CLARKE WINS IN LANCASTER

Has a Lead of Seven Votes Over Caldwell for Railway Commissioner.

BIG PLURALITY FOR REESE

Bryan Dinner is Scheduled for September 24, When He is Expected to Outline His Platform.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Henry T. Clarke, Jr., carried Lancaster county for railway commissioner by seven votes, according to unofficial reports, receiving 1,990 votes to 1,983 for Caldwell. Judge Reese received 3,061 and Judge Sedgwick 1,796, giving Reese a majority of 1,265. The canvassing board met this morning, but has not finished its work. The county ticket as already printed unofficially, however, stands. The four missing precincts which showed up today changed the Clarke-Caldwell vote one only, Clarke receiving one less vote than Caldwell, cutting down his plurality from eight. The missing precincts were canvassed first.

In discussing the nomination of Judge Reese, H. C. Lindsay, chairman of the Sedgwick forces, said this: "If I am to be quoted, just say that I agree with Mr. Rose—Judge Reese in a great measure owes his nomination to the stand taken by Governor Sheldon."

Whether Caldwell receives the republican nomination or not, he is the democratic nominee, and under the present ruling of the secretary of state will go on the ballot as the democratic nominee. Out in Clay county, so it is reported here, Caldwell received numerous votes from democrats who wrote his name on the democratic ticket. Unless the courts set aside the ruling of the secretary of state, Mr. Caldwell has the right to have his name printed on the democratic ballot. Incidentally this will prevent the democrats from filling a name to fill a vacancy, because there will be no vacancy.

Dinner to Bryan.
The Bryan dinner, notice of which was published some time ago, will be held at Lincoln September 24. The democratic delegates to the state convention called by law to prepare the party platform will be in attendance, as well as Governor Campbell of Texas and other prominent democrats from the various states. While the announced intent of the dinner is to boost the election of the democratic nominee for supreme judge, Mr. Bryan will be there and will tell what he thinks should be done to secure democratic success all along the line. It is understood he will have something to say about the platform upon which he intends to make his fight for the democratic presidential nomination. Tom Allen has called this meeting and says it is the annual democratic dinner.

State Fair is Ended.
The 1907 state fair is over. The fine horses and cattle and hogs and poultry and exhibits have been started homeward, while the thousands of visitors began their return trips during the day, though many stayed until the finish. The big whistle sounded the finish of the fair promptly at 4 o'clock and then the dismantling began. Notwithstanding many Lincoln eating houses increased the price of edibles, the general opinion of the visitors is that the fair was a magnificent success. The visitors looked more prosperous than heretofore and the premium winners scored higher points. Financially the fair is almost up to the record of former years. Though the attendance was smaller, the absence of huge blocks of complimentary tickets was marked and may have had considerable to do with the attendance figures, though the paid admissions ran only a short way behind those of last year.

Sheldon to Greet President.
Governor Sheldon will appoint six delegates to the deep water way convention, to be held in Memphis during the first week in October. One delegate will be appointed from each congressional district. The governor will leave Lincoln on the last day of the month for Keokuk, Ia., where he will join Governor Cummins and other delegates to speak in the Iowa city October 1. That afternoon the governors will go to St. Louis by rail, while the president will go by boat. That evening and the next day they will be the guests of the Business Men's league and the Y. M. C. A. Prophet. Thence the party goes to Memphis by boat, the governors in one vessel and the presidential party in another. Governor Sheldon will not take his staff to St. Louis because the invitation did not include his staff.

Grain Rate Hearing.
The State Railway commission will listen to the protest of the railroads next Monday in the matter of the order reducing rates on grain an average of 10 per cent the state over. The railroad men tried to get this hearing postponed, but were unsuccessful. The intent is to bring in a lot of evidence and testimony will be taken showing the cost of hauling the grain, if that is possible. Chairman Winnett and Ratz-Clerk Powell went to Iowa this afternoon to investigate grain rates in that state and to look over the schedules on file in the office of the Iowa commission. The commission is of the opinion this will be one of its most important hearings.

Commissioner Clarke went to Oxford today to look over the High line of the Burlington. Traveling men have complained that this road is dangerous and they have asked the commission to order it put in a safe condition. Mr. Clarke goes out as a representative of the commission and will view the tracks on foot part of the way.

