of Boards.

Rev. Dr. P. J. Maveety, field secretary

as the additional secretary of the Freed-men's Aid society authorized by this gen-

The report from the committee on episco

Dr. Smith, who has been elevated to the Secretaries were returned as follows:

Dr. Robert Porbes, board of home mis-tions and church extensions; Dr. McB.

Dr. David Downey was chosen sepretary of the Sunday schools and Dr. Joseph B.

Hingeley secretary of the board of con-

DELAGRANGE IS ABLE TO FLY

Aeroplane Record Beaten by Aeronaut at Rome-Wright Says

He Has Beaten It.

ROME. Nay 31.-Delagrange, the areonaut, beat the world's aeroplane record today, flying 12,750 meters and remaining in

ALLEN DENIES GETTING MONEY

Funds Were Received from

T. F. Ryan.

LINCOLN. Neb., May M.-T. S. Allen.

committee today denied the report that $29,000 had been contributed by Thomas F.

contributed $20,000 to a fund to support a

Mr. Ryan gave his check to William F time. It is asserted that the donors of support to the candidacy of Alton B. Park-

March to Cemetery, Dies While

Playing "Dead March."

seat in a carriage, as it was feared the long walk would be too much for him.

After reaching the cemetery he started to ing for the Burlington railway on bridges.

Priday morning were set upon by a local gang of toughs and Goff was stabbed just below the heart. He was cared for and last evening was taken to his home at Auburn.

is a serious one. Seven local characters were arrested and four are in full at the Ex-Lincoln Man Legars Theater.

father for five years.

Too proud to admit his falling strength,

ing the campaign."

shortly afterwards.

this fund expected that Mr. Bryan would.

campaign in Nebraska in the fall of 1904.

Mason (colored), Freedmen's Ald society, and Dr. E. M. Randall, Epworth league.

sequetary of the same board.

missions and church extension.

were adopted without debate.

boards.

cpiscopacy

All re-elections.

office 'n New York City.

A Paper for the Home

SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 31, 1908-SIX SECTIONS-THIRTY-TWO PAGES.

SINGLE COPY FIVE CENTS.

ACTUAL IRISH RULER SUMMARY OF THE BEE BOOSTERS OUT LATE

Sunday, May 31, 1908.

1908 -MAY- 1908

STN' MON THE WED THE HE SET

10 11 12 13 14 15 16

17 18 19 20 21 22 23

% 25 26 27 28 29 30

THE WEATHER.

Hour.

5 a. m .....

6 a. M.....

TA Missassessan

at Omaha:

Empr. of Britain

Tunislan

Baltic

Temperature

.Ls Thursine

Address.

SPENCER, Neb., May 30.-(Special Telemet the special train from the west which brought Mr. Bryan to the city. He was at once escorted to an especially constructed paying a tribute to the veterans of the Patriotism and Sacrifice.

"Patriotism is love of country and sacriment of the people, by the people and for once, said the farmers must stand together and protect themselves from the drones of society who produce nothing but laws. Bismarck was right. There is a legislative

The program arranged for the remainder of the day was an elaborate one, and with pleasure of the many visitors. Three bands, one from Bristow and two from

BRYAN DENIES PARKER STORY

Talked on Subject.

NORFOLK, Neb., May 30 .- in an interview today with a representative of the Assonisted Press William J. Bryan reiterated

Judge Parker teing chairman of the res-slutions committee at the Denver conven-

"The report is without foundation," said

Mr. Bryan. "I have not discussed the should be chairman of the resolutions com-

any person on that subject."

mittee. I have had no communication with

HELD FOR ABANDONING BABES

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hill Arrested for

Not Caring for Pair of Twins.

