have some little want right now. And nine chances out of ten, or thereabouts, you could fill that want by using a Bee want ad. You may find your servants, and your errand boys, and your gardeners, without advertising, but a want ad costs so little, and is so easy and so quick, and such a sure method of finding the cream of the unemployed, that you cannot afford to get along without it.
