(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, May 15 .- (Special.) -- Scores f officers are making a vigorous search of Des Moines and the country surrounding for the assailant of Mrs. Mary Mann, a respected white woman of Des Moines. Rewards have been offered and information sent to all the towns surrounding Des Moines, and every train is watched.

The assailant was a negro, and the assault, coming so closely after that on Mrs. W. H. Risser by Lamont Frederick, has put the temper of Des Moines citizens on edge. The report of the grand jury today indicting Frederick for nothing out robbery, because of the assertion that there is no corroborative evidence of the assault, has not tended in any way to allay the feeling of indignation.

Mrs. Mary Mann is 50 years old and the mother of a family of five children. She was returning to her home when she was assaulted by a negro near the East Sixth street bridge, and dragged to some bushes a block away. She was not discovered until 2:30 this morning, when Dr. A. The woman was badly lacerated and biten by the negro. She was able to give a fairly good description of the man and a most rigorous search is being made today n the hopes of capturing him. There is an electric, light near the bridge where the man assaulted her, and this aided her in getting his description. The bridge is in the lower part of the city and on a thoroughfare not greatly traveled.

Along with this, the second assault by a negro on a white woman, within space of two weeks, came the announce ment today that Lamont Frederick, who is held for a similar assault on Mrs. W. H. Risser, had been indicted for robbery because the statutes provide that there must be corroborative evidence before con-
