Nebraska Sav. and Loan Assn, Board of Trade bldg. Equitable Life, Paul Morton, president. Follies eight drafts at maturity, H. D. Neely, Manager, Omaha. City Hall Closes Saturday—The city hall will be closed all day on Saturday, Memorial day. Several of the larger stores have agreed to close for one afternoon and the banks will be closed all day. Junk Sales Without License—Complaints were filed in police court Thursday against A. B. Alpern, 801 Farnam street, and Nathan Steinberg, 1015 Harney street, charging them with conducting a junk business without a license. Senator Patrick Has Smallpox—W. R. Patrick, state senator from Sarpy county, is confined at his farm near Papillion with what is supposed to be a mild case of smallpox. Dr. Betts of South Omaha, who is attending Mr. Patrick, says that he diagnoses the case as one of smallpox. L. W. Wakeley Not So Well Off—Surgeon in charge of L. W. Wakeley, general passenger agent of the Burlington, who was operated upon last Saturday for appendicitis, found it necessary to perform a second operation Thursday morning and his condition is now regarded as quite critical. Changes in Speakers' Program—Dr. Robert Eakidson will deliver the address to the pupils of Central school Friday instead of East Department Commander T. A. Creigh. Colonel Creigh is so overwhelmed with work that he had to ask to be relieved from making the address, as he had originally intended. Complaint of No License—Complaints were filed Thursday in police court charging the following with doing an express business without a license: John Tracy of the Tracy Transfer company, 107 Howard street; W. G. Sievers, 415 North Seventeenth street; C. L. McLeod, 140 Ohio street, and John Maggard, 173 Webster street. Imperial Council at St. Paul—Omaha and Nebraska members of the Order of the Mystic Shrine are making preparations to attend the session of the imperial council of the Ancient and Accepted Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine to be held in St. Paul, Minn., July 12 to 18. The Nebraskans will go to St. Paul by special train. Mr. J. A. Swanson and W. L. Songster, manager of the shoe department in the new store in King-Swanson company, left last night for the east. They will first visit all the leading shoe manufacturing centers and after ward join Mr. Al Swanson in New York to complete the clothing purchases. Mr. F. S. King and Charles W. Haden, buyer of hats and furnishings, will leave in a few days in the interests of those departments. Revival Services at the Lyric—Beginning on Saturday and continuing for a month, Evangelist Powell of Chicago will hold revival services at the Lyric theater twice each day. Afternoon service at 2 o'clock and night services at 8 o'clock. Powell will be assisted by teachers, preachers, evangelists and revivals from different sections during his season at the Lyric. False Alarm—Mrs. James Nelson, who lives upstairs at 297 North Seventeenth street, sent an hysterical call to the police Thursday morning, saying her 3-year-old child had drunk a cupful of gasoline. Police Surgeon Harris was on the scene promptly. Mrs. Nelson, being somewhat calmer, remembered that she had removed the gasoline from the cup and that the baby had not consumed it. Mrs. Manchester Buys Home—Mrs. Emma B. Manchester, supreme guardian of the Woodmen circle, has bought from the Byron Reed company the house at Thirty-fourth and Broadway streets, which that company is building for Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wharton. The sale was made by E. D. Wead and the price was $7,500. Mr. and Mrs. Wharton will take a house at Thirty-fifth and Dewey avenue. Amendment to Cemetery Law—Judge C. A. Baldwin will appear before the council in special session Friday morning in the interest of the ordinance governing burials. The judge has an amendment which he wishes enacted into law. Judge Baldwin was president of the Prospect Hill Cemetery association, and this amendment arises over the recent conviction of the superintendent of the cemetery for grave desecration. Grass That Not Go Into Sewers—William Hutton, superintendent of sewer work under the city engineer, gives notice that he intends to see to it that the ordinance prohibiting the throwing of grass in the sewers is obeyed, and if any more grass is thrown in them he will at once file complaints. Heavy rains wash the grass against the receptacles at the street corners and prevent the water from entering the sewers, causing the streets to be flooded. Prisoner Verdict, but in Vain—Sam Frensky when arrested was found to have on his person four cocaine boxes and two tubes of gum opium. This, however, did not daunt him in making a vigorous defense before the police bar. He pointed out that the poison receptacles were empty, but this was no score in his favor, since he might have consumed the contents. Then he said he was expecting his father in the city from Lincoln today. This also availed not. Thirty days. Mayor Will Sign to Out the Wires—Mayor Dahlman says he will sign the concurrent resolutions, passed by the council, providing for the demolition of conduits and the cutting of the wires and power-carrying electric wires. The mayor says he does not agree with the policy of demolishing, but as the procedure is merely a step to get the case into court to decide the status of the franchise held by the traction and electric light companies, he will sign the resolution and put it in effect. CARRINGTON TO VISIT HERE Old Commander of Eighteenth at Phil Kearney Will Stop in Omaha. Brigadier General Henry B. Carrington of Hyde Park, Mass., who was in command of the Eighteenth United States Infantry and post of Fort Phil Kearney, at the time of the massacre of Colonel Fetterman's command of nearly a hundred men near that fort in December, 1884, has written to some of his old command in Omaha relative to his probable visit to Omaha. General and Mrs. Carrington will be the guests of the city at the Sheridan, Wyo., "Fort Phil Kearney" Massacre Reunion, which is to be given in that city July 3 and 4. General Carrington writes: "Four suggestions that we stop over a day at Omaha for rest was very kind and thoughtful. I am sure I will undertake, too much, being now in my 84th year, and yet it would be pleasant to meet you. At any rate, if we do not stop over while going out, we can meet you, shake hands and arrange perhaps for a stop on our return. Sincerely yours, HENRY B. CARRINGTON. Brigadier General, U. S. A."

