Developments within the last forty-eight hours indicate that at least one amiable contemporary has come around to our way of selling pianoswhen announcement is made that their special sale prices are less than

We are receiving the thanks of the music-loving public for exploding the canard about the so-called mammoth consignment. Which, while heralded far and wide as a record-breaking purchase, somehow managed to arrive in Omaha as quietly as St. Chaffrey's French car De Dion. Further, we are commissioned by one of the world's greatest plane manufacturers to offer $1,000 to anyone producing satisfactory evidence of such a purchase or shipment. We hold evidence to the contrary—and will be pleased to submit same to any one calling at our salesroom

Pleasant days of the last two weeks ave started society wondering how much onger it will be until indoor pleasure will e forced to give way to the more healthful pastimes of the field. Omaha is lessed with three splendid outdoor clubs, nd these are all patronized to the limit of their capacity. The Field club and the olfers will find few, if any, changes in ne courses of the Field and Country clubs, out at the Happy Hollow club it will be ound that a new hole has been added which will be the wonder of the golfing contingent of the club. Visiting golfers have often expressed wonderment that Omaha was able to successfully support three magnificent outdoor clubs, each having splendid eighteen-hole courses. Their wonderment would cease if they would but visit these clubs and see the immense popularity of outdoor sports in Omaha, specially those fostered by the clubs.

Society is quietly getting ready for the nany spring weddings, a number of which have been announced and some which will e announced in the near future. In fact one wedding which will take place soon after Lent will not be announced until the
