BOISE, Idaho, June 4-Through James H. Hawley, senior of the group of prosecutors, the state of Idaho today made the opening statement against William D. Haywood, whom it charges with the murder of Frank Steunenberg, and then began laid against him. The opening statement was a broad.

charged with plotting wholesale murder and hiring assuming, all in a giant conspiracy of venguance upon those who obstructed their sway, to destroy opposition by terrorism, to control the political destimles of the communities covered by their organisation and to perpetuate their own power within the organization.

It charged a widespread conspiracy, dating in inneption from the north Idaho disturbance fifteen years ago, reaching down to the murder of Frank Steunenberg, and whose murdered victims, by bullet and bomb, numbered scores. Hawley declared that wherever in the mining sections of the coast states the federation had been in control there had been left a trail of blood to mark its operations. By mutual agreement and nderstanding of these leaders at the very inception of this organisation certain objects were aimed at, and it has always been the object of the 'inner circle' of this organisation to accomplish them. In fact, we will prove to you, mentlemen of the jury, that at the inception of this organization a conspiracy was formed by the members of the 'inner circle' the object of which was to perpetuate their own power, influence and control both in the federation itself and in the governmental matters of

"We will go further, gentlemen of the jury, and prove as part of our case and showing who is responsible for the murder of Frank Steunenberg, as showing the circumstances surrounding that murder and who caused it to be committed, that the leaders of this federation, the men who empose the 'inner circle.' have for more than eight years past made a record of deeds of violence and that their chosen methods and nourse and custom has left a trail of blood in the mining sections of this entire occust wherein they have had control. We will show that the leaders who comprise this 'inner circle' have traded in blood, employed hired assauring to take life and destroy property as their interests seemingly required, and as part of their general practice of protection have raised by assessment levied upon the members of their order a large amount of money as an emergency fund, and from it not only squandered large sums for their own peronal use and criminal methods, but have also from it retained the best legal talent

Judge Munger's decision is based upon one point in the controversy, namely, that the board of appraisers erred in receiving the books and records of the company for review without submitting the same to the inspection of the city or the water board. C. C. Wright, one of the attorneys for the latter, said he thought the decision could have been based on a number of other

Text of the Decision. The decision of Judge Munger is:

This is an action for the specific per-formance of a contract whereby the com-parinant agreed to sell and the defendant agreed to purchase the water works of the complainant at a price to be fixed by appraisers, one appointed by each of the parties and the third appointed by the two EXANSAS CITY. Mo., June 4.—The Board of Police Commissioners today continued their investigation into the charges of to the ground. The grounds being wet, there were no drills this morning except troop parade, and turned up evidence to substantiate some of the charges.

Right to Rely on Own Skill. It is undoubtedly true that the appraisers were selected by the parties because of their skill, experience and knowledge as to the value of water works property, and they undoubtedly had a right in fixing the Churches and School House Blown

When appraisers are required to take evidence and rely wholly upon their own knowings and todament, such evidence should only he taken when an opportunity is given to the respective parties to hear or examine the same. In this case, as stated, not only was the evidence received by the appraisant without the city having an opportunity to examine the same, but agained the protest of the city unless such examination was afforded it. Undoubtedly the water company was not required, if the water company was not required if ther did not see fit to offer their broke as evidence, or present them to be examined by the appraisant it should have been done as any other evidence is offered on as to afford the sponsite party an opportun-ity to cross-examine and controvert.