For the alleged descrition of their twin

Mrs. Bert Hill were arrested by Officer to obtain employment as cooks. The couple a day or two. The babies were taken ill and being unable to care for them. Mrs.

authorities, and it is now thought they Both mother and father of the children

leny any intention to desert the children to obtain employment so as to be able to fare for them. They stated that they returned from Newman Grove, Neb., where Hill had been employed ten days, and were will not live.

juventle court officers.

this city, furnished the music.

crop than any other plow.

entertained at dinner.

which were addressed by W. J. Bryan.

gathering for the city.

Treasury Remembrancer Holds Purse Strings of Island.

LITTLE HEED PAID TO HIS COMING People Find Soon Enough He Has 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Been Among Them.

DECREES ROBBERY OF TAXPAYERS Says Absolutely What Money Shall Be

Taken to England. MISER'S PECULIAR LIFE STORY

Amasses Large Sum by Money Lending and Leaves Legucies for Borrowers and Money for Charity.

DUPLIN: May M .- (Special.)-Little notice has seen taken either in Irish or the Eng. MOVEMENTS OF OCEAN STEAMSHIPS. lish press, of the important fact that a new governor has been installed in Ireland. All SOSTON that has appeared in fact, has been a general short armouncement that Mr. Hewby of QUEENSTOWN Clapham, London, has been appointed readury remembrancer for Ireland and HAVRE has assumed his duties. There was no = guard of honor to meet him at the quay on BRYAN SPEAKS AT SPENCER his arrival and escort him to his hotel. No. admiring deputations waited on him to welcome him to his new kingdom. Mr. Hewby Boyd County Citizens Turn Out Well himself did not seem to expect any of these formalities. He simply jumped into a cab and drove to an hotel and the next day

It has been popularly supposed that the lord lieutenant or the chief secretary, or perhaps even the chief commissioner of police or the general commanding the Irish district, was the real governor of ireland. None of these highly ornamental officials, however, has half the real power of Mr. Hewby, and Mr. Hewby wears neither a uniform nor a cocked hat and influential connections. But he holds the grand stand, where he spoke for an hour power of the purse, and it is his duty to and a half. He confined his remarks to the superintend the plundering of Ireland for the benefit of the English treasury, made his appearance in a small room in Dublin castle and began to govern Ire-

Mr. Hewby Financial Agent. The treasury remembrancer is the representative of the English treasury in Ire- fice the language of love," said Mr. Bryan Band. The lord lieutenant cannot employ in his oration. Those men who fell in an extra gold-laced footman at the castle, hattle and gave their lives and those men ner the chief secretary a junior clerk with- who passed through the horrors of war plant. The boosters will be home tomorrow through which the residences and floors ated in the senate by the report, this time, plantsts, was informed teday that Leon out Mr. Hewby's consent. If the commis- and live offered their lives, and both were on schedule time. sioner of police wants half-a-dozen more patrictic and both were ready to sacrifice constables he must ask Mr. Hewby and life for a nation's welfare. the commanding general, even, must come "This day has been set apart for the to him if he wants extra barrack accom- commemoration of the services of those natural resources of Fremont. Natrona and bridges were swept away. modation. Mr. Hewby is the man who ad- who have served their country in war. It and Converse counties in Wyoming are STANTON, Neb., May 30.—(Special.)-A Justs the delicate financial relations be- is a beautiful custom and on each anni- developed and the wealth of the mountains severe hall and electrical storm visited tween England and Ireland, and who de- versary the floral tributes laid upon the and ranges enters the channels of com- the southern part of this county about 5 cides what share of the taxes paid by the graves of the dead and the words spoken by merce the trade of Omaha will be in- o'clock Thursday afternoon. The hall was frish people shall be devoted to Irish pur- the living give testimony to the gratitude creased by a percentage so large that the worst ever experienced in that section. poses, and what share shall go to which we feel toward those who gave the only those who saw the country Friday Windows were broken and crops entirely tighter taxationic England. The royal com- full measure of their devotion to their would now believ such a thing possible, cut off and pounded into the ground, an mission, which sal in 1854, said then that country's cause.

