CANDIDATES GETTING BUSY

Only Two Weeks Remaining in Which to File for the Primaries.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE MUCH SOUGHT

All of Present Deputies in the Field and Some Additional Entries Already Ready Booked—Other Places Not Overlooked.

With only two weeks more in which to file nomination papers for the primary elections in Pottawattamie county, candidates are becoming very busy securing the requisite number of signatures to their nomination papers which, for the county offices, have to be filed with County Auditor Cheyne not later than Saturday, May 2. There will be no lack of candidates for both the republican and democratic nominations for all of the county offices and, in fact, indications are that in the republican ranks there are many candidates for some of the offices that the chances for the nominations going to the convention appear to be good. This is especially true of the republican nomination for sheriff, for which there is at least seven candidates. It was stated yesterday by a prominent member of the recently organized Pottawattamie Progressive Republican league of Pottawattamie county, of which former Councilman Robert B. Wallace of this city is president, that the organization expected to place a full county ticket in the field within the next few days. The prohibitionists are also planning to name a full county ticket at the primary election. Dr. C. F. Dietz of Carson, chairman of the executive committee of the county prohibition organization, has been sent a complete set of nomination and filing papers by County Auditor Cheyne, at the former's request. The democrats at the conference last Tuesday in Avoca "suggested" a slate for the county offices and named candidates for all the nominations except for county superintendent of schools. Another county ticket was said to be being prepared in Neola, when the slate will be revised and filed out, it is said. At the primary on June 2 nominations will have to be made for all township offices throughout the county in addition to the regular county ticket. That is to say nominations for all township offices in each township for three trustees, two justices of the peace and two constables. For the county offices the following nominations are to be made: Treasurer, auditor, recorder, attorney, sheriff, clerk of district court at Avoca, and Henry Baber of Macedonia, county attorney. For the republican nomination for recorder the present candidates are J. N. Tollinger, deputy clerk of the district court at Avoca, and Henry Baber of Macedonia. County Attorney Hess is a candidate for re-nomination and will have as his opponent John Fletcher of Avoca, who is accredited with being the candidate of the Cummins faction. For the republican nomination for sheriff all the candidates are "Cunningham's" deputies and candidates and this includes A. J. Grace of Avoca and J. B. Matlack, the district court bailiff in Council Bluffs. C. Brindley of Walnut is also a candidate for this nomination as are G. Thomsen and Henry Baber of Macedonia. With so many candidates after the place it is probable the nomination will go to the convention. Assistant County Auditor Dillon Ross is at present the only candidate in the field for the republican nomination for clerk of the district court at Avoca. He has no opponent for re-nomination, but he has had to oppose E. R. Jackson's candidacy for re-nomination for county superintendent of schools. Dr. J. H. Gasson of this city is said to be a candidate for the nomination for coroner in opposition to Dr. V. L. Treynor, who, it is understood, would accept a re-nomination if he were not a candidate. Harry Shyne is a candidate for re-nomination for county surveyor and up to the present has no opposition. The terms of T. J. Johns, G. W. Spencer and Allen Bullis as members of the Board of Supervisors terminate at the end of this month and Spencer are candidates for re-nomination, but Bullis has not yet made any announcement. Other candidates are likely to appear in the field before the date for filing nomination papers.

Township Candidates.

R. T. Bryant, F. E. Deuel and J. L. Price have filed with the county auditor affidavits that they are candidates for the republican nomination for justice of the peace in Kans township, which includes the city of Council Bluffs. Deuel was an unsuccessful candidate for the nomination two years ago and Bryant held the office for two years. It is understood that J. K. Cooper and S. A. Greene, the present incumbents, will both be candidates for re-nomination. Captain Malby, constable in Justice Greene's court, is a candidate for re-nomination, and it is said that J. C. Baker, constable in Justice Cooper's court, will also seek re-nomination at the hands of the republicans. John Halle has announced his candidacy for re-nomination as one of the trustees of Kane township by the republicans.

Among the democrats, C. A. Plunkett has filed his nomination papers for coroner, and H. L. Robertson has done likewise for the nomination for county attorney. A Major G. H. Richmond, chief of police of this city, whose name was "suggested" at the democratic conference at Avoca for the party nomination for sheriff, stated yesterday that, while he appreciated the honor, he would not be a candidate.