MANY MEMORIAL DAY EVENTS

Omaha Will Pay Tribute in Several Ways to Patriots. COMPLETE LIST OF CEREMONIES Young and Old Veterans Will Jointly Celebrate and Be Honored in Various Exercises Friday and Saturday. Friday morning and afternoon veterans of the civil and Spanish-American wars will deliver addresses to the respective public and some of the parochial schools. Grand post, Women's Relief corps, at 4 p. m. to proceed to Forest Hill cemetery to prepare flowers for Memorial day. Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic will meet at 2 p. m. Friday to arrange flowers for graves of soldiers with flowers. Saturday, Memorial day, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic meet at Forest Hill cemetery to proceed to Forest Law cemetery to decorate graves of soldiers at monument. At 9 a. m. details and committees from Grand Army posts and Women's Relief corps will proceed to various cemeteries to decorate graves of soldiers with flowers. At 9:30 a. m. details from Camp Lee Forby and Florence I. Crane auxiliary will proceed to different cemeteries to decorate graves of soldiers of that war. At 10 p. m. parade of Grand Army of the Republic and National Guard, Thurston Rifles and mail carriers forms at Capitol avenue and Sixteenth street and will march to Auditorium, headed by Sixteenth United States Infantry band, where general exercises of the afternoon will be held. At 5 p. m. Spanish-American war veterans will hold special memorial services at Hanson park. At 5 p. m. ceremony of decorating the waters in memory of the dead American soldiers who were buried at sea, east of Douglas street, under auspices of Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic—Sunday at 2:30 p. m. memorial services in honor of the dead of Company L, First Nebraska at the monument in Prospect Hill cemetery. Observance Will Be General. The observance of Memorial day in Omaha on Saturday promises to be general. The Grand Army of the Republic has for the first time abandoned the idea of a general parade out of deference to the increasing years of the veterans of the Civil war who do not feel equal to the physical task of undertaking a parade. The usual details will be sent from the different Grand Army posts and Women's Relief corps to the several cemeteries, to decorate the graves of soldiers buried therein with flowers. A short parade will be given, forming at Sixteenth street and Capitol avenue, in which such of the old veterans as feel physically able will participate, with Company L, First Nebraska United States Infantry, the High School cadet battalion and the Mail Carriers' battalion, will march from there headed by the Sixteenth United States Infantry band to the Auditorium where the general exercises of the afternoon will be held. The several Women's Relief corps and the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic will join with the parade at Fifteenth and Howard streets. Same as at Hanson Park. The services in the Auditorium will be the same as those heretofore observed at Hanson park. They will include the decoration of the monument to the unknown dead, under the rituals of the Grand Army of the Republic and Women's Relief corps. A large number of children from the public schools will participate in this impressive ceremony. The platform exercises will embrace music and the formal oration by John L. Webster. The address will occupy about forty-five minutes in its delivery. At 5 o'clock the impressive ceremonies of decorating the waters in memory of the American soldier and sailor dead buried at sea will be carried out at the river bank under the Douglas street bridge under the auspices of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic. The address will be delivered by Nelson C. Pratt, who will give a brief sketch of the origin of the custom. The ceremony will comprise the launching of a large boat, loaded with flowers on the Missouri river. The United States navy detachment at Omaha on recruiting duty will superintend the launching of the boat. An invitation is extended to the general public to attend these ceremonies as well as to all patriotic organizations. Exercises of Young Vets. The Spanish-American war veterans will hold special memorial services at Hanson park during the afternoon, beginning at 2:30, and will be assisted in the ceremony by their women's auxiliary. H. B. Fleharty of South Omaha will be the orator of the afternoon for these services. Memorial Address. Rev. Addison E. Knickerbocker, of St. Duat-Abide, will deliver the memorial address at Hanson park. Mr. Navin, Mr. O'Neil, General Charles Morton, U. S. commanding Department of the Missouri, Gen. America. By all present. Salute by firing squad from company L, Thurston Rifles, First Nebraska. Taps. INTEREST IN PRESBYTERY

