Pray of Des Moines has asked the police of Omaha to help find her son, Harry Plunkett, 14 years of age, who left home recently. He is supposed to be with a man named Frank Hanson. Roller Skating Season—Roller skating will begin at the Auditorium November 11. G. S. Monahan of San Diego, Cal., a fancy skater, has been engaged for the first week. His specialty is hurdling and he goes over six chairs at one jump. Connie Moss is Nipped—A man arrested Monday for cashing a forged check at 230 South Omaha street was John Baker of Denver. He was found later to be Connie Moss, who has conducted forging operations for which the police want him. Dr. Scott Succeeds Dr. Ramacciotti—Dr. D. C. Scott, hospital surgeon, has taken charge of the Omaha Veterinary hospital at 2310 Mason street, which was formerly owned by Dr. Ramacciotti. He had been assistant to Dr. Ramacciotti for sometime. Awaiting Catcher Fire—The awning in front of the London Tailoring company store at 37 South Fourteenth street, caught fire from some kerosene light which was overturned Tuesday afternoon. The fire department was called and extinguished the flames before they spread. Kess, Padlock and Keys Gone—H. H. Morton is bewailing the loss of forty-nine chickens, which were taken from his henery at 600 North Thirty-eighth street Monday night. Not content with this, he is plying punting Mr. Morton's ambitions as a poultry fancier, the thief also took the padlock and key. Big Money in Sheep—A quartet of sheep raisers from eastern Wyoming came in Omaha Monday with forty-eight car loads of sheep, aggregating 14,000 head, which were pure lambs. They struck a top notch of the market at 7 1/2 cents and realized the snug little sum of $28,000 from them. The party have 4,000 more sheep in the feeding yards near Lincoln. Theft Gets Into Booms—C. H. Bartels and W. L. Kramer, who room together at 1223 Dodge street, were robbed Monday night by a sneak thief who entered their rooms and took a watch and $10 from Mr. Bartels and $11 from Mr. Kramer. Burglars entered the home of S. Powell at 224 South Thirty-first street early Tuesday morning and got away with $1. Double Street Car Tracks—The street railway company is laying double tracks in Thirty-third avenue from Woolworth avenue to the city limits and the contractor is placing material on the ground for curbing. When this work is completed the city will have a fourth line of street railway to South Omaha and a second line of paved street to the South Omaha city limits. Hearing in Bankruptcy—A hearing is being held before J. A. C. Kennedy, special master in chancery, in the north court room of the federal building in the matter of the bankruptcy of the Standard Beet Sugar company. The hearing is in the nature of objections to claims filed by the trustees in bankruptcy. A number of creditors of the concern are present in person and by attorney. Associated Charities Report—The officers of the Associated Charities are preparing a report to be made to the members of the organization the first week in October. The report has been formulated to September 1 and a comparison with the work of last year up to that date shows a considerable increase, nearly 2,000 more persons having received attention of the organization than were cared for last year. Anniversary of Antislavery—Three old veterans of the battle of Antislavery met in the federal building Tuesday morning and recalled the fact that September 17 is the forty-fifth anniversary of that battle. Each had a personal experience to relate of his particular participation in the fight. The oldest of the trio was but 63, the next 61 and the youngest 61 years of age, being respectively 23, 18 and 16 years of age at the time of the battle. Contractor Who Threw the Brick—Ed Kucera, a building contractor who was working on a house at Thirteenth street and Boulevard, was fined $10 and costs in police court Tuesday morning because he made himself generally obnoxious to the residents of the neighborhood. Acting as the complainant, he threw a brick at her and called her names. Other neighbors supported her story of his unpleasant conduct. Bonds for New School—The next regular meeting of the Board of Education will be held at 10 o'clock on Monday in October and at that time the question of a bond proposition for new buildings and for an addition to the High school building will be decided. It was expected that the matter would have been presented at the meeting last Monday night, but the chairman of that committee has not returned from a business trip taken at the next meeting in order to give the thirty days' notice of the election required by law. Boys' Fight Disturbs Community—A fight between two little boys about 10 years of age so disturbed the neighborhood at Second and William streets several days ago that even the police were drawn into the dispute. Frank Bousha, Jr., and when Charlie, Jr., got the worst of it Charlie, Jr. took a hand. Frank Bousha was struck by Mr. Barowsky and knocked into the clouds near a railroad track. Mr. Barowsky was fined $10 and costs in police court Tuesday morning. Banker From Washington—L. L. Work of Conestoga, Wash., with his family is visiting his uncle, Dexter L. Thomas. Mr. Work is a delegate from Washington to the meeting of the National Bankers association at the city hotel. He has been on a route to the meeting, having