To the trade excursionists who finished that the fields had the appearance of not we were taxed about $15,050,000 a year more than our share. Then we paid about 20 30 cease when the veterans have answered to smokers and big receptions in Casper per year a head, and now the amount has the last roll call. I am glad that love of Friday another thing was apparent, the the farm of Commissioner Edward Daniels. grown to about $11. One of Mr. Hewby's country can be portrayed in time of peace. Wyoming sheep comes nearer being the duries will be to see that the growth continuse. He decides each year what proportion of the taxation raised from excise come when our differences can be settled Wioming proceeds, there will be no fewer visited by hall yesterday are exceptionally duttes abuil be devoted to local purposes. In England the local authorities receive back $100 for every $600 raised by excise shall have arrived there will yet be ample all the territory along the line of the axes, while in freland the local authorities opportunity for each citizen to give of his Northwestern from Omaha clear to Lanreceive only 510. There are a number of devotion to his government and his fellow der, is betrothed to the market at Omaha. other little matters like that, all of which liven. will be in charge of Mr. Hewby. It is Gettysburg should resolve that a governsonage was so slighted on his arrival in his Fate of Money Lender. A remarkable story of the life and death government, resting upon the people's will,

is a mileer and money lender, who, how- is only good when the people make it good; ever, was never accused of undue hardness it will be bad if the people permit it to beto his creditors, has just been told in the come bad. Government is an enormous ublin courts in the attempt to upset the machine. il of the late "Banker" Patterson of lisburn. Patterson, who died early this when so turned it can be manifestly profitear, left about $200,000, all of which had able to those who are in charge of it. Bisbeen amassed by money lending. He began life as a hand loom weaver and soon began to lend small sums, charging a uniorm rate of interest of I cents a week for every 25 cents. Soon he was able to give up his weaving and devote himself to his money-lending business. watch he conducted with great skill and threwdness, although he was quite illiterate. An he became richer he extended the Coffey, where he and a large company was scope of his business, lending money to farmers , and merchants. He invariably inspected and valued the security himself. His will, which was the subject of the contest, was characteristic of the man-He left legacies to all those who owed him money at the time of his death, on condition that they paid up promptly when the debt was due, and the residue of his estate, subject to a life interest for his aged sister, was left to various churches and Reiterates Statement He Has Not charitable organizations. The will was contested by his brother, but after most of the leading rasidents of Lasburn had testified that the old man was eminently sane and shrewd to the last the document | the statement made yesterday relative to was upheld:

Leprechaun Plays Harp.

The leprechaun, whose appearance near Killough, County Westmeath, I reported weeks ago, has been seen several chairmanship of the resolutions committee times again by the children of the local school. The last time he had abandoned his traditional little red cost and peaked hat and was dressed in white and was playing on a harp. At least a dozen childress declare positively that they saw him and the teacher of the local school frankly admits that he is puzzled. "I have never known these children to lie," he says. "and I am sure they have seen something. but what it is I do not know. They have taken me out to see the leprechaun sevecal times, but he has always dodged up. although the children have declared with every appearance of sincerity that they saw him when they were with me and have tried to point him out to me."

A much-needed effort to popularize Ireby the Irish Hotel and Tourist association. which has just been meeting in Dublin. Leland is rich in places of natural beauty. but little effort is made to bring people see them, and when tourists do come ry find in most cases that the accommodation is so bad that they do not pay a return visit. Switzerland and the Isle of and say they were trying, when arrested, Man neither of which has any natural antages over Ireland, make large sums association decided to undertake a campaign of advertisement for Ireland's natural beauties in England and on the con-(Continued on Fifth Page.)

Arrested at Douglas for Violating the Provisions of the Curfew Law.

WYOMING MEN HAVE THEIR FUN

Several Other Counts in the Indictment Against the Omahans.

CONVICTED ON ALL OF THEM

Omaha Mayor's Office.