Action on the Consolidation and the C. B. A. Controversy. FOUR CHURCHES MAY UNITE Report is Current that Plymouth Congregation May Also Go into the Presbyterian Consolidation. Much interest centers in the adjourned meeting of the Presbytery of Omaha at the First Presbyterian church next Tuesday night. Two important matters will come before that meeting. One will be the Third church situation and the other the proposition of consolidation, involving the Second and Knox churches and Church of the Covenant. The season of the presbytery is held at this time primarily to hear the report of the committee on the Third church affair, which was brought up at the regular meeting of the presbytery April 29 at Tekamah. At that meeting the presbytery voted strongly to disapprove the action of the session of the Third Presbyterian church of Omaha in establishing a household of the so-called Christian Benevolence association, out of which grew the resignation of the pastor, Nelson C. Pratt, Ph. D. The presbytery then adjourned, to meet June 2 and hear the report of the Third church, whose congregation was cited to appear and give cause for not accepting the resignation of its pastor. This is merely the formal method of stating the matter directly before the presbytery for final action. Dr. Pratt's resignation was not accepted by his church, and since he has reiterated that the Christian Benevolence association was the prime cause which led to his resigning, the statement of the congregation will serve to open up the matter for ultimate disposition. The Bee has been advised by several prominent Presbyterian clergymen and laymen that there is no prospect of presbytery reversing itself on this matter. Probe May Go Deeper. Whether the probe will be inserted any further than into Third church affairs is not now known. Of presbytery at Tekamah George F. Bidwell made the statement that he, as a member of the session of the First church, which has permitted the establishment of a Christian Benevolence household, had submitted a formal written protest to the presbytery. There are others in that church who are openly opposed to this institution and who stand with Mr. Bidwell. It is believed presbytery will heartily sanction the consolidation plans of these churches, since the sentiment in the Second and Knox churches is an overwhelmingly in favor of it, and the best interests of Presbyterism seem to warrant the movement. Since this consolidation matter was first proposed there is some talk that Plymouth Congregational church will be included in the union. If this is done, the amalgamation of these four churches will make the largest and strongest Protestant church in Omaha with a combined membership of something over 1,000. A new edifice, of course, would be erected. Rev. F. W. Leavitt, pastor of Plymouth church, has resigned and will soon leave Omaha to become principal of Franklin academy. C. D. HUTCHINSON GETS HURT Throws Under Buggy When Shaft Breaks and Sustains Injuries. C. D. Hutchinson, 641 Seward street, a real estate dealer in the Patterson block, was severely injured in a runaway at Twentieth and Farnam streets Thursday morning. One of the shafts of the buggy broke, frightening the horse and causing it to overturn the buggy. Mr. Hutchinson and his son Lester, 4628 Nicolae street, were thrown out in the pavement. At first Mr. Hutchinson thought he was not injured and went to his office. Later he began to feel bad and went home. It is feared he may be hurt internally. His son was not seriously injured.