For members of the Board of Supervisors the democrats are "suggesting" Uriah McLean of Minden, Dominick Gross of Pleasant township, John Maassen of Valley township, George Thomas of Boomer township and Frank Slump of Wright township, with Council Bluffs set to be heard from.

There was considerable talk in local democratic circles yesterday of Harvey O. Ouren being candidate for the party nomination for clerk of the district court. Mr. Ouren is a member of the bar and has filled the office of justice of the peace. Andrew Kastner of Walnut was "suggested" for this nomination at the Avoca conference.

Child Fatally Scaled.

BOONE, Ia., April 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kelly, living east of Boone, sat down backwards into a pair of scalding water. When the child was treated it dropped from the bones. The child's death is hourly expected.

New Methodist Church.

SHELANDOAH, Ia., April 17.—(Special.)—The Methodist congregation of this city has decided to build a new church building. The twenty-six members comprising the official board had a meeting and unanimously decided immediately to take steps in this direction. The local church has a membership of between 750 and 800 and is one of the very strongest in southwestern Iowa. Their membership was recently increased about 150 members because of the union revival meetings which were held in this city last month. The congregation is not only strong, but many of its members are rich. The new building that they will put up will cost in all likelihood in the neighborhood of $25,000.

Court Opens at Glenwood.

GLENWOOD, Ia., April 17.—(Special.)—Judge Thorne opened court here yesterday and the session promises to be a busy one. A large number of cases are set for trial and the trial jury will be here two weeks or more.

Meets and Marries Amity.

THOMAS J. Knott in district court today asked Judge Brennan to modify his divorce decree so that he could marry inside a year, stating as his reason that he had met his affiant and wished to marry her. The court granted the request.

Montana Flood Recedes.

HELENA, Mont., April 17.—The high water in the Missouri river north of this city, caused by the breaking of the Hauser lake power dam on Tuesday, has receded and the river is now about at its normal stage. Since the land on both sides of the river from Hauser Lake to Holler, the site of the proposed third dam, is a distance of more than twenty-five miles, is practically all owned by the Helena Power Transmission company, the probability is made from the damage to the structure, will be nominal.

Damage, Except to Dam, is Nominal and Railroad Service Will Be Resumed Saturday.

Attorney General Jackson Thinks He Has Sufficient Evidence to Convict.

ABILENE, Kan., April 17.—Evidence of a combination to fix insurance rates in violation of the Kansas anti-trust law has been developed here, according to Attorney General Jackson, who has just returned from an investigation of the Eldredge Fire Insurance company.

The Nails

What greater suffering can your feet endure than that which comes from an injured nail? It's frequently caused by pressure from above—from a cap that is built too low. This pressure may come at but a single point and yet be the cause of endless trouble. You won't find a Crossett cap like that—it is always shaped to give ample room.

HEARING UPON CIVIC BILL

Seth Low Appears in Behalf of Bill to Amend Anti-Trust Law.

LETTER FROM ANDREW CARNEGIE

Steel King Points Out Advantages in Proposed Change—New York Merchants Make Arguments Against Measure.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Hearings on national civic federation bill to amend the Sherman anti-trust law were continued today before Chairman Littlefield's subcommittee of the house judiciary committee. Seth Low, president of the federation, submitted amendments to his bill so altering its provisions that the Interstate Commerce commission, instead of the president and the commissioner of corporations shall be the arbitrator of all matters of reference, designation and decision which would arise under the operation of the bill Mr. Low said these amendments had been agreed upon as likely to meet and satisfy the most serious of the objections thus far urged against the federation's measure.

Mr. Low laid before the committee a letter from Andrew Carnegie, in support of the proposed changes. Mr. Carnegie's letter was written with the purpose of supporting the idea that authority should not be divided between the Interstate Commerce commission and other bodies and other officials, but before taking up that point he discussed other matters. He considered that it was necessary for the government to exercise control over common carriers engaged in interstate commerce and declared that this power should be lodged in the Interstate Commerce commission.

Mr. Division of Authority. Mr. Carnegie suggests that industrial concerns engaged in interstate traffic should be similarly controlled and proceeds:

I cannot too strongly advise against there being established a separate authority to consider such questions and that should be the Interstate Commerce commission. If common carriers of the country are to be controlled by corporations or another commission, there must arise invidious comparisons between the two.

Such comparisons will be publicly made. The party denied by this one takes more liberal views and vice versa and vent his feelings in the newspapers and the courts. The standing of both courts would be lowered. No reason why the interstate commission should be established in different phases. It is really one question, not two. We have seen, for instance, that the steel rail question is much upon a par with the common carrier, both being exceptional.

