

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Twins City Dye Works removed to 407 S. 16th, Rang Bldg. Closes at 6 p. m. A. Binkhart, photographer, removed to 18th and Franklin streets. Every Saturday Night beginning at 8 o'clock, Thomas Kilpatrick & Co. sell men's 10-cent neckwear for 25 cents. A per cent interest on deposits is a liberal rate, and with the savings bank restrictions, makes the City Savings Bank an ideal depository for frugal people. Gendas Out for Treasurer—J. N. Gendas is No. 1 on the list of applicants for places on the republican primary ballot. Monday morning he filed for county treasurer. Albert Rosenthal, manager of the Omaha Clothing and Furniture company, left Sunday on a combined business and pleasure trip to Chicago and New York City, with a brief stopover at the Jamestown exposition. Bids on Addition—Bids were taken Monday by J. E. Dietrick for the construction of an addition to the Merchants National bank building. It is the intention to let the contract within a few days. Laundry Driver Wanted—The Wardlaw Laundry Company, at 610 South Sixteenth street have complained against W. H. Smith, a driver in their employ, who they assert collected $40 for them Saturday and failed to turn it in at the office. Slot Machines Before Bedick—Judge Bedick of the district court is expected to return from his vacation within a day or two and will begin holding court again at once. The slot machine injunction case is scheduled to come up before him Tuesday. Ten Days for Dislocating Shoulder—William Edwards of the Nebraska Lodging house was given ten days in jail Monday morning for falling downstairs and dislocating his shoulder. He was very drunk according to the evidence and came to grief at 111 South Thirtieth street. Dr. Fitzgibbon set his shoulder and he will be held as a guest during convalescence. Another Motor Proved—Superintendent of Motive Power and Machinery McKee, accompanied by General Manager Mohler and several other officials of the Union Pacific made a test trip with motor car No. 10 Monday morning. A test trip was made last week by Mr. McKee and the several new improvements which he has made in this car were found to work most satisfactorily. Mrs. Fay Gets Bad Fall—Mrs. E. M. Fay, aged 64 years, mother of Mrs. H. D. Reed, met with a serious accident at the home of her daughter Sunday afternoon. She fell down several steps of the inside stairs and cut her head badly, several stitches being required, and also wrenched her back. She was alone in the house except for her grandson, who was on the second floor and did not hear her fall, so it was nearly half an hour before any help was given her. Miss Sheard reports—Miss Jessie Sheard of 613 North Twentieth street was missed Sunday night by her parents and for some time it was thought that she had disappeared from home. It was reported to the police that Miss Sheard, together with Miss Agnes Valentine of 1836 California street, had either been kidnapped or had run away. A few hours after the alarm was turned in, however, Miss Sheard was found at a neighbor's house. Real Estate Exchange Pleno—The Omaha Real Estate exchange will hold its annual picnic at Bellevue Thursday and not only real estate men, but their friends, are invited. It will be an all-day outing and everybody is asked to bring a lunch basket. The party will leave Fourteenth and Douglas streets at 9:30 in the morning. The Real Estate Exchange ball team will play a double header in the afternoon, one game with the Townsends and one with the Bellevue team. Inmates of Opium Joint—Three young men, H. Dougherty, J. H. Harvey and John Williams, were arrested Sunday evening for being inmates of an opium joint run by Tung Wah at Thirtieth and Capitol avenue, Harvey and Williams, who, it was asserted, merely happened to be in when the raid was made, were fined $5 and costs each. Dougherty who has been accused of the same offense before was fined $10 and costs and Tung Wah received a sentence of $25 and costs. Invitation to Come to Omaha—The Commercial club has augmented its office force to send out invitations to the country dealers to visit "Omaha, the Market Town," during the merchants' meetings which are to be held this summer and fall. The invitations are enclosed in an attractive envelope, whose face shows a half-tone cut of a busy street scene in Omaha. This is an idea originated by Commissioner Guild, who believes that the Commercial club should wherever possible use catchy ads to spread Omaha's fame. VACATION EXCURSIONS via the Baltimore & Ohio railroad; Jamestown exposition; tickets on sale daily until Nov. 30. Chicago to Boston and return, July 25 to 28, $12.65. For particulars, write W. A. O'BRIEN MAY GET BUILDING New Quarters for Candy Factory Depend on Visit to Boston Owners. The erection of a new home for the D. J. O'Brien company depends on the outcome of an interview Mr. O'Brien will have this week in Boston with the owners of the Galm building, where the company is now quartered. Mr. O'Brien has gone to Lewiston, Me., on his annual vacation, and will stop in Boston to make arrangements for relocating the Galm building. If the terms of a new lease cannot be made satisfactory to the O'Brien company, it will build a home of its own. A new factory may be erected regardless of this, for Mr. O'Brien says the present quarters are not conveniently arranged for candy manufacturing. Mr. Martin says he is planning to build tenements for colored people at the northeast corner of Twenty-first and Webster streets, where he now lives. He expects to expend about $5,000. Mr. Martin owns the house where he lives and also the former home of ex-Governor Coburn, both of them fine large houses. On the ground adjoining he proposes to erect a two-story brick building and connect it with the two houses. The building will be expressly for the use of colored people, as the demand among them for rental quarters