PIONEER MERCHANT IS DEAD

John Beno Succumbs at Last After an Illness of Six Years.

On Account of Illness Had Not Been Active for Some Time in the Affairs of the John Beno Company.

John Beno, pioneer dry goods merchant of Council Bluffs, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 120 Frank street, after an illness extending over six years. Besides his wife he leaves three sons, John, Donald and Grover, and two daughters, Katherine and Elizabeth, all of this city, Mr. Beno was 64 years of age and was born in Alsace, France. In the spring of 1861 he came to Council Bluffs. He attended the public schools and in 1876 was a member of the dry goods firm of Foreman & Beno. In August, 1879, Mr. Beno withdrew from the firm and in the early part of 1880 went into business with his two brothers, Adolph and Charles, on Pearl and Main streets. A few years ago Mr. Beno transferred his business to the big building at the head of Pearl street, on Broadway, which is now conducted under the firm name of the John Beno company, although a few years ago Mr. Beno retired from any active participation in it.

Mr. Beno was married in 1872 to Miss Elizabeth M. Robertson of Little Sloux, who had formerly resided in Council Bluffs.

CUTS THROAT WITH KNIFE Karl Magnuson Has Slight Chance of Recovery.

Karl Magnuson, who is believed to be resident of this city, made a desperate atcide by cutting his throat and left wrist. while in the grocery and meat market of Olof Hakenson, 8340 West Broadway. Letters which the unfortunate man had written in Hakenson's store showed that the Dr. V. L. Treynor and City Physician Rice A similar request was made some time sewed up the wounds. The man was re- back of the Postoffice department, but as ported to be in a favorable condition last night, with a possible chance for his re-son about noon and purchased some postage stamps and writing paper. He asked per-mission to write a few letters and this was granted him. From his talk Mr. Hakenson thought the man, who was a stranger to him, was somewhat mentally deranged. He asked Hakenson to send for a priest, as he was about to die. Hakenson told him to go up town and he would find one, "I cannot do that, they would kill me."

replied the stranger. Hakenson then advised him to go to Omaha and the man made a similar reply. After he had written the letters the stranger asked if he might buy something to eat and Hakenson made him a sand-

While Hakenson was engaged in the front part of the store, in which the grocery department is located, the stranger seized a big butcher knife and made a slash across his throat, severing the windpipe. Hakenson rushed towards him and the stranger made a slash at his left wrist. In the struggle to secure the knife. Hakenson was badly cut about the hands, two of his fingers being nearly severed. The man was finally overpowered and R. H. Huntington and others attempted to stop the flow of blood until medical assistance could be procured. The man was hurried in the police ambulance to the Edmundson Memorial hospital, where his injuries were attended to by Drs. Treynor

lown Governor Accepts Invitation to Urge Tariff Reform to a Pittsburg Audience-Object of Insurance Men.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, June 14 .- (Special.) -- Go ernor Cummins has received information to the effect that attorneys for the Sioux City people suspected of complicity in the bank robbery at Winnebago, Neb., have determined upon making a fight to prevent the extradition of Fritz Klein, the one who, as shown by the evidence presented to the governor, was the only one identified as having been seen in the vicinity of the robbery at the time. Three others who had been arrested were shown posttively to have been elsewhere at the Nebraska, but the lawyers have appealed

The Iowa Federation of Labor in session at Keckuk passed judgment on the new plan of government proposed for Der Moines. The Des Moines delegation represented that the laboring men of the wity are practically all opposed to the move and a resolution was adopted by the federation condemning the plan and encouraging those who are opposed to ft. The purpose of the organization of in surance agents for Iowa was disclosed when Secretary Fitchpatrick of the national organization read a paper advocating reforms in the Iowa laws. First and above all else he made an attack on the anti-compact law, which has been on the Iowa statute books for a good many years. He was bitter in denunciation of this law and declared that until it was repealed there could be no business in the that as a result of the law it was impossible to fix rates or agree upon anything and as a result Iowa has higher rates for insurance than other states and the insured are paying more to the ininsurance companies want the law repealed so they can reduce rates. He also demanded a new uniform fire insurance

OF INTEREST FROM IOWA policy, although the one which was adopted by the legislature, entirely with the approval of the Iowa companies, has not yet gone into use. It is expected that as soon as the insurance men of the state are fully organized they will commence a campaign for more changes in the lows.

> ROBBERS ARE BOLD AT BOONE Enter Home of Northwestern Employe and Choke his Wife. BOONE, In., June 14.-(Special Telegram.) The residence of William Stoite, a Northwestern night employe, was broken into this morning, Mrs. Stolte was choked, a revolver was wrenched from her hand and she was left lying on the floor unconscious. Her awakened too late to see the men. Monday brother, sleeping in the next room, was night two men started cutting the glass out of the front door. Mrs. Stolte was at home and she fired at them four times and they fled. A week ago men tried to enter the home and had cut a screen from the door, when they were frightened away. Police believe the work is by local men, with robbery as the motive.