The point seems to be essential, without it little general progress can be made. It is not necessary to have a separate authority. The object sought?

In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred it will undoubtedly be to rob the community of its right to the benefits of free competition, disguise it as to obtain satisfactory results that the application is to cover an exceptional case. The conditions must be such that the measure is not a mere steel rail agreement.

It is not the application should be denied. If the measure is to be taken it is safeguarded, to ensure to consumers the results that competition will bring. Nothing is to be gained by this. That the combination is reasonable is not sufficient.

We are doing piecework just now, work that the vast union must do sooner or later, but the history of the supreme court should lead us to press forward. The Interstate Commerce commission has already made a much better start than the supreme court did.

Mr. Henry Towne, representing the Merchants' association of New York, opposed the federation bill.

"We business men," he said, "want a law which will define our rights, which will tell us what we may and what we may not do. The federation bill does not do this."

Quoting from notes adopted by the Merchants' association, Mr. Towne said: "The Interstate Commerce commission is suggestive of a national 'bargain counter,' where those desiring to conduct their business on certain lines may apply and negotiate their rates. When the decision would be invested in a minor employe and where opportunities and inducements for corrupt practices would be rampant. The change would imply the substitution of a bureaucracy for the judiciary as the source of authority and control and decision in regard to all of the vast interests at stake."

In conclusion Mr. Towne said that the best course for congress to pursue would be to appoint a competent commission, which, during the recess, shall collect evidence, study the problems and report its conclusions as a basis for constructive legislation during the session of congress which will begin next December.

GOLD IS HEADED TO EUROPE

Demand Not Heavy, but Tendency is to Make Engagements for Shipment.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Lazard Freres today engaged $1,000,000 in gold for shipment to Paris Saturday.

PARIS, April 17.—The gold engaged yesterday in New York was a purely commercial exchange operation, the Bank of France offered no inducements. International bankers in Paris say that a large amount of gold probably could be obtained now from America if the Bank of France was willing to give advances during transit, but the directors of the institution have thus far declined to do this, taking the position that the bank advanced gold during the recent stringency as a friendly act and it has no desire now to take back with one hand what it gave with the other.

The international banks say it is as yet too early to approximate the amount of gold which will be taken during the present movement. Should this movement continue, some of the gold obtained is likely to go to Germany, as the Imperial German bank is anxious to attract gold, and is offering to carry transit advances for a fortnight or even longer, but the direct exchange is unfavorable. Germany is therefore likely to enter the market for whatever gold comes from America.

ELEVEN DEATHS FROM FIRE

Nine Bodies Recovered From Debris at Chelsea and Two Persons Die of Injuries.

BOSTON, April 17.—Three more corpses were recovered today from the ruins of Sunday's fire in Chelsea, making the total number now recovered nine. In addition two persons have died this week of causes incident to the fire.

The bodies recovered today were those of Mrs. Minnie I. Fenwick, wife of Dr. J. B. Fenwick, one of the leading physicians of Chelsea; Mrs. Walter Barnes of Glenridge, niece of Mrs. Fenwick, and Miss Viola Boyce of Chelsea, a maid in the employ of the Fenwick family.

GIRLS WHO WORK

Girls who work for their living are especially exposed to the dangers of organic feminine disorders. Standing all day, or sitting in cramped positions; walking to and from their places of employment in bad weather all tend to break down their delicate feminine organism.

No class of women are in need of greater assistance, and thousands of letters like the following demonstrate the fact that restores the feminine system to a strong, healthy, normal condition.

Miss Abby F. Barrows, of Nelsonville, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was very sick, had dull headaches, pain in my back, and a feminine weakness. I had been to several doctors and they did me no good. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong, and I can do most any kind of work. I am in better health than I ever was, and it is all due to your medicine."

Miss Lillian Ross, of 530 E. 34th St., New York, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I had a female trouble, nervous headaches, and was tired all the time, and could not sleep. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me feel so much better that I hope every woman who suffers as I did will try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for feminine ills, and has positively cured thousands of women. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice.

Insurance rating bureau. Prosecutions will doubtless result. "We found conclusive evidence of existence of a combination among all union companies and many nonunion companies to use fixed rates," said the attorney general. "We proved that every agent gets his rates from Eldredge and we believe we have sufficient evidence to convict under the anti-trust laws."
