CARLOAD OF MARES AT RECORD

One Team of Coal Black Five and Six-Year-Olds Brings Six Hundred Dollars, Which is Considered Remnskable.

The markets of the last week in South Omaha may be looked upon as the opening of the autumnal season. At this season the best grades of grass-fed cattle and sheep are on the market for killers and the intermediate grades are consigned to the feeder pena. It is the season also of the most important horse sales of the year. The week has shown several surprises in horses, sheep and cattle. The big horse salesmen, J. S. Cooper and E. W. Anspach, the sale of an entire carload of mares at coal-black mares, 5 and 6 years old, ever sold in South Omaha went to the Black Hills Brewing company at $300. For draft animals this was a remarkable sate. All stock offered found a ready sale and the pards are practically full of horses.

Peeders Are Buying.

The heavy run of last Monday in the cattle market forced a break of 16 to 15 cents, and consequently the shipments fell off during the balance of the week. On the other hand, the break attracted a large number of feeders during the last yards were cleared yesterday at good figfor feeders was reported by Tage Bros. tunch considered, there is a good chance testimony to this fact when he says: to turn them in ninety days and command Practically no cattle were carried over yesterday and the yards were early deserted and clear of stock. The commission men look for brisk sales and good runs Monday.

Seven Dollars for Feeder Lambs. In the sheep market there was a decided falling off in the number offered in any class. Monday, when a fair run was looked for the barns were crammed with buyers of the feeder varieties, only 3,500 were in sight. A sharp competition prevailed and the prices rose almost to a fabulous figure. As high as $7 per hundred was paid for choice feeder lambs. The run of sheep and persons accused of crime, where the aclambs remained low all the week and the buyers were eager. Saturday only 300 were on sale, and these were snapped up by killers. During the same week of last year The big runs of sheep are expected in question exactly as I do. This is slight and may be made up in three or four good days. The hog market may never exceed last year's sales. The cattle to the great figure of 100.557. The horse sales have been larger than ever. Omaha is the greatest market for western animals in the United States. The following table shows last week's sales compared with the previous week and the corresponding week

Color Line in Crime.

OMAHA, Aug. 21-To the Editor of The Bee: In my recent letter concerning the Clarke reprieve I did not urge it upon the ground of the criminal's color, as Rev. John Williams mistakenly implies. I said nothing about either man's color in my leiter, for I do not think that color should have anything whatever to do with the question, and if jorors, judges and governors were of the sternly impartial, justice-loving character of Father Williams it. have each held profitable sales. His crime is his own. But a negro criminal always inflicts an injury upon his own race in particular greater than he inflicts upon society at large, and just because he is a "nigger." It is unjust, unfair, of course. But it counts in the upward struggle of colored men against the race prejudice and injustice with which the most upright, intelligent negro has to contend.

It is because of this unjust distinction that is made that compels the colored man to be on the alert against injustice. If it were not for this fact, and its constant emphasizing by the press in invariably calling attention to the man's race in cused is a negro, this sensitiveness upon the part of my people would not exist.

He failed to get out of the way of the car, which was in charge of Fred Patterson and M. R. Ewers. His wagon was demolished. He received severe bruises and it was at first thought a fracture of the west. skull. Later the serious symptoms abared. He was taken to the Bouth Omaha hospital and cared for by Dr. Koenig. He was able to return home last night.