WINDUP OF THE TRIP A HUMMER

Men from the Ranges and Towns of Wyoming Certainly Show Trav-10 a. m. ..... 52 elers the Time of Their Lives.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DOUGLAS, Wyo., May 30.-(Special Telegram.)-Arrested in Douglas and taken to the city limits where the vigilance committee will complete its work before sunset the boosters for Omaha had probably the best time on the entire trip. The charges were:

Violating the curfew law, which probits boys being abroad after midnight. Disturbing the peaceful sleep of our gens by blowing the fire alarm. "Robbing the Douglas roosters.

Leaving and bringing vagrants in the "Disposing of property without value;

towit: One ancient, worthless gentleman gram.)-Though the air was chilly, the mule The entire police force turned out to meet spirit and hearts of the people were warm at the Memorial day exercises here today, the train, seventy-five men wearing big ROSALIE SUFFERS FROM FLOOD tin stars and carrying wagon spokes. Judge Slaghammer presided and court was called Rain, Hail and Wind Does Heavy An immense throng was in the city for to order on the main street of the town, the occasion, the widely advertised meeting where the prisoners registered and entered drawing from the entire county a record their pleas. The first sentence passed was condemning At 9:45 o'clock a number of automobiles mercy," were heard, the judge promptly over all outbuildings and many poorly con-

which was as follows:

The crowd stopped at Fisher, where they saw a twenty-machine sheep shearing

Out Where the Wool Grows. The celebration of this day will not their fifth day by attending dances, having been sown. During the storm heat-It does not need a baitlefield as a canvas, national bird than the codfish, and as the downpour of rain. and I confidently hope that the time will metamorphosis of the stock industry in of the sword. But when this glad day the mutton and wool will be added. And Between Biverton and Casper the ex-"Lincoln said that those assembled at cursionists saw some thirty carneds of wool billed to Omaha and all along the line sheep men promised every pound to the warehouses now being constructed in The resolve should be made by each generation and must be kept, for a people's meet the party and show the excursionists something of the resources of the country States. and King said he now has a number of "It can be turned against the people, and marck, addressing the farmers of Germany plow. It runs deeper, turns over more ground and cultivates a more profitable his sheep shearing pens at Wolton Friday afternoon, said: "I will have some-Mr. Bryan, after the speaking, was thing like half a million pounds for Omaha The assembly decided that synods should escorted to the home of ex-Senator C. J. this year."

> Omaha next week." Wool for Omaha.

Colorado Patton of Patton & Milton, ready to start for Omaha Monday morning. With such an encouraging business outclearing skies, it was carried out to the look. a perfect of sunshine following eight days of rain, which made the trip clean across the plains with the party of to a man. The train did not reach Lander until 10 o'clock, several hours late, because of the soft roadbed and the necessity of running slow through the night. But returning from Lander the North > made ten stope boosters, a commercial club of the most small in comparison. The women, who or-Omaha Commercial club and committee Commercial club of men had a reception charge of the reception and the men were given little attention. What the Women Did.

Only a year ago the women of Lander resolved on three things. They have the s-weeks-old battles ten days ago, Mr. and right to vote and they proposed to raise the saloon license from $1,000 per year to Jackson Friday evening in an employ- $1,000 city and $300 county. They voted and ment agency office, where both were trying elected Mayor Johnson on the higher license platform. Beventeen saloons left the children with Mrs. Snyder, 433 dwindled to about eight. Then the women was sent to the women boosters of Lander: waiting for a position at the employment we appreciated your reception, and want agency when picked up by the police. They will be held to await the action of the lars is deposited for you in the Omaha Na-

(Continued on Fifth Page.)

NEW TOWN IN TRIPP COUNTY CONGRESS Winona, Well Favored Place, Destined to Be Chief City in New

Country.

