FEDERAL OFFICIALS TAKE IT UP

Agent Falsely Professes to Be Acting for the Union Pacific in Hiring Men in New York City.

Rogers asserted that he would have beaten the engine if he had not been carrying such a heavy load, and he was doubtless right. In police court Wednesday morning he was released, and on request gave a startling imitation of a steamboat whistle, which scared the other prisoners into hysterics and then took up a collection for a dinner.

The committee on arrangements for the Labor day parade met Tuesday evening and completed the general plans for the big labor demonstration Monday. Responses were received from practically all the labor organizations, indicating that they will participate in the parade.

The parade will form at Sixteenth street and Capitol avenue early Monday morning. The march will be through the business portion of the city, but routes have not yet been definitely determined, but will be announced during the present week. After the parade a program of exercises will be carried out at Syndicate park, which will include addresses by prominent labor leaders and well known speakers, followed by a series of athletic sports.

C. A. McDonald has been chosen marshal of the day. The formation of the parade will be as follows:

Flits in Chicago

A Chicago policeman arrested two men with flits the other night, says a paper. Are the tailors of this city so poor that the mere fact a man has a fit necessarily subjects him to the attention of the police? P. S.—Further examination at the station disclosed the fact that the flits were produced by Drescher, The Tailor, Omaha, Neb.
