Other people notice your bad breath where you would not notice it at all, It is nauscating to other people to stand before them and while you are talking. give them a whiff or two of your bad breath. It usually comes from food fermenting on your stomach. Sometimes you have it in the morning-that awful sour. billious, had breath. You can stop that at once by swallowing one or two Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorbers ever prepared.

Sometimes your meals will reveal them selves in your breath to those who talk with you. "You've had onlong" or You've been eating cabbage," and all of a sudden you beich in the face of your friend. Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of odors. as everyone knows. That is why Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are so quick to stop all gases and odors of odorous foods, or gas from indigestion.

"Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Charcoal Logenges in the first place stop for good all sour brash and beiching of gas, and make your breath pure, fresh and sweet, just after you've eaten. Then no one will turn his face away from you when you breathe or talk; your breath will be pure and fresh, and besides your food will taste so much better to you at your next meal. Just try it.

Charcoal does other wonderful things too. It carries away from your stomach and intestines, all the impurities there massed together and which causes the bad breath. Charcoal is a purifier as well as an absorber.

Charcoal is now by far the best, most easy and mild laxative known. A whole box full will do no harm; in fact, the more you take the better. Lawrence Jones of Louisville, Ky., whose stables carried off so many ribbons at the Omaha Horse Show last year has signified his intention of coming to the show this fall, and, although his entries have not been received, the directors are relying upon his coming. His Gallant Lad and other horses attracted considerable attention last fall and patrons of the show will be pleased again to see them in competition with the other noted horses which will attend.

Joseph Cudahy has sent in his entriestwelve in all-which include women's saddle horses, jumpers and sporting tandem Thomas Bass, who for years has handled Limestone Belle for Woodward & Burgess will be on hand with a new array of sad dle horses and roadsters.

Mrs. J. H. Parker, jr., of St. Joseph, sis ter to W. H. McCord, has sent in entries which show she intends to bring the cracks from her St. Joseph stable for the first time. Heretofore she has appeared in the Omaha show ring by simply riding and driving Mr. McCord's horses.

Don Riley will be on hand with the cham pion roadsters of them all, King and Emma R., who have won the blue ribbons in all the horse shows of the country. Others entered to date are Herbert Davis, A. E Rogers, R. H. Rickard, T. B. McPherson jr.; E. Purdy, J. E. Foster, E. W. Enspach, S. W. Burgess and Miss Alice Cudahy. The potato race already has four more entries than there are room for in the ase and this event, which is attractin more and more interest each year, bids fair to be better than ever this fall. The dates for the show are October 14 to October 12, and at the rate entries are coming in there will be more local interest than

W A Austin superintendent of the arens at the Horse Show since the first show, arrived in Omaha Wednesday to take the same position with the fourth annual show. Mr. Austin has been all over the country at the various horse shows and says the Omaha show surely has an envishle repu tation among the horse owners of the country, as it is a well-established fact that owners get the best of treatment at the
