

the recent outrages and agreeing not to molest union or nonunion workers. "Now that agreement continued in force and effect from July 6, 1907, up to the general strike of 1908, didn't it?" "Ostensibly," replied the witness. Sackett next was asked as to the part he played in the deportation of the men from the Territory district. He said he helped "escort" out of town members of the union whom he recognized as agitators and who had prevented peaceable citizens from going to work. As to the deportation of the merchant, Mr. Fletton, who sympathized with the union, Sackett said he took no part. "But I knew they had him," he added. "You saw him harnessed, barefooted and without coat marching for many blocks over the frozen ground and held for hours in a vacant lot, didn't you?" "Yes, I saw him," replied the witness. "The Citizens' alliance met the night the deportations began. Asked if this alliance was not composed of gamblers, merchants, bankers and others who had been boycotted by the union, the witness said he could not agree to any such proposition. "What was it composed of then?" "It was composed of all persons who desired to see the mines in operation, who desired to live there in peace without having their lives taken and who wanted to work and let others work." "Asked if men of family and property owners were not deported, Sackett said: "Some men were temporarily deported who ought not to have been, but they were allowed to come back." "Was Fletton allowed to come back?" "No, sir."

RIVER IS SLOWLY FALLING Missouri Passes High Tide and Threatens No Danger. SAME STAGE AS PREVIOUS DAY Going Down at Sioux City Also, but Southern Towns Are Alarmed, Over the Continued Rise. The Missouri river is slowly falling at Omaha at Sioux City and near Blair. The stage here Wednesday morning was 17.2, which is within 3 feet of the danger line, and this was precisely the stage Tuesday morning, but Colonel Welsh of the government weather bureau announced at 9:30 a. m. that the tide was receding and the high mark probably passed. At Sioux City a fall of 3 foot had been noted and near Blair 1. "I think we need have no further fears, if, indeed, we ever were warranted in any—for conditions point toward a gradual decline in the stage of the water," said Colonel Welsh. Inquiry came to The Bee Wednesday morning by long distance telephone from Leavenworth for information about the river. Residents of Kansas City were alarmed at the rise there and were anxious to know how things were up here. "I think Leavenworth need have no more apprehension," said Colonel Welsh, "as the same conditions which point to a fall in the north ought to give comfort south. I believe the crest has been passed." Both Streams Rise at Kawville. KANSAS CITY, July 17.—The Missouri and the Kaw rivers here continue to rise slowly, but the water is being carried off naturally, and, aside from a few wash-out and flooding of lowlands, no serious damage has been reported in the last twenty-four hours. The stage of the Missouri this morning was 23.5. Weather Observer Connor this morning predicted a further rise tomorrow and probably Friday, when it is believed, the water will begin to recede. It is not believed that a stage of twenty-four feet will be passed.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS Contracts Held Up Where Bidders Are in Arrears on Work—Warm Debate Over Question. At the meeting of the city council Tuesday night several contracts for paving were held in abeyance until successful bidders are in position to begin work immediately after the approval of such contracts. This action was taken after considerable debate and was carried by vote of 7 to 4. Bedford, Elsassor, Jackson, Davis and Hanson desired to let contracts as usual. Councilman Brucker introduced an ordinance to regulate booths, stands and stalls for the sale of fruit and other merchandise. The ordinance provides for the maintenance of such booths or stalls in that part of the city bounded by Capitol avenue, Twelfth street, Eighteenth street and Jackson street, and provides a fine of $5 for its violation. Mr. Brucker also introduced an ordinance making it necessary for managers of circuses, side shows, etc., to secure consent of owners of property abutting on show grounds before land may be used for exhibition purposes. It also provides for a license fee of $5 a day for such shows, where a fee of less than 25 cents is charged. When the petition for immediate construction of a storm sewer from Sixteenth and California streets to Twenty-fourth and Dodge streets came up Councilmen Elsassor and Davis declared the work should be done immediately and an ordinance was introduced for this purpose next Tuesday. Tax Levy Ordinance. Councilman Bedford offered a resolution, in compliance with House Roll No. 127, that there be certified to the county clerk for levy by the county commissioners a tax of $90,000 for general purposes on all property in the city of Omaha for the year 1908 and $250,000 for the year 1909 for the same year. The matter went to the committee of the whole. The mayor named W. J. Dermody, Robert Atchison and W. V. Bennett as appraisers for appropriation of land for extending Fifty-seventh street in Himebaugh's addition. The "weed inspection" resolution became a law without the signature of the mayor. Frank A. Furay bid $70 for the old engine house at Twenty-fifth and Cumine