

BORAH IS ON TRIAL

Work of Impaneling Jury of Idaho's Senator Is

CASE IS CALLED BOISE

Charge is Conspiracy to I Government Out of La.

HUNDRED OTHERS ARE I

Men Accused of Making Lummy Entries for Lumber Companies.

STEUNENBERG IS A DEFENDANT

Former Governor of Idaho Was "John Doe" in Information Against the Alleged Conspirators.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 23.—In beginning the work here today of impaneling a jury to try United States Senator William E. Borah, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government of valuable timber lands, District Attorney Norman M. Ruck announced that former Governor Frank Steunenberg was one of the men indicted with Senator Borah for conspiracy.

The case was called today before Judge Edward Whitton in the United States district court. The prominence of Senator Borah in the politics of the state, his personal popularity in this, his home town, the leading part he took in the prosecution of Borah for conspiracy, Steunenberg is represented in the indictment as John Doe.

The fact that fully a hundred residents of Boise, Idaho, are alleged to be involved with Senator Borah in the conspiracy, combined to attract an interest in the proceedings against him nearly equal to that which marked the first of the Western Federation of Miners' trials here.

Imposing Array of Counsel. The circuit court was crowded to overflowing when Judge Whitton took the bench. The array of counsel on either side was imposing. The government, whose representatives here freely predict a hearing of sensational interest, have practically taken the case from the hands of District Attorney Ruck, against whom charges of improper conduct before the grand jury have been filed, and assigned the matter to special attorneys trained in the timber land law and fresh from successful prosecutions in other western states.

These are M. G. Burch of Detroit and S. R. Rush of Omaha, both special assistants to the attorney general of the United States. There also was present today Timothy F. Burke, United States district attorney at Cheyenne, who was sent to Boise to assist the special grand jury now in session in its investigation of the charges against District Attorney Ruck. Senator Borah's attorneys include James H. Hawley, senior counsel for the state in the Haywood case, Alfred A. Fraser, E. M. and Carl Paine, all local attorneys, and C. F. Bundy of Eau Claire, Wis. The latter also represents the interests of the Barber Lumber company, the corporation that is said to have profited by the alleged frauds and some whose officers have been indicted.

Allegations of Indictment. The indictment against Senator Borah alleges that he, with twelve others named as co-defendants, conspired to defraud the government of many thousands of acres of the Barber Lumber company. As a result of this alleged conspiracy it is alleged that 108 residents of Boise took out timber claims and swore in doing so that they were acting solely in their own interests, whereas these statements are alleged to have been false and it is alleged that arrangements had been entered into whereby the claimants were to turn their lands over to the Barber Lumber company, whose officers make their headquarters in Wisconsin, and who are said to be affiliated with large lumber interests in the west.

Among the 108 claimants are many of Boise's best known citizens. In some instances five and six members of one family, including wives and daughters are involved. All of the thirteen men against whom indictments were returned have, with the exception of Senator Borah and John Doe and Richard Row, filed pleas of abatement of the indictments on the ground of misconduct on the part of the district attorney, it being alleged that he made an agreement before the grand jury which is prohibited by law and refused to leave the grand jury room on one occasion when requested to do so. Judge Whitton began a hearing Saturday morning in open court on these charges, the special grand jury having the matter in hand being adjourned for the time being.

Senator Borah's trial, coming on with the pleas in abatement undecided, lends a new complication to the situation, for, while he has not joined them, a decision adverse to the government would seem to make it incumbent on the United States attorneys to take cognizance of the matter in his case.

DENIAL BY CAPTAIN SANFORD

He Says He Knows Nothing of Goebel Murder and Does Not Know Mrs. Clark.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Captain Cassius Marshall Sanford, only son of the late John Sanford of Covington, Ky., who was referred to in the affidavit of Mrs. Lulu Williams Clark in Sunday newspapers as "John Sanford," and as having been present when Governor Goebel of Kentucky was killed, yesterday issued a positive denial of all her statements. He said: "Every one of the statements of Mrs. Clark is absolutely false. I never knew her (Mrs. Clark) or General King, to whom it is said I paid attention in the affidavit. At the time of the killing of Governor Goebel, February 8, 1890, I was in the Philippines on business. Subsequently I entered the Philippine consular service, rising to the rank of captain. I have since been in business here. I have never been connected with the Goebel murder, nor know anything about it."

POLITICIANS GO TO LINCOLN

Indications Point to Well Attended Convention.

CANDIDATES HOLD A MEETING

Conference Shows Interest, but Decisions to Make Any Recommendations to State Committee as to Chairman.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—United States Senator Norris Brown of Kearney was among the arrivals in Lincoln today to attend the state republican platform convention. With the senator and one of the earliest arrivals on the scene was F. T. Westervelt of Scott's Bluff county. The republican candidate for re-elected, George Coupland of Elgin and C. E. Anderson of Crete, arrived today.

Several names are being mentioned for the position of state chairman and secretary of the state committee, but the movement for no one candidate has assumed more than embryo form. Senator Brown has nothing to give out for publication. He says the convention will be well attended and he thinks the republican outlook was never better in Nebraska.

Only a very few delegates to the republican state convention reached the city during the day, though all of the candidates met this afternoon and conferred, but decided to make no recommendation to the state committee in the matter of the state chairman and secretary. The law providing for the candidates to recommend a chairman, and consequently the candidates, until invited to do so by the committee, will make no move toward selecting the head of the committee.

