Commission Makes Report. CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 21 .- (Special,)-

Governor B. B. Brooks has received the report of the nonpartisan board appointed to investigate charges against the management of the University of Wyoming made by Prof. G. E. Morton of the Colorado Agricultural college, and formerly of the University of Wyoming staff. Prof. Morton alleged graft on the part of the university trustees, especially in the letting of coal and printing contracts, and that a state of petticoat tyranny resulted from the promiscuous activity of Miss Alice Hebard, secretary of the university.

The finding of the commission is in a way nonpartisan board of university trustees. Governor Brooks has not intimated what action he will take.

They have just had the lumber firms before them to explain how it was that outside towns sold lumber so much cheaper than Columbus firms and why when bids were asked for, there and why when bids were asked for, there was such a uniformity in the price of all the bids, and why it was that here lumber is so high that those that contemplated building, gave it up. The lumber men, while in the sweatbox answering questions, did not make their answers satisfactory to the Commercial club.

Braves from Harrison County Take Their Scalps.

The Harrison county, Iowa, officials returned to Logan from Council Bluffe Saturday evening and they carried their scalps with them. They did not leave their hirsute coverings in the wigwams of the Pottawattamies as the latter had boasted. In fact when the story is told the officials of Harrison county tomahawked the officials of Pottawattamie county to a standstill. Seven innings sufficed and when the official scorer closed his count it stood 10 to 3 in favor of the visitors from Harrison county. The Pottawattamies at the start, evidently thought they had something easy and put H. V. Battey, clerk of the district court, the "old man" of the county court house, in the box.