placed his daughter, Miss Reita Work, in school at Lincoln. Mr. Work is well known in Omaha, having been with the First National bank for some years and later started a bank for himself at Gordon. Seventeen years ago he moved to Washington where he has been most successful in his business ventures. Federal Court Travelling—Judges W. H. Munger and T. C. Munger, with United States Circuit Clerk George H. Thummel, District Clerk R. C. Hoyt, United States Marshal W. P. Warner and District Attorney Charles A. Gosz, are visiting the Norfolk and Chadron subdivisions of the federal courts this week. Nothing was doing at Norfolk Monday and the court proceeded on to Chadron, where the court will be in readiness to transact any business that may properly come before it. The court expects to return to Omaha Thursday. Sheep Crowd and Order—A sheep man who made his first visit to Omaha Monday afternoon, twenty years seclusion in the Wyoming sheep ranges, was much entertained at the appearance of the patrol wagon gathering up a couple of drunks and was curious to know what time they had committed. Up in his locality they do not arrest men for getting drunk. "There's too many people crowded in this place for me," said the sheep herder, "and I am going to get back on the range where I can get a breath of fresh air, where there isn't so much infernal noise and where a fellow can get as drunk as he pleases and as often without fear of arrest." There's no chance for an argument as to whether the Bee want ads pay or not. They always pay if they ask anything consistent. There are many people in Omaha that somebody is qualified to fill any sort of a want. If you want to find a position or somebody to fill a position; if you want to find the loser or the finder of an article; if you want to find a landlord or a tenant, try a Bee want ad. Riley military opening, Saturday, Sept. 21

EAST SENDS ITS OWN MONEY

Boston and New York Will Send More West Now. MARKET MUST LOOSEN UP FIRST. C. F. Harrison, Who Returns from East, Says Cash is Bringing Higher Rate of Interest Than in Omaha. "Boston and New York money isn't going to be invested in Omaha until the eastern money market gets out of its present tight condition; then it will come," said C. F. Harrison, who returned Monday night from Boston, a business man who can go down to one of these Omaha banks to day and get money at 6 per cent. Yet, while in Boston a business man who borrowed $50,000 and had to pay 5 per cent for it. A friend of mine, a man who used to live in Omaha, borrowed $25,000 on call at 6 per cent just before I was in Boston. Last week New York city 1 per cent bonds were quoted at 96, though in 1897 the city's 2 1/2 per cent bonds sold at 104. The 4 1/2 per cent bonds of the city are now quoted 102 to 103. "Why, we are lending money to the east right along, instead of getting it from the east. There is plenty of money in Nebraska at 6 per cent. Nebraska soil is wealthier than the whole of any other source of wealth, wherever you produce surplus of some commodity each year and sell it, you are bound to get rich. "That is why Nebraska is rich. The farmer paid off his mortgage three or four years ago, maybe, and last year and year before he cancelled his mortgage and is now sending his daughter to Europe and buying an automobile for the boys. What will he do with the money from last year's crop and this year's crop but lend it? "What Travel in East Teaches. "Travel in the east teaches one two things. He learns to know that his city is not the best place to live in. He learns to compare the resources and advantages of his city with those of others. All of the eastern towns are growing; everything is moving; it is a mistake to think Omaha is the only good town. But it is also a mistake to think Omaha is not one of the great growing towns. Of all the cities I have seen from year to year, I think it is one of the best. "This city doesn't get enough credit for what it is doing. I picked up a New York paper and examined it carefully, but found Omaha not mentioned, though Denver was named five or six times. We over-exploited Omaha, but now we are under-exploiting it. "Each year when I am back east I make it a point to give Omaha a boost in the Boston Transcript. Last year they bellowed down what I said and wouldn't let me talk much about the prosperity here, but this year they gave me a column writing up figures on Nebraska's resources. "Mr. Harrison's purpose in the east was not to study economic conditions and his observations were made incidentally. He has been at Prince Edward island most of the time since the middle of July, fishing and eating and sleeping and resting his nerves for business. BELLEVUE COLLEGE OPENS Begins the New Year with Increased Enrollment and Stronger Faculty. Bellevue college opened Tuesday morning with appropriate exercises. In addition to an increased enrollment, the college is stronger in faculty and equipment than it has been heretofore. Prof. James Stenberg has received the degree of doctor of philosophy from the University of Munich, where he was this summer completing the requirements of this degree. He is now vice president of the college in place of Dr. C. K. Hoyt. He will also be at the head of the Greek department. Mrs. Stenberg was abroad with her husband and will be in charge of the Latin department this year. Miss