Galusha May Land. The report that former Secretary of State Galusha is an applicant for the position of state accountant has not been denied The office was created by the last legislature, and Mr. Galusha, who was a faithful attendant upon the session, is said to have had a hand in the drafting of the bill. It provides that the appointment shall be made by the state auditor, with the approval of the governor. It pays a salary of $2,000 a year and $1,000 a year for expenses, if the lump sum appropriated by the legislature can be divided in that way. Auditor Searle will not indicate who is to have the place. He said that he had told more than one applicant that he could ernor Sheldon first approves the selection. The pay for the accountant is not available until July 5. It will be the duty of the new officer to inspect the books and accounts of state officers and state institutions, and to report his findings and to assist the Board of Purchase and Supplies in buying goods for the state institutions.

The semi-annual report of State Treasurer L. G. Brian to the governor shows that the total trust funds now invested aggregates $7,317,557.87. Of that amount $1,007, 911.26 is invested in state warrants and $6,219,646.61 in bonds of counties in Nebrasks and bonds of other states.
