labor to organize for their mutual protection and benefit, and pledge the efforts of the people's party te preserve this right inviolate. We condemn the recent attempt to destroy the power of trade unions through the unjust use of the federal injunction substituting government by injunction for free government.

We favor the enactment of legislation looking to the improvement of conditions of the wage earners. We demand the abolition of child labor in factories and mines and the suppression of sweat shops. We oppose the use of convict labor in competition with free labor. We demand the exclusion from American shores of foreign pauper labor imported to beat the wages of intelligent American workingmen down.

We favor the eight-hour work day and legislation protecting the lives and limbs of workmen through the use of safety appliances.

We demand the enactment of an empty of the safety appliances.

We demand the enactment of an em-ployers' liability bill within constitutional bounds. Protection of Coal Miners.

We diclare against a continuation of the criminal carelessness of the operation of mines, through which thousands of miners have lost their lives to increase the dividends of stockholders, and demand the immediate adoption of precautionary measures to prevent a repetition of such horrible catastrophes.

We present to all people the foregoing declaration of principles and policies as our deep, earnest and abiding convictions, and now before the country and in the name of the great moral but eternal power in the universe that makes for right thinking and right living and determines the destiny of nations, this convention pledges that the people's party will stand by those principles and policies in success and in defeat; that nover again will the party by the siren songs and false promises of designing politicians be tempted to change its course or be again drawn on the treachers.

While the volume of business is still below normal, inderate improvement is constantly noted, although the rate of progress is very different in the leading venters of trade. Aside from the idleness in the bituminous coal mines, which is not expected to be prolonged. April did not bring any serious labor disputes and many wage earners were enabled to resume work by accepting small reductions in pay. Sales of pig iron have been made at lower figures than at any time since the decline began, although regular quotations are nominally unchanged. Furnaces that have begun to accumulate stocks, however make concessions rather than reject offers. Some rinishing mills have also sought raw material more freely and the net result is a better tomage of pig iron, although it is estimated that little more than 50 per cent of the steel-making capacity is how in operation. Demand is still best for tin plate, with the wire and pipe trades next in point of activity, but the railways do not place much business, although small orders for rails are noted and many contracts for equipment are under consideration. Sharp competition for business in not place much business, although small orders for rails are noted and many contracts for equipment are under consideration. Sharp competition for business in light rails has produced lower prices in that line, but as a rule the level of quotations for finished steel products remains unaltered.

Textile conditions show moderate gains and lower prices are still expected by purchasers in numerous lines. This is the case as to both cotton and woolen goods, the decline in cotton and woolen goods encouraging the waiting attitude. Despite rumors of many Chinene inquiries it is not learned that any export orders have been placed, and it is believed that no cotton goods can be sold in that market unless much more attractive quotations are named. Fall buying is still light in the men's wear division of the woolen goods market, aithough inquiries are more numerous and the net result is favorable.

The increased interest of jobbers in the footwear market that was noted last week has not been maintained, manufacturers reporting less demand, and it is believed that pressing needs were satisfied. More activity occurred in the Boston leather market, chiefly in Union sole, but lower prices were named on lightweight stocks, which constituted most of the 20,000 to 80,000 sides purchased. Exports have increased shipments from this city last week running three or four times greater than has been the rule of late. Hides maintain the recent improvement in activity and prices, while some descriptions have made further gains.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE Business is Quiet and Industry is

norrow will say: is still curtailed, a stoppage of work by coal miners swells the number of idle workmen, collections are slow and although money is easy bankers complain that borrowing demand is light, this latter being a reflection of the lack of new business, and the absence of new enterprises. The movement of cross to market has been and the absence of new enterprises. The movement of crops to market has been checked by farmers turning their attention to the work of the approaching season. Retail buying, which opened well last season, has not held the gain throughout the week, owing to the cold wave visitation and the widespread effect of the coal miners' stoppage of work in the central west. Cold weather in the northwest has halted some spring trading. Southern trade has expanded, but is largely below normal. Jobbing trade the country over is quiet, filling in orders being of rather light volume, while fall trade is still backward and slow to expand. At the east there is a feeling among wholesalers that recent a feeling among wholesalers that recent reductions in many lines of cotton goods have brought values down to a reasonable working basis, and there is more doing in print cloths at the further price conces-sions. Export trade does not develop as order for cotton goods for China are not confirmed. Iron and steel are also reported rather less active for export owing to quiet in industry abroad. Other lines of manufac-turing industry show little change. There is perhaps a little more doing as a whole in some lines, but the offsets are so numerus as to prevent any decided change for

STEEL MEN ARE OPTIMISTIC Almost Without Exception They See Improvement Ahead in Business Lines.

NEW YORK, April 2.-Almost without exception the steel manufacturers who met in this city last night at a dinner given by Chairman E. H. Gary of the United States corporation, expressed the opinion that there had been a gradual though slow improvement in business, according to a statement made by Mr. Gary today. He said all those present at the dinner were optimistic concerning the future. Mr. Gary said no one was required to express any opinion concerning prices and very little was said on that score. He added, however, that so far as he knew there has not of late been any disposition on the part of any of the steel makers to change prices.