GREGORY, S. D., May 20.-(Special.)-Nednesday, June 2 is the date of the openng lot sale at Winona, the new town in Tripp county. Wisona is located eleven miles west of Dallas on the survey of the Chicago & Northwestern railway extension and is surrounded by hundreds of acres of Senate Passes Currency Bill Late in fertile farm lands and blessed with a boun tiful supply of pure soft water. It seems destined to be the central trading point of Tripp county. It has for its promoters Chris Colombe, W. H. Tackett, H. F. Slaughter and W. A. Meserve, careful, con Pardons Come Quicker Than from servative business men who are well acquainted with South Dakota land and have chosen wisely in their selection of the new townsite. The members of the townsite company have their headquarters at Gregory for the present and are daily receiving letters ofof lots. However, no offer will be considered until June 2, when the lots will be sold at public auction to the highest hidder. The Tripp county opening, which in all probability will not be later than October of this year, will throw open for settlement thousands of acres of land, and it will be a great advantage to the settlers. to have a well-established town like Winona as a trading point.

A special excursion train will leave Norfolk on the afternoon of June I and arrive in Gregory on the same evening. Arrangements have beens made for entertaining the crowds while in Gregory and conveying them to Winons. At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, June 1. conveyances will leave Gregory for Dallas for the lot sale, returning at 6 that evening. The Nebraska State band of Creighton has been secured to furnish the music and an Indian burbecue and war dance will be feafures of the pecember. The result rame unexpectedly Damage in the Northern Town.

ROSALIE, Neh., May M .- (Special.) -- Rosahe whole crowd and ordering them to live lie and vicinity Thursday evening suffered the worst hallstorm and cloudburst in its When cries of "hang us!" "Have some history. A hard wind during the time blew ordered the crowd hanged at the city's structed sheds. Gardens are completely ruined and the winter wheat is damaged A telegram was read from Pat Sullivan one-half. It is hard to determine what amount of damage is done to the spring CASPER, Wyo.—To Mayor Collins: Understand you have arrested the Omaha bunch. Turn them loose; they have not a cent left. We have got it all.

PAT SULLIVAN. bariey and oats fields are bare. Every bariey and outs fields are bare. window light on the west and north of the buildings was knocked out, leaving openings were flooded. The slough between the town and depot, which is ordinary rains CASPER, Wyo., May 36.-(Special Tele- is ten feet wide, was 700 feet wide and be prepared to assist the filibuster with a He manifested considerable interest in this gram.)-Without question when the vast looked like a river. All sidewalks, fences ning struck and damaged the windnill on In places corn was washed out by the Crop prospects outside of the district by reason rather than by the arbitrament cattle for the markets of the world, but good throughout the county. Corn is generally a good stand, but dry weather is now needed for its cultivation.

PRESBYTERIANS ON LAST DAY Decide Not to Ally Themselves with Any Particular Temperance

Omaha. W. Charles, H. King, J. A. KANSAS CITY, May 30.-Belated resolu-Roberson, L. A. Shawer and D. N. Hale, tions and unfinished business occupied this, all of Sheshord, drave thirty-five miles to the last day of the 196th general resembly

Movement.

Moderator Fullerton was made chairman solicitors at work for the Omaha market, of the executive commission and Stated They are getting the wool. We are Clerk Roberts was elected secretary. The sending a man over to the Billings and other members elected include ex-Secretary Basin lines of the Burlington where we of State John W. Foster of Washington.

will get 3,000,000 pounds for storage in In the case of the union of the Circumnat! churches the assembly voted against a review of the case. That action left the J. A. Dolfelder, who accompanied the decision of the judicial commission, that party to Lander and showed the visitors the union of the churches was legal and should be sustained, as the final judgment of the assembly.

not ally themselves with anti-saloon leagues or other non-ecclesizationl organizations. sheep ranchers, said he had eight carioads nothwithstanding their sympathy with the movements such organizations represent.

MILLER SUES ENGLISH PAPERS boosters, the party is in the best of spirits Former Consul Brings Suit for Publications Growing Out of Mac Wood Case.