streets. He was the only bidder and now owns the house. The final estimate of E. D. Van Court for paving Twenty-fourth street, from Vinson to Leavenworth, was referred to the committee of the whole. When the contract and bond of Hugh Murphy for work on Thirty-first street, from Leavenworth to Pacific, came up Mr. Bridges moved that the contract be "held up." Councilmen Bedford and Elsassor opposed the motion and some of the members asked what "held up" meant. Dr. Davis wanted the case settled one way or another, while Mr. Zimmerman supported Bridges' motion. This brought up a warm debate, in which personalities were indulged in between Elsassor and Zimmerman, in which the latter asserted the former stated a falsehood and President Johnson repeatedly called the councilman from the Tenth to order. Nearly every member found fault with the contractors, but the question seemed to be the best manner in which to secure rapid work. By vote of 5 to 7 the Bridges motion was adopted. The same action was taken with other contracts offered by Mr. Murphy, except that on Myrtle avenue and on Lake street, which were approved. Contracts with all other contractors were approved. The chief of the police court reported collections for the month of July, $18,45, and the market master collections of $39.90. Mrs. Samuel McAuliffe reported injury by falling through a hole in sidewalk at 2639 Seward street and made claim for $2,500 damages. W. L. Elsassor reported damages by water at 242 South Nineteenth street, by the notice of suit on the city. The Board of Trade was authorized to build a bridge across the alley to the Schlitz hotel. Ralph Kitchen was authorized to use the area way on Fourteenth street for an entrance to the dining-room of the Paxton hotel. New Ordinances. Ordinances introduced included: To change grade of Burdette street from Twenty-seventh to Twenty-eighth streets, and other streets in the same neighborhood; to open Webster street from Thirtieth to Thirty-second; to open Third street from Pine to Hickory; to establish grade of Evans street from Thirty-first to Thirty-second; to open certain boulevards; to regulate improvement districts, Nos. 363, 364 and 365, ordering the paving of Twenty-eighth avenue from Woodworth avenue to Shirley street, Capitol avenue from Twenty-eighth avenue to Thirtieth street, Dodge from Park avenue to Thirty-first avenue, Twenty-first avenue from Mary's avenue to Howard street, Fourteenth street from William to Lincoln avenue, Hickory street from Twenty-sixth street to Twenty-eighth street, Capitol avenue from Twenty-seventh avenue to Twenty-eighth avenue, and Twenty-seventh avenue from Dodge street to Capitol avenue, to levy taxes in street improvement district, No. 371 and in sewer district, No. 23, to open and extend A street to a point 30 feet west of Twelfth street, erecting Fairbanks-Morse & Co. the right to maintain a platform at Ninth and Harney streets. Omaha Antoinette Stranded. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., July 17.—One party of the Omaha antoinette which left Des Moines Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock en route on their journey east to Rock Island, Ill., to attend the Trans-mississippi golf tournament, gave up the overland journey here and left yesterday afternoon by rail for their destination. When they reached Marshalltown they were met by Marshalltown at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon in their "Big Six" machine. It was found that one of the pumps was leaking. In attempting to fix the pump one of the parts was broken. Mr. Hamilton shipped his car and his party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bunting, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. T. Stewart, continued their journey by rail. T. V. Macklin of the Union Pacific, also of Omaha, continued the journey in his roadster. Iowa News Notes. PORT DODGE—A suit in quarter was today ordered by the city council of Port Dodge against the Port Dodge Light and Power company. The action is in the result of the company persisting in charging its maximum rates in violation of the city ordinance. ADEL—Lined up in picturesque battle array on the bank of the Coon river here, seven pretty normal school girls had their lives saved Saturday when they aided Sheriff George Ross in smashing 2,300 pounds of ice against an old rock pier near the mouth of the stream.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA Commission Men and Packers Find Cow Staff Agreement Satisfactory. SPECIAL TAXES DELINQUENT Delegates to National Exchange Meeting Will Make an Effort to Secure the Next Session for South Omaha. From various points of view, the interested parties in the late controversy between the shippers and the packers over the "she stuff," are finding certain lasting benefits revealing themselves. The commission men expressed themselves as well satisfied at the result and the settlement. The packers also have apparently the same feeling. It is certain that market conditions and the good feeling between all parties was never better than at the present time. The commission men say that the settlement of the question in Chicago was practically the same as it was here, the only difference being that the agreement was couched in slightly different language. There have been very few appeals to the newly appointed inspector. Most commission men, if