is greater than the supply. A second story is to be added to Mr. Martin's office building at 209 South Thirtieth street. Construction was begun Monday morning. "Cats have their uses," said a man who lives on North Eighteenth street. "My little boy got a perfect mania for babies a short time ago. Some people moved in next door to us and they had a sweet little baby. My son immediately began negotiations for buying the infant. Just in fun the mother offered to sell it for a price, which he finally beat down to $11. He seemed determined to buy that baby and made my evenings hideous with his demands for money. Last week the people on the other side of us got a cat and a very pretty and affectionate feline it was. Immediately the boy's affection was transferred to the cat. But I am just about as badly off as ever, for he has arranged to buy the cat for $40, and he is as insistent as ever in demanding money for this purchase. I don't know whether the relative prices of the baby and the cat are an indication of his estimate of the value of each." FRANCHISE WAITS HEARING Shimer & Chase Application Goes Over Until Friday. TAXPAYERS TO GET AN INNING County Commissioners Urged to Grant Request Immediately in Order to Facilitate Financing of the Deal. The county board Monday morning side-stepped the Shimer & Chase request for a franchise to run a street railway to Seymour park, and put the matter off until the next regular meeting. It was agreed a meeting of the committee of the whole should be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which the franchise proposition should be discussed again and property owners in the neighborhood should be given a hearing. Shimer & Chase through their attorney, James H. Adams asked for immediate action, declaring it would be necessary for them to act quickly in order to carry through the financial part of the undertaking. The board declined to put the matter in a final vote until it had a chance to go over it at another meeting. It is considered probable as a result of the Monday meeting that the board will refuse to grant an unlimited franchise, but will restrict the grant to not more than fifty years. Mr. Adams indicated this would be accepted though his people preferred no time limit be placed. The board will also demand that a plot of the West Q road with the railroad definitely located be furnished and will insist on other limitations as to the building of grades and the drainage of the wagon road grade. W. L. Kierstead, who said he appeared as a taxpayer and for the good of Douglas county objected to immediate action, and asked for a delay of a week or two. Commissioner Solomon proposed that the franchise be refused to give a hint that the road would be built within the time limit, declaring his purpose was to prevent speculation, but Mr. Adams indicated this would not be acceptable to his clients. Board of City Prisoners. Suit for approximately $60,000 will be begun by the county attorney against the city of Omaha and the city of South Omaha for the hearing of prisoners sent to the county jail from the police courts of the two cities. A resolution directing this action be taken was passed by the board Monday. Since the organization of the county the police courts of the two cities have been sending city prisoners to the county jail of the county. About a year ago the auditor was directed to begin work on the records to determine how much should be charged to each city. The work has not been completed, but County Auditor Smith is of the opinion about $48,000 is due from the city of Omaha and $12,000 from South Omaha. Whether or not the county is entitled to recover this money has not been determined as a legal proposition yet but the members of the board were of the opinion it should be tested by a suit in the courts. Deputy County Attorney Magney was present, but could not give an opinion on the subject without time to look up citations. Brown Out of Jurisdiction. The board dismissed the charges against Constable Brown of Benson precinct on an opinion from Deputy County Attorney Magney that it had no jurisdiction to hear the complaint. Under the new law the cases will have to be taken to the courts. Brown it was charged moved out of the precinct after he had been appointed, and the complaint also charged he had not reported the true amount of a levy he had made on a saloon property. Report of Charity Committee. Chairman Bruning of the charity committee has submitted his semi-annual report showing a great saving to the county in the conduct of the department during the first six months of the year. The cost of supplies from January to June, inclusive, amounted to $5,230.91, of which $2,919.35 was for groceries and $2,311.56 for coal. Last year the total expended during the same six months was $6,967.62, and in 1905 $11,308.49. This was the largest expenditure for a number of years, being $3,000 more than it was in 1904, when $1,467.24 was expended. Chairman Bruning's report showed during the last six months 38,175 pounds of flour has been distributed at a cost of $704.24; 7,536 pounds of sugar, costing $884.40, and 61,315.60 pounds of coal, costing $2,311.56. SCAVENGER TAX BUSINESS Report of Certificates Owned by City and County Now in Treasurer's Hands. Report of scavenger tax business at the close of business July 9 shows that on that date there was in the office of the city and county treasurer 1,216 tax sale certificates owned by the city, representing a valuation of $228,553.23; 1,079 certificates owned by the county, valued at $58,726; 419 certificates owned by South Omaha, valued at $20,396.97, and 451 certificates valued at $982.35, owned by the state. At the beginning of the enforcement of the scavenger law there were about 35,000 cases started and these cases are now reduced, as far as the city, county and state is concerned in the redemption, to less than ten per cent of that number.