PARIS, May 20 .- J. Martin Miller, former American consul at Rheims and who was western officials put the train over the mentioned in the suit recently brought in the conference report and that under the rails and reached Casper at 7:35 p. m., one New York by Mne C. Wood against Senahour and fifteen minutes late, and having for Platt for divorce, has instituted suits yea and may vote would be taken. This day exercises fell to the ground while play-Lander people gave the Omahans such a London Dally Mail and the edition of the reception as they have not experienced on London Daily Mail published in Paris. He the final touch to the met important legisthe 2,200-mile trip. It was by the women claims $30,000 daranges from each paper for injury to his business reputation in original kind, and which makes a similar Europe on account of the publication by the organization of men in Lander appear journals of certain matters alleged to have come out during the hearing of the Woodand have not consented that Judge Parker ganized the club a year ago, met the party Platt case. The papers printed the subat the station, taking the officers of the stance of Mr. Miller's alleged statement produced by Miss Wood in court. Both chairmen, together with newspaper men the French and English laws are very for drives about the city in carriages. The severe against publications involving de famation of character. in the club rooms, but the women had fought a sham battle on the County club the roll he demanded that it stopbid goodbys to the party when the train cadets acted so ladly they brought dispulled out a fund was started to help the grace on the others. Two of them burely women pay for the park. When the train escaped kring shot Thursday night while reached Riverton the committee, consisting wrecking and stealing the large thermomof W. L. Yetter, Dave O'Brien and A. C. ster in front of Dahl's jewelry more. Mr. Scott, reported, and the following telegram Dahl happened to be up and shot three times at the thieves as they ran away from his place of business. They wrecked two street cars and were continually looked of "no" or "yes" in order to move a reafter by the police. They will not be invited to some back.

CADETS GET INTO TRCUBLE Barely Escape Getting Shot at Nebraska City While Stealing Street Thermometer.

Both Houses Vote to Adjourn Shortly Before Midnight.

FILIBUSTER AT

LA FOLLETTE BREAKS RECORD

the Afternoon.

Wisconsin Senator Holds Floor Nearly board of education, which will have its Nineteen Hours.

SPEAKS SIX STONE

fering flattering prices for the first choice He is Followed by Mr. Gore, Who Talked for Two Hours, After Which the Vote Was Taken.

BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, May 35.-The senate passed a resolution for adjournment sine die at 11:50 p. m. A similar resolution was passed by the house,

WASHINGTON, May 30,-At 4:30 this afternoon the senate adopted the report of the conferees of the two houses of congress on the Aldrich-Vreeland emergency currency bill by the declaive vote of 43 to 22 and thus was taken the last congressional step necessary toward the enactment of emergency currency legislation, the legislation towards which congress has directed its principal effort since it convened last soon, but not until the senate had been well worn out by a fillibusier, while not largely supported, made up in intensity what it lacked in numbers.

The obstructive tactics were begun by Senator La Pollette, republican, of Wis- ference, both new bodies, consin, when the report was taken up by the senate yesterday and being prosecuted for secretaries of the board of foreign by him all night, was continued today by Senator Stone, democrat, of Missouri and tional secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Senator Gore, democrat, of Oklahoma, Mr. acciety. La Follette broke the record as a long distance speaker, having spoken eighteen hours and forty-three minutes. Mr Stone held the floor for six hours and a half, almost without interruption, and Mr. Clore spoke for something more than two Threat from Jeff Davis.