WOOL READY FOR THE RATES

Several Carloads Start with Storage-in-transit Tariffs. TRADE FROM AS FAR AS UTAH One Hundred and Fifty Men Are at Work Rushing the Construction of the Big Omaha Warehouse. Thursday was the date that the railroads had set for the storage in transit rates on wool through Omaha to get into effect and several cars of wool in Wyoming were ready to move. Inquiries for data on the new wool market are coming in so fast that a force of clerks is required to handle the correspondence. H. C. King is still in Wyoming and he is counseling shipper after shipper to have the wool shipped to Omaha. Some idea of the enormity of the business may be gained from one transaction of the new market. W. B. Sleeper of Metcete, Wyo., has 3,000,000 pounds of wool which he writes he wants to send to the Omaha market if satisfactory arrangements can be made. The arrangements which the new warehouse is able to offer are the most satisfactory to be obtained anywhere, so the wool will soon be enroute to Omaha. This wool is now in storage at Metcete and the Omaha warehouse will have to advance all the railroads rate on it, which in this case amounts to $7,000. The banks will also be asked to advance money on this same wool, so that good money will be put in circulation by these deals. Utah wool is also headed for Omaha. It is not really on the cars, but arrangements are being made for a considerable portion of the Utah wool to be shipped to the Omaha market. Over 150 men are employed in pushing the construction of the Omaha warehouse and the builders say they will have the roof on by Monday in time to receive any wool which might be headed this way under the new rates. So numerous are the inquiries concerning the rates and other details of the new warehouse that the local promoters are now figuring on having about 3,000,000 pounds of wool to handle. Although the new warehouse is being built with a capacity of 15,000,000 pounds, the directors of the new company are already figuring where they can secure additional storage space when the wool begins to come to Omaha. MAYOR HAS THE LAST WORD

Gets Photographure of Lincoln as the Flirt to the Whiskers Dispute. Mayor Dahlman hopes at last to write the word "finis" to the controversy over the statue to Abraham Lincoln by the children of the Omaha High school on the campus of the school. The mayor has received from W. J. Lack of Adrian, Mich., a photographure of the martyred president which shows him without a beard. The engraving is a large colored chromo and was made by a New York concern prior to the election of 1867, and on the bottom is printed: "Abraham Lincoln, Republican Candidate for 28th President of the United States." It is an excellent likeness and shows a much younger face than is commonly seen. "I think this ought to settle the unseemly whisker dispute," says the mayor. "It does not seem reasonable that Lincoln should grow a beard during the campaign for president any more than I should grow hair on the top of my head during my campaign for governor. This picture shows him as he was during the campaign and he is counseling shipper after shipper to have the wool shipped to Omaha. Some idea of the enormity of the business may be gained from one transaction of the new market. W. B. Sleeper of Metcete, Wyo., has 3,000,000 pounds of wool which he writes he wants to send to the Omaha market if satisfactory arrangements can be made. WORK ON COURT HOUSE NOW

Operations Do Not Have to Await the Sale of Bonds, Says English. Work on the new courthouse may begin any time without waiting for the sale of the bonds voted at the special election, according to an opinion given Chairman Kennard of the county board by County Attorney English. The opinion was in response to a query as to whether it would be necessary to wait until the bonds had been sold before letting contracts for grading down the site of the proposed building. The opinion states contracts can be let in anticipation of the sale of the bonds, but without waiting for their actual sale. The opinion also says that no part of the money voted for the new court house can be used for the erection of a temporary jail to be occupied while the court house is being built. This expense must be provided out of regular county funds. The board is now securing proposals for temporary jail quarters, but no action will be taken until Commissioner Ure returns from his eastern trip. Spanish War Veterans, Attention! You are cordially invited to meet and participate in memorial services with Lee Forby camp, U. S. W. V., May 30. Assembly at hall, 1329 Farnam St. 1:30 p. m.

Your Health Depends on Your Refrigerator. Zinc lined refrigerators cause disease because zinc corrodes and the oxides poison milk and food. Children are especially liable to sickness caused by refrigerator poisoned milk—yet few people think to lay the blame where it belongs. McCray Refrigerators Opal Glass, Tile, or White Wood Lined are the best refrigerators built, anywhere or by any body. The McCray Patent System of Refrigeration gives such a perfect circulation of pure, cold, "DRY" air that you can keep SALT or MATCHES in a McCray Refrigerator without getting damp. McCray Refrigerators are built in all sizes for residences, clubs, hotels, hospitals, grocers, markets, florists, etc. Why Not Call and let us show you the McCray Refrigerators and tell you why they are superior.
