DOLLIVER DODGES POLITICS

Does Not Think There is Any Prospect of Relapse from Good Times.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver is a guest at the Rome hotel, having his life.

"Who will be the republican nominee for is the assignment; who will be the republican nominee for president?" he repeated, in answer to the question. "Well, now, I'm not telling tales out of school, and, besides, its a long ways off to make definite and certain pre-dictions. If Roosevelt continues in his re-fusal to accept a third term, why, thenfusal to accept a third term, why, then-but, say, really, before I forget it I want to congratulate you people on your splen-did , ball team, and do you know, I the pennant. Now, as to the democratic nominee, it is not a bit too far off to

Mmc. Eames Gets Divorce.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 .-- Madam Emma Eames Story, the opera singer was today granted a final decree of absolute divorce from Julian Story, the artist. The decree was granted by Supreme Court Justice Merschanger at White Plains, and permits her to resume her maiden name. She is also allowed to remarry. The judgment contains, the customary provision against the marriage of Mr. Story, however, during the lifetime of Madam Eames. The decree is brief and formal and contains no details of the evidence on which an interlocutory decree was granted in April.