FIRE AT SCHLITZ HOTEL Tenants of Building Lose Heavily Through Water. BILZ STOCK ENTIRELY RUINED Pan of Grease Starts One Blaze and Second Comes After the Firemen Had Retired from Scene. Two fires in the Schlitz hotel building at Sixteenth and Harney Monday morning resulted in damage estimated at over $200,000. The stock of J. F. Bilz, consisting mostly of yarns, furnishings goods and small merchandise, was nearly all ruined by smoke and water, the total loss being estimated at more than $25,000, fully covered by insurance. The new Owl drug store, recently opened for business by the Sherman & McConnell company, suffered also from smoke and water to the extent of $3,000 to $4,000. The drug stock is soaked and an exact estimate was difficult to make, about 90 per cent of the loss was covered. Frank Murphy, manager of the Schlitz hotel and the Heidelberg and Schlitz cafes, is unable to estimate the damage to the property. Building Inspector Withnell estimated the loss to the building at $250,000. It is owned by the Schlitz Brewing company. First Fire Small. The first fire, which was small and caused little damage, came from a pan of grease in the kitchen of the hotel. The department was called at 10:20 and in a few minutes the blaze was extinguished, and an exact estimate was $250. The fire had been stamped out. About half an hour later a passerby saw smoke issuing from the upper story of the five-story part of the building and gave the alarm. Some delay was caused, as it was thought at first that some mistake had been made. In a short time smoke was pouring from the windows and sweeping through the upper story of the lower section of the building, which fronts on Harney street. Clerk McKay was notified by Miss Margaret Roach, an employe of the hotel, and the guests were warned. Dr. H. J. Patterson of Toledo, O., is the only guest who is known to have lost his personal effects. He was occupying room No. 8, and was forced to come down the fire escape, leaving his belongings, amounting to over $30, in the room. Only seven of the twelve rooms in the exposed part of the hotel were occupied. F. E. Lehen, J. M. Willis, William Winters, A. J. Van Dusen, and an out-of-town visitor from Cedar Rapids all escaped without difficulty. The books of the hotel and cafes were rescued by D. J. McKay. While the street was crowded with spectators considerable consternation was caused in front of Bennett's store by the breaking of a large hose, which threw water in all directions. Start of Second Blaze. "We supposed the fire was out when we left the first time," said Fire Chief Slinger, "or we surely would not have left the building. The fire originated on the range in the kitchen on the first floor. There was considerable smoke, and when that was out we examined further and could find no other indications of fire. An iron pipe leads from the kitchen range to a wooden flume, which carried the odors from the range through the roof. There was considerable smoke coming out of this, and we examined it and felt of the iron pipe which was cool. The only way I can account for the second fire is that a spark must have remained on the soot and grease in the wooden flume and this was fanned into a blaze after we had left. We torn some asphalt away from the flume on the roof, but could see no indications of fire. The fire was extinguished after the firemen left," said Mr. Withnell. Fireworks in the Building. Chief Salter and Assistant Chief Simpson were indignant when they discovered fireworks stored in the second story of the building, over the rooms occupied by Mr. Bilz. When they were found Roman candles were exploding every second, and the assistant chief called a line of hose from the roof and soaked the entire stock of explosives. Speaking of the matter Chief Salter said: "Of course we were not as much afraid of these explosives as though the powder had been in bulk, as the candles had to go off one at a time, but people should be cautious how they store such stuff in buildings where people live. We did not know they were there until they started to ex-

PARRISH BLAMES THE GIRLS Says Speeding Autos Were Driven by Young Women. MEN GALLANTLY PLEAD GUILTY Acting Mayor Johnson Says Fine Will Stand and Attorney Intimates the Speed Limit is Absurdly Low. After a rather lengthy hearing Monday, Acting Mayor Johnson declined to interfere with the fines assessed against E. A. Cudaby, T. L. Davis and Vance Lance, who pleaded guilty to running automobiles faster than allowed by the state law in incorporated cities. In making his plea for remission of the fines John Parrish, who appeared for the defendants in the case, said the persons who were really guilty had not been arrested, that the automobiles owned by these persons who pleaded guilty were being run by three young women at the time the law was violated and that to save the young women from arrest the owners of the machines had pleaded guilty, expecting a nominal fine under a city ordinance; that the prosecuting attorney and the police judge also expected a nominal fine to be assessed, but that when the plea of guilty had been entered it was discovered that the minimum fine was $25 and costs. He objected to the size of the