ball park Saturday afternoon. There was one consolation, bowever, for the Pottanot nearly as grievous as that of the former same. The Mills county braves only succeeded in wresting the same from the Pottawattamies by one run, and, of course, they secured that through an error on the part of one of the Bluffites. The came, considering all things, was a very fair exhibition of base ball. Sheriff Can-ning, not being a candidate for re-election this fall, ventured to essay the role of sount park.