an animal is objected to, separate it and sell it otherwise. Under the proposition of the packers to allow the actual value of an animal condemned the commission men say that they average about $5 per carcass more than under the old rule of paying 10 per cent of the cost. The agitation will have the effect of routing the farmers to the necessity of carefully looking after the health of their herds. The agitation has been followed by great activity in the department sales at Washington. People are demanding tests made of their herds. The packers under the new rule are sending a report of each animal condemned for tuberculosis to the chief of the bureau of animal industry at this point. He in turn informs the state veterinarian and the department state veterinarian, Mr. Peters, state veterinarian, then communicates with the breeder having the diseased stock and offers to make a confirmative test of all his animals free except for the assistance he may require and board while on the premises. Advice will then be offered for the eradication of the disease. A large number of cases have already received attention. After Exchange Convention. The delegates to the annual convention of the National exchange will leave South Omaha this evening for Kansas City where the convention is to be held. The sessions will last three days. There are eight delegates regularly elected and as many alternates. It is likely that a crowd of South Omaha people will go down to support the efforts of the delegates to bring the next annual convention to South Omaha. The men here think it no more than right that South Omaha should have this honor, and the efforts of the delegates will be directed to that end. It is also hinted that there will be a few candidates for the national offices among the delegation. Special Taxes Delinquent. The report of the city treasurer respecting certain obligations of the city falling due as the result of certain issues of bonds, and the fact that there was not enough money on hand to pay the obligations reveals a startling state of affairs. It is a growing tendency for the property owners to refuse to pay their special assessments. In this instance three districts are short for grading obligation and one is short for paving. The following is the table: Grading district No. 57, $100.00 on hand, 25.75; Grading district No. 57, $100.00 on hand, 25.75; Paving district No. 54, $25.00 on hand, 47.00; Paving district No. 57, $240.00 on hand, 47.00. Total, $320.75; $675.24 shortage. The latter item is the paving of Thirtieth street south from Q to the Jetter Brewing property. The paving here is still in litigation and an effort is being made to set aside the contract entirely. All of these special improvement bonds are valid obligations and will have to be paid by the city at large if not by special assessment. Y. M. C. A. Building Fund Campaign. The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian association at its weekly meeting made a thorough canvass of the situation, reviewing in detail the work that has been accomplished to date. A majority of the board was present and it was the unanimous opinion that the fund movement was progressing satisfactorily for the work and attention it is receiving. Plans for a more vigorous and aggressive campaign were discussed and the committee having the detail work in charge was instructed to immediately take steps for the increasing of the working force. The subscriptions to date have been very willingly given. The amount subscribed is as given below: A. L. Bergquist, $500; Ladies' Auxiliary, $500; E. H. Howard, $400; N. D. Mann, $400; Jetter Brewing Co., $250; P. E. McLean, $250; J. A. McLean, $250; F. A. Cressley, $200; J. H. Howard, $200; G. H. Brewer, $200; W. D. Wiers, $100; W. R. Smith, $100; A. A. Thurlow, $100; Nebraska Furniture Co., $100; Howard Vogel, $100; H. A. Thurlow, $100; H. H. Thurlow, $100; Home Furniture Co., $100; Munshaw & Co., $100; J. C. Nicholson, $100; H. R. Ellis, $100; Omaha Cigar Co., $100; F. H. Smith, $100; W. H. Nichols, $75; H. T. Brass, $75; Sundry donations, $1,428. Total to date, $5,949. For the time the canvass has been in progress the working force and the committee feels sure of ultimate success. Magic City Gossip. Glynn Transfer Co. Tel. 80, Omaha 54. LARAMIE, Wyo., July 17.—(Special.)—The commission appointed by the governor to investigate the Morton charge at the university met here Monday. All five members of the board are here and will stay, day by day, until their work is completed. During the past few months there has been considerable criticism concerning affairs at the state university. The democratic press has done much to lead the public to believe that this is the result of politics and numerous charges of graft have been made. So much has been said and written on the subject that the board of trustees petitioned Governor Brooks to appoint a commission to investigate, and it is this commission which convened here today to begin its labors. The commission is composed of the following persons: Martin R. Johnston of Wheatland, Charles F. Maurer of Douglas, L. G. Phillips of Meeteetse, Charles R. Ketcher of Sheridan and Leon C. The board is anxious to have a very thorough and impartial investigation made and hence has appointed representatives of both political parties and men whose honesty and integrity will not be questioned.