Argument on Sibley Law Case.
The motion to remand to the state supreme court from the federal court the suit to test the constitutionality of the Sibley law will be argued next Monday at Lincoln. This is the case where Attorney General Thompson, acting for the State Railway commission, filed application for injunction to prevent the express companies from violating the Sibley law, and which the express companies transferred to the federal court. It is expected when this case is decided the federal court will also hand down the decision in the matter of jurisdiction of the railroad cases, in which the railroad attack the constitutionality of the Aldrich 12 per cent reduction law.

McBrien Appeals to Governor.
In the matter of Mrs. Knox, the county superintendent of Cheyenne county, who refused to grant a certificate after State Superintendent McBrien ordered her to, Mr. McBrien has appealed to Governor Sheldon. Mr. Sheldon has not yet received the voluminous correspondence relating to the case and has asked that the executive take action under the law providing for the removal of officials who fail to do their duty. Mr. McBrien ordered the superintendent to issue an emergency certificate to a teacher who was prevented by the death of her mother from attending the county institutes. This emergency certificate is good for six months, during which time the teacher is required by law to take the examination.

Reward for Murderer.
Governor Sheldon, in the name of the state, today offered a reward of $300 for the apprehension of Shinnaway, the supposed murderer of Mrs. Martin, near Adams.

BEATRICE—Last evening at the home of the bride's grandfather, W. A. Folsom, in West Beatrice, occurred the marriage of Francis H. Thomas and Miss L. L. Folsom, both of this city. Rev. A. Folsom officiated. The ceremony was performed in the presence of forty guests, after which a wedding supper was served.

BEATRICE—Samuel M. Rinaker, Rhoades schoolship representative for Nebraska, left yesterday for New York, from which place he will sail for Europe to enter Oxford university. He will devote a portion of the three years allotted him by the scholarship visiting the principal points in Asia and other parts of the continent.

FREMONT—Henry Havens was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Bauman on a statutory charge filed against him in Merrill county. The girl in the case is a 14-year-old daughter of Eli Hunt of Merrill county. She is also missing and is supposed to have left with Havens. Havens' back the last night he was stoutly protests his innocence and declines to talk.

BEATRICE—R. Fondry of the supervising architect's office of the treasury department at Washington is in the city investigating and preparing plans for the needed changes in the Beatrice post-office building in order to make the necessary room to meet the demands of the service. The drawings will contemplate an addition to the work room, probably by the erection of an additional building on the east of the present structure. He is making a very urgent demand for more room in the building.

BEATRICE—The latest report from Sen-ben securing the which place a posse has been sent to the country for R. M. Shinnaway, the supposed murderer of Mrs. Sarah Martin, for the last few days, in which the change after the fugitive has been abandoned. He was driven to it, and that is no mistake. His friends have, for so long, been telling John Kula that he is the toughest man in town, and though always doing it, John has failed to convince them to the contrary. Consequently he has concluded to find out for himself. At least we think so, for we saw him lug home a big mirror one day this week. —Silver Creek Standard.

Nature Foke—A horse at East's livery barn caused its own death in a very unusual manner Wednesday. As is usually the case in livery barns the hay is not fed in mangers, but is brought within reach of the horses by means of boxes extending from the mow down to within a few inches of the bottom of the feed trough. A little one side of the feed trough, the animal in question got its head fastened between the hay box and the manger and in struggling to free itself broke its neck, dying instantly. It was a horse of considerable value.—Craw Orchard Herald.

Lost the Twenty—One of our enterprising threshers tested the powers of his machine the other day in a peculiarly novel manner, and we are gratified to learn that it did its business "like a little man," although in a very unremunerative manner. The thrasher's pocketbook got worked up into the straw on the feed board and passed through the machine "unbeknown" to the owner until a 25-cent piece was found on the strawstack, then a 50-cent piece was found, then the pocketbook itself, almost as good as ever, but there was a XX that was not on it and has not yet made its appearance.—Columbus Journal, Many Years Ago.

Sheriff is Ready for Them—J. M. Dunkel left this week for Lincoln, taking Frank Griffin with him to the penitentiary to serve two years' sentence for horse stealing. J. M. probably will not return for a few days, but when he does come rumor has it that it will be in a large four-cylinder touring car and twenty-horse power. The sheriff finds that he needs a machine very badly in his business to cut down lively expenses for the county. Then, too, there are times when the sheriff is wanted at some distance and that in a hurry.—Wood River Interests.

OMAHA, Sept. 6.—To the Editor of The Bee:

Every once in a while and about once a year we see some "beat" real estate dealer trying to get Omaha needs more houses to rent at from $12 to $15. Bless your soul, it has got plenty. The trouble is with the landlords. They want from $20 to $30 for them. Just the other day I saw a man who was surprised at the monumental scale of agencies and owners. Places that are not fit for a dog to live in are almost prohibitive in price. Lots of people are looking for houses because their rent has been raised on account of a few necessary repairs having been made. If a house is painted and put in tenable shape, it goes the rent. A place to live in is a necessity, and it is extortion of the worst kind to take advantage of a man when he cannot help himself, as many are doing in Omaha today. We believe in property rights and all that, but we cannot convince ourselves they have the right to charge more for a place than it is worth, thereby getting usurious interest on an investment, any more than the landlords have the charge for the Standard Oil bleed us for light. Some day the people will wake up and assess taxes according to rent demanded. That would be fair. They put the assessor to the bad by making the recorded consideration $1 when a piece of property is transferred, but if they had to pay on the amount the investment would be, minus necessary repairs and taxes, with the rent as interest at 6 per cent, we give a rough guess that Omaha and Douglas county would not get in debt after the grafters are weeded out.

Amusement Announcements.

The initial week at the Orpheum will be brought to a close today when matinee and night performances will be given. The attendance has been the biggest of any opening week yet. The daily matinee proved very satisfactory. They are very convenient for shoppers and transients, as well as the matinee girl.

Next week, starting matinee Sunday, a decidedly strong show is promised. There will be Edna Fay, the hit of the "Land of Oz" with her character songs; Arthur Dunn and Marie Glazier; Four Arons, European athletes; Bowers, Walters and Crocker; Scott and Wilson; Anita Banning; Murphy and Francis, and the kindred.

Monday is Barnum & Bailey circus day in Omaha. The big show will arrive at an early hour Sunday morning and the transferring of the paraphernalia to the circus grounds at Twenty-seventh street and Ames avenue and the erection of the circus city will begin immediately.

As already announced, there will be no parade, but a very interesting free show will be given on the circus ground at 11 and 5 o'clock. The regular performances begin at 2 and 8 o'clock. Seats will be on sale all day Monday at the Beaton Drug company, Fifteenth and Farnam streets, and on the circus grounds at the opening hours.

"Miss Pocalontan," which comes to the Boyd on Sunday evening for an engagement of three nights and a special matinee on Tuesday, is one of the latest of musical successes. It had a long run in Chicago and was there stamped a winner. The company is headed by Walter Jones, the well known singing comedian, who has the role of Captain John Smith, and around whom much of the action revolves. Marie Dupuis is the prima donna of the company, and heads an aggregation of singing maidens said to be very good to look upon. The piece has twenty acknowledged songs.

LITTLE BABY CURED OF ECZEMA

Parents Applied to Hospitals and Doctors but Could Get No Relief—Grew Worse Under Doctor's Prescription—Friends Recommended Cuticura—Result

A SPEEDY AND PERMANENT CURE

"We express to herewith our best thanks for the cure of our baby from eczema. The eczema appeared when the child was three months old. We applied to several doctors and hospitals, each of which gave us something different every time, but nothing brought relief. A physician recommended a salve which we threw into the fire after two days' use as the eczema became worse so that the baby scratched his face. At last, one of our friends recommended to us Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. A few days afterwards improvement could be noted. Since then we have used nothing but Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and now the baby is six months old and is quite cured. All that we used was one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes Cuticura Ointment, costing in all $1.25. Even the poorest man can pay that instead of throwing it into the doctor's lap. I myself only make twelve dollars a week as a teamster, but I recommend the Cuticura Remedies strongly to all mothers whose children suffer from such diseases. They are cheap, harmless and good. C. F. Karna and Wife, 343 East 65th Street, New York, March 30, 1906."

FOR SORE HANDS

Soak the hands on retiring in a hot, creamy lather of Cuticura Soap, and anoint freely with Cuticura Ointment, and in severe cases spread the Ointment on thin pieces of old linen or cotton. Wear during the night old, loose, kid gloves, with the finger ends cut off and holes cut in the palms, or a light bandage of old cotton.

NICOLL QUALITY

MOST MEN, when they order garments, think first of price, then style and fit, and they leave quality to the last, or don't consider it seriously at all.

Isn't the best way to buy clothes—or anything else for that matter. But, candidly, isn't that about the way most men buy clothes? The truth is, there never was a time when the quality of the material in your garments was so important as it is today. In a peculiar sense it involves and includes all the other points—style, fit, tailoring, price.

The best of the fall designs are here—in a variety enough to satisfy the most exacting.