Mildred Maclean who was associated with Dr. Hoyt for two years in the English department will have charge of that department. Prof. W. Gilbert James will be instructor in oratory and public speaking. He is a graduate of Hedding college and school of oratory and of the Illinois Wesleyan university. He also took special work under Dr. Cunneen in Northwestern university. A. M. Ruggles of Norwich, N. Y., will be instructor in science and mathematics. Miss M. L. Carter, graduate of Oberlin college, will be professor of modern languages and dean of women. The equipment of the college is much improved. There are electric lights throughout and many of the rooms have been repapered and painted. The football outlook for Bellevue is good. "Brewie" Brown, the famous quarterback of two years ago, is back. Guy A. Crow, a player on the team of Morning-side college and Iowa State university, will be the coach. William E. Nicholl, Bellevue '04, Omaha Theological seminary '05, called Monday from Philadelphia for Liverpool. He will study in Edinburgh university and the German universities. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Kerr, graduates of Bellevue. A number of the Presbyterian ministers of Omaha, with a number from other denominations, went to Bellevue to be present at the formal re-opening of the college. The visitors were entertained at luncheon by the college faculty. THE TEXAS WONDER Cures all Kidney, Bladder and Rheumatic troubles; sold by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co. and by Dr. E. D. W. INTERNAL CATARRH

Catarrh of the internal organs is very common during the months of September and October. This is doubtless due to the extreme variation of temperature between the day and night. The thermometer often fluctuates twenty or thirty degrees between the cool of the night and the heat of the day. Catarrh of the kidneys is especially prevalent. The rapid perspiration of June, July and August has relieved the kidneys by free elimination from the skin. The temperatures of September and October begin to check skin elimination, and extra work is thrown upon the kidneys. Catarrh of the kidneys frequently results. Katarno is an excellent remedy, not only to prevent catarrh of the kidneys, but to relieve the kidneys after an attack. This remedy stimulates the action of the kidneys and exerts a healing influence on the mucous membranes of all the internal organs. At the first appearance of kidney disease indicated by backache, weakness and irregular secretions, Katarno should be taken according to the directions on the bottle. The action is prompt and effective. For sale by Schaefer's Drug Stores, 1214 & Douglas Sts.; 1615 & N. E. B. N. W. Cor. 24th & SOUTH OMAHA, N. E. B. F. W. A. & COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA. WEATHER IS GOOD FOR CORN Continued Sunshine Favorable for Maturing. Says the Burlington in its Report. Corn is the principle topic considered by the Burlington soil and crop report for the week ending September 14. The reports say: "The week has been favorable for maturing the corn crop, and on Lincoln and Wynome divisions the situation is quite as good as anywhere in the state. On the Lincoln division in many places corn is being cut for fodder and reports indicate that best fields will not yield more than half a crop. On Lincoln and Wynome divisions, generally, where the crop was started as early as the season would permit and ground not cultivated since there will probably yield 50 to 60 per cent as much as planted as soon as the weather would permit in the spring. The corn that has been cultivated in this district to produce much better result than we shall get in most places. In most places the ground is still in a workable condition and indications are the acreage of fall seeding will exceed that year; specially in this true wheat. Potatoes are maturing as well as anticipated and there probably will not be enough raised on the Burlington for home supply. The acreage of sugar beets was less than previous years, but wherever planted the crop's good. The third crop of alfalfa is yielding well. Corn in Wyoming is beyond the reach of frost and on the Sterling division will average from thirty-five to forty bushels to the acre. The range is still in good condition. How's the outlook? Bad, is it? Out of work and nothing in sight? That's been said before, but not by those who make use of The Bee's want columns. There's a place for every capable man and woman, and a want ad will find your place for you. It won't waste any time about it, either. Advertise today. Job tomorrow. SEMINARY BEGINS NEW YEAR Increase in Registration is Expected—President Lowrie Returns. Though registration will not begin until Wednesday the doors of the Omaha Theological seminary were opened Tuesday morning for the school year. An increase in registration over last year is expected, and the expectation is accentuated by the fact that many prospective new students have been heard from. The faculty is the same in personnel as last year. Dr. M. B. Lowrie, president of the institution, who has been in Europe since May, was expected to reach New York Tuesday. Opening exercises will be held in the chapel of the seminary Thursday evening at 8, when Dr. C. A. Mitchell of the faculty will deliver an address on "The Present-Day Movement in Popular Bible Study."