fine rather than to the action of the court in accepting the pleas. In discussing the application Mr. Johnson said that he would not remit the fine, as he hoped the action of the court would be an example to other drivers of automobiles; that the defendants should have known to what they were pleading before admitting themselves to be guilty of an offense they did not commit, and that in the instance of future convictions he would establish the precedent of remitting the fines. Discussing the city ordinance governing automobiles, Mr. Parrish declared that it could not be enforced for the reason that it requires impossibilities of the machines; that it is practically impossible to run a machine at eight miles an hour as it will stop or injure the engine. He intimated that an effort may be made to have the ordinance changed. MOTHER AND BABES STRANDED Woman on Her Way to York Leaves Her Ticket Somewhere About Omaha. Mrs. Ota Berlington and three small children are in the hands of the Associated Charities, awaiting word from the husband of the woman, who is said to be in York. According to Mrs. Berlington's story she arrived in Omaha Friday night from Malvern, Ia. In order to take advantage of the 2-cent fare law she had purchased a ticket from Malvern to Omaha and after reaching here bought tickets to York. Having some time to wait for a train she took her children to a restaurant for lunch. When she returned she went to have her trunk checked to York and discovered that she had lost her tickets. Friday night the family spent in the railway station and Saturday she called on the city authorities for aid. Neither the city or county could provide for her and Superintendent Morris of the Associated Charities secured her a place to stay. He then sent a message to York requesting the chief of police to notify her husband and Saturday she called on the city authorities for aid. The man could not be found and the woman then gave his home address. A second message was received Monday morning from York stating that no such person lived at the address given. The woman is still waiting for tickets. Quick Shine Shoe Polish contains no turpentine or acids, gives a satin finish, will not rub off on the clothing. Pennsylvania Special "Stops." WRINKLES AND WHAT CAUSES THEM Chicago, March 27, 1907. E. Burnham, Chicago, Ill.: Dear Sir—I desire to fulfill my promise to you, which was made last October, namely, that if you would improve my complexion by removing crow-feet, wrinkles and discolored complexion, I would give you my photograph and testimonial. The enclosed picture which was taken last Fall, shows my condition at that time. The enclosed picture taken February 25th, shows my condition at the present time. I desire to state that you have not only removed the wrinkles and crow-feet, but have put my skin in a first-class, youthful condition, of which I am very proud. The fact is that my complexion is the very envy of my friends, and I cannot say too much for your course of treatments for beautifying women. You certainly do all you claim and your remedies are perfection. I recommend them to my friends. Yours very truly, Mrs. Orr After Course of Treatment. Trusting this letter will fulfill my promise to you and be all that you require, I remain, Mrs. Theima Orr, Hotel Wychmere, 18th and Indiana Avenue. "Wrinkles," the little word that causes a shudder to every woman and most men, are caused more by carelessness and neglect than by years. We all know the young person who makes creases by lifting the eyebrows and by smiling so continuously, and the person who frowns and squints, and the one who from ill health and poorly nourished skin shows the lines crossing the face in every direction. Such people may all take heart, because by the use of E. Burnham's wonderful skin food such lines may and surely will be obliterated. It is unnecessary today for any one to carry these telltale marks. A course of treatment as arranged by E. Burnham will positively remove wrinkles, fill out the sunken cheeks, remove pimples and blackheads, and restore any face to its youthful contour and complexion. This treatment with the different articles are illustrated and explained in a little booklet which is published by E. BURNHAM, which makes it so plain that any lady can use these toilet articles with equally good success in the privacy of her own home as if she had visited Burnham's Beautifying Parlors and taken a course of treatment in this great establishment. Any first-class dealer can supply you. Free sample Hair Tonic, Cucumber Cream, including booklet how to become beautiful, by calling, or mailed upon receipt of 10c to E. BURNHAM, 70 and 72 State St., Chicago, Ill. The largest manufacturer in the world of Toilet Requisites and Hair Goods. For Sale by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., Cor. 16th and Dodge Sts. and THE OWL DRUG CO., Cor. 16th and Harney Sts. E. Burnham will have a demonstrator in this city from July 15th to August 10th for the purpose of teaching the ladies how to use E. Burnham's Toilet Requisites with equally as good success in the privacy of their own homes, as if they had visited his celebrated Toilet Parlors, at 70-72 State street.