It looked for a time as if the fillbusters might be able to continue their tactics well the air 15 minutes and 25 seconds. inte. If not through the night, and during PARIS, May 20.-Wilbur Wright, one of the afternoon some consternation was cre- the Wright brothers, the American acrowell authenticated that Senator Jeff Davis Delagrange, the French aeroplanist, had was on his way to Washington and would succeeded in flying 12,750 metres at Rome. two-days' speech, provided the objectors performance and said: could hold out until Monday morning. As "We are not worried. We already have many of the senators had been in their tripled the distance made by M. Delaseats aimost continuously since II o'clock grange this morning. Our confidence in our Friday, the prespects for continualtion, disagreeable as it was in itself, added much ence between our machine and those used to the impleasant aspect of the case. Ac- in Europe. We have a practical aeroplane halted in front of the Auditorium and precordingly there was meneral sellef when at capable of flying in the wind." 39 p. m. a suggestion for a recess was Mr. Wright then proceeded to explain received by the republican leader from the that the problem of equilibrium had been after the recess was entered upon, that the application of McCoold principle, which enparty friends of Mr. Stone had been con- abled them by a twist of the surface of sulfing among themselves and had reached the planes to right their machine against the conclusion that if given an opportunity the wind. On the other hand, he said, all they could dissuade him from further per- the European machines thus far had stasistence in his course of obstruction, and tionary planes. This. Mr. Wright intimated, when, after reconvening at 1 o'clock, he was the great secret of his successes. retired from the floor, it appeared as if he had been induced to permanently surrender. He was followed by Mr. Gore, the blond senator from Oklahoma, and that Democratic State Chairman Says No gentleman had proceeded for about two hours, when Mr. Stone returned to the senate chamber and created some dismay by stating that he had determined to resume his address as soon as Mr. Gore chairman of the democratic state central should conclude. He, however, afforded the republicans their anxiously-sought opportunity, when he again retired from the Ryan to Mr. Bryan's campaign fund. chamber a few minutes before Mr. Gore. NEW YORK, May 30.-According to a of the Presbyterian church in the United had finished speaking and was absent when report printed here today Thomas P. Ryan that auspicious moment arrived. Some democratic senators had expressed the intention of speaking briefly on the merits having for its principal object the election of the bill, but the holding of the subject before the senate for any further time had senator. It was stated in this report that in it such possibilities of the continuation of the filibuster, that, in the interest of the speedy disposal of the measure and checks for the amount to T. S. Allen, who the early adjournment of congress they was then chairman of the democratic state were persuaded to change their minds and central committee of Nebraska, and who forego their intention of expressing their is said to have been in Nebraska at that views.

End Comes Suddenly.

suddences that was almost startling-When Senator Gore congluded, after having spoken for two hours, it was the opinion among those who were not in the confi dence of the leaders that the end of the fight was still a long way off, and even the leaders were not certain that it not. It was generally understood that Senstor Stone would attempt to resume his speech and that Senator La Foliette would also make a determined fight to regain the floor. As Senator Gore resumed his sent Vice President Fairbanks promptly stated that the question was on the adoption of orders of the senate previously adopted a announcement was made by the wice president in a matter of fact way, but it meant lation of the session. While the vice president was still speaking Senator Heyburn of Idaho was on his feet demanding recognition, but the clerk had commenced call the roll before the vice president recognized him and the point of order was made by Senator Gallinger that the call could not be interrupted. This nettled the the old man insisted in taking his place in idaho sensior, who demanded that he be the line as he has done year after year. given a hearing. Is there objection?" arked the vice play the "Dead March." and when half

'I object." said Mr. Gallinger, of pairs. He died a few minutes later. "If you find out what I am going to you will not raise so much fuse about Geneva for burial.

retorted Senator Heyburn "The rules will shut you out." screnely remarked Senator Gallinger. We will see whether they will shut me NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. May 20 -(Spe- nut. shouted Senator Heyburn, and when tal.)-University cadets yesterday morning the clerk started to resume the calling of grounds, which joins Morton park, where vice president, however, sustained the obland ar a resort for tourists is to be made. Onle street, and said they would return in got the Carnegie isbrary and it will cost they have been camping. There was a jection and the calling of the roll proceeded. 120 000. With the library they realized the large crowd to wilness the same. Today When the vote had been announced and a need of a park and bought one. When the the cadets packed up their camping outfit lively skirmish between Senator LaFollette Snyder turned them over to the juvenile Omahans heard how the women were and left this afternoon for their homes in and Senator Aldrich whether re-coonsiderarunning the town their enthusiasm was not Lincoln over the Burlington on a special, tion had been settled, Senