SECURITY

The J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company, upon whose property these bonds are a closed First Mortgage, has total assets of nearly $12,000,000. The Company has piedged to the Trustee as additional collateral security for these bonds, good secured notes and bills receivable, equal to one and one-half times the amount of the total bonded debt. The accounts of the Company for the past five years have been examined by Price, Waterhouse & Company, Chartered Accountants, who state that in their opinion these notes will produce in actual cash over $5,000,000. They also certify to the following state-

EARNINGS

The business was established in 1842 and incorporated in 1880. The Company has never had an unpreditable year, and has paid in dividends since 1880 an aggregate amount of $7,750,000, besides adding over $4,000,000 to its capital and surplus. During the past nine years its sales have more than quadrupled, and its net earnings have grown from $238,000 in 1897, to over $1,100,000 in 1906.

The Bonds will be delivered at any bank desired, express prepaid. Telegraphic orders may be sent at our expense.

Moderate receipts at all market points for a few days would be very acceptable as giving time for the recovery of the eastern mutton market. Until the demand for the product is larger, the market on live sheep and lambs can hardly be expected to take on any great amount of activity, nor can prices be expected to show much strength.
