DENVER OVERLOOKS ITS CHANCES

Welch Makes a Home Run Just to Show He Can Hit a Left-Handed l'itcher, but Autrey and Beiden Fall to Land.

DENVER, July, 23.-Denver missed sevral bright opportunities in today's game, while Omaha took advantage of all that came her way. Many close decisions were thrown on the umpire and the home fans refused to agree with him on many of them, Captain Wheeler of the Denvers made frequent trips to the plate to expostulate woith Mr. Brennan and White even jostled him a little. These little opisodes were unnecessary, for Brennan's decisions were correct an dthe demonstration against him after the game was gratuitous. Kineally's error in the second, Zalusky's bad throw in the fourth and Wheeler's neglect to run in on Franck's error in the third were the fallures on the part of the locals. The two errors gave Omaha two runs and the fall down kept Denver from making one it badly Weich's home run in the seventh inning tied the score and the winning run came in the eighth on Austin's single and Graham's two-bagger. Score: DENVER.

McGlivray opened the game by securing a two-sacker, an distret Bader had been retired Ryan scored him with a three-sacker. Ryan scored on Melchior's single. Melchior stole second and scored on Belden's fly. Des Moines scored its only run in the second inning.