Called Not a Candidate. Among those who are invited to attend the convention were Orlando Tefft of Cass county, Judge Paul Jessen of Otoe and E. T. Westervelt of Scott's Bluff. P. A. Caldwell, defeated candidate for nomination as railway commissioner on the republican ticket, is also here. One or two newspapers have been trying to get Caldwell to run for railway commissioner by petition. Regarding this, the Clay county man said:

"I have no intention of making the race. As I said before, if Clark had been nominated by only one vote, it would have been enough for me. Several parties have suggested to me the advisability of running by petition, but I have never considered such a thing seriously. In my interview given over the telephone regarding the nomination of Clark, the impression was given out that I felt very much dissatisfied at the action of the governor, as evidenced by the Cass county vote. I did not mean to give out that impression. I do not charge the Cass county vote to the governor. Of course, it was an endorsement of him, but what I mean is that he did not get out and campaign for Clark."

Ohio for Taft. Walter D. Guilbert, state auditor of Ohio and a Taft booster, is among the arrivals. Mr. Guilbert said today that Ohio is for Taft and that Fremont is only making a bluff show over there occasionally. Mr. Guilbert is meeting and talking with the delegates in behalf of the secretary of war, and he may attempt to get resolutions adopted endorsing the Ohio man for the presidency. He said he would prefer not to say whether he was the object of his visit. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the Taft sentiment in Nebraska.

Numerous resolutions will be ready for the resolutions committee. Westervelt has on his petition committee to put in such sugar shipped from Cuba, while Judge Jessen may try to get adopted a resolution petitioning congress to pass a law making a railroad having the right of eminent domain, or which files its articles of incorporation in a state, a citizen of that state. The resolutions committee will have a little damage suit is filed. Usually the plaintiff has not enough money to take his witnesses to Omaha or Lincoln for an indefinite period and the judge believes such a law would be of great benefit to the people of the various states. The republicans will meet in representative hall at the state house.

Factionists Are Searched. Only a few democrats and one or two populists have arrived. Representative Cone of Sanders represented the populists party and George H. Rogers of Commerce and Henry C. Richmond the democrats. The latter will meet in the senate chamber.

Means Are Discussed to Prevent Enormous Losses in Trade.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 23.—The Interstate Cotton Seed Crushers' association, representing a capital in the south of nearly $1,000,000, met here today preparatory to the international spinners' convention at Atlanta next month. Means to prevent enormous losses in the export of cotton seed were discussed. Careless handling of cargoes add unfavorable tariffs were declared to cause annual losses totalling about $3,000,000. The feature of the program was an address by J. L. Benton of Monticello, Ga., former special agent of the Department of Commerce and Labor, who recently investigated the cotton seed product business abroad. Olive oil, he declared, is the only edible oil which competes with cottonseed oil and will always be an important factor in the European price of cottonseed oil. "A short olive crop," he said, "necessitates more cotton oil for blending, and it is said that some growers always make an average crop if it requires 80 percent of cotton oil to make the required number of barrels."

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Because Baron von Koenning O'Carroll, consul general of Austria-Hungary in New York, was mindful of his official obligations and would not sing when a certain Hungarian song was sung at a concert here, there was a general disturbance and the concert broke up. He called the "Kosvut song" and officially it is under the ban of the Austrian government. Baron O'Carroll is a native Hungarian, but he represents the dual empire here. No sooner had the actress started the song than the Hungarians jumped up and applauded with fervor. SLAUGHTERING AND PACKING

Census Report Published Showing Condition of Industry in United States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The Bureau of the Census has just published Bulletin 33, which contains reports on wholesale slaughtering and meat packing, manufacturing of lard and salt. These reports, which present the statistics of the industries for the calendar year of 1904, form part of the census of manufacturers of 1905, and were prepared under the supervision of William M. Stewart, chief statistician for manufacturers. The report on manufacturers was prepared by Hugh R. Meloy of the census office, and that on salt by Charles E. Munroe, professor in chemistry in George Washington university.

The number of wholesale establishments engaged in slaughtering and meat packing during the calendar year 1904 was 828, and their combined capital was $27,714,690. They furnished employment to 74,124 wage-earners, paid $40,328,972 in wages, consumed materials costing $866,936,983, and manufactured products to the value of $13,914,824.

Although forty-one states and territories contributed to these figures, the industry was practically monopolized by the following fourteen states, named in the order of value of products: Illinois, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Indiana, Ohio, California, Minnesota, New Jersey and Wisconsin. Illinois, by far the most important state, reported 7.3 per cent of the establishments, 33.9 per cent of the capital, 36.4 per cent of the wage-earners, 34.1 per cent of the wages paid, and 31.7 per cent of the products.

FULTON DAY IS OBSERVED

Elaborate and Beautiful Ceremonies Attend Celebration of Anniversary of Death of Steam.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 23.—Elaborate and beautiful ceremonies marked today the observance of "Robert Fulton day" at the Jamestown exposition. Of the many historical events commemorated by the tercentennial observance of the death of the inventor and deeper significance than the celebration of the practical application of Robert Fulton's inventions to the needs of the world.

While the exercises today were under the auspices of the exposition, the president of the observance was given them by the participation of the Robert Fulton Monument association, many members of which arrived yesterday. The orator of the day was Martin W. Littleton of Brooklyn, Conn., who presided at the exposition. The association, came from New York on his yacht, "North Star," and Dr. Samuel L. Chimes (Mark Twain) came on the yacht Kanawha, each being accompanied by a party of guests. Rear Admiral P. F. Harcourt, United States navy, retired, headed the committee appointed to receive the distinguished guests.

A spectacular feature of the celebration was a typical representation of what the inventions of Robert Fulton have meant to the world. It was the assembling in Hampton Roads, just off the exposition grounds, of every sort of craft propelled by steam. The vessels of all sizes and descriptions, all ablaze with flags and bunting, formed a marine parade which was reviewed by the guests from the decks of the visiting yachts. The day's program included the award of the cups presented by President Roosevelt, King Edward and Sir Thomas Lipton for the winners in the various classes of yacht races.