COAL FAMINE ON, SAYS PARK

Starts in Earlier Than Was Expected in the West. EAST WILL FEEL IT ALSO. Union Pacific Superintendent Goes So Far as to Predict Severe Winter to Make Things Worse. "The prediction of the Union Pacific early in the season that a coal famine was eminent this winter seems to be coming true earlier than was expected," said W. L. Park, general superintendent of the Union Pacific, who has just returned from a trip over the west. "The evidence is being given in all parts of the country, including the east, where it was not expected there would be a shortage. This was shown last week when the big operators refused to bid on the government coal to carry the fleet from the Atlantic to the Pacific. A shortage was looked for in the west, where there was an abnormal demand for manufacturing purposes. The railroads in the west are now buying coal in Australia, which is costing $8 a ton delivered on the Pacific coast. "Of course, personal discomfort will be to a great extent dependent on the severity of the winter and we all feel a hard winter is coming, judging from the four or five years during which we have had mild winters. "The Union Pacific has certainly the courage of its convictions and has now over 200,000 tons of coal in storage and is continuing to buy. It is estimated there is a 20 per cent decrease in the production of coal for various reasons and a 20 per cent increase in its consumption. "Several mines are being opened in Northern Colorado, one at the Point of Rocks and one at Rock Springs. The crops in Kansas and Nebraska are first-class and so far as the frost is concerned are in fine shape. The season is shutting down in an ideal fashion and every day of this weather is adding immensely to the resources of the state. A touch of frost in a little while will simply tend to further mature corn. SUPPORT FOR THE U. C. T. Commercial Club Executive Committee Offers Boost for Through Trains. The Commercial club executive committee, at its meeting Wednesday, decided to uphold the United Commercial Travelers in their controversy with the Union Pacific for local transportation on through trains. The club stands ready to lend the travelers assistance, but action by the latter will be suspended for a while to see what satisfaction is given by the railroad's offer to allow them to ride on trains Nos. 1 and 2. As Senator Burkett will spend Friday and Saturday in Omaha, visiting the military posts and calling on his constituents, the committee decided it a good time to give a banquet to Nebraska's senators. Mr. Burkett and Mr. Brown will be invited for Friday evening. As the club's official recognition of the Rome hotel, the banquet will be there and it will be $25 a plate. An invitation has been sent Franklin K. Lane of the Interstate Commerce commission, who is on the Pacific coast, about to start on his way east. Nebraska's representatives and senators, with Congressman Hitchcock as chairman, were appointed the club's delegates to the Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterway convention to be held at Memphis October 4 and 5. The use of the club rooms for a complimentary dinner to Pa Rourke's baseball family was granted to several club members who are enthusiastic fans. President Wilhelm reported the Board of Trade had given the club permission to lay a floor over the light shafts in the hall of the club and to make other improvements. A lounge room for men and reception room for women will be made of the larger portion of the hall and some changes are to be made in the office. DEAN BRAYDEN APPROVES IT Aged Union Pacific Porter Favors Limited Trains. William Brayden, 73 years old and porter on the Overland Limited of the Union Pacific, says travel has not been so heavy within his memory as a railroad man for thirty years. "I never saw the like of it," he said while the train stopped at Union station. "This thing of taking the short riders off this train was all they could do. It has my full approval. It was a big bother to take on short riders, specially at night. After it was all over riding fifty miles you had to make up your bed for them because if one berth was made up that didn't leave them no place to sit down. It ain't no mo'n right anyway to keep these short riders off. When a man has paid extra good money to take a ride from Chicago to Evansville on a good train he don't want to be bothered at every station with people getting on and piling telescopes and grips all around him. He wants to get in and arrange himself comfortable for the trip." Mr. Brayden is dean of the Union Pacific porters, and he maintains this honor with the dignity befitting it. He lived in Omaha twenty-seven years and was well known among pipers. "I came to Omaha in '65," he said. "I was steward on some of the old boats that pulled up to the Omaha wharf before there was any such thing as a railroad, as a coal railway." Mr. Brayden's seven children are buried in Omaha. He and his wife live in San Francisco. EX-OMAHA MAN WITH SHOW Watterson Rounds Rothacker, Son of Former Editor, Manager of Gregory Concern. Watterson Rounds Rothacker, business manager and press representative of "Moscow," one of Gregory's spectacular productions, has closed that show and come to Omaha to look after "The Star of Jericho." Mr. Rothacker is a son of O. H. Rothacker and a grandson of S. P. Rounds, both of whom were well known in Omaha. Mr. Rounds was formerly government printer and later bought the Omaha Republican, which was edited by his son-in-law, O. H. Rothacker. Mr. Rothacker, jr., was at one time interested with Henry Watterson and from him Mr. Rothacker, jr., got his given name. He is now living with his grandmother, Mrs. Rounds, in Chicago. KOUNTZE ESTATE FIGHTS TAX Administrators Prepare Appeal to Resist Payment of Inheritance on Leslie's Figures. The administrators of the estate of Herman Kountze are preparing to appeal to the district court from the decision of County Judge Leslie, holding that $769,000 worth of property transferred in trust by Mr. Kountze before his death is taxable under the inheritance tax law. It is understood the case will be carried to the supreme court, no matter which side wins in the lower court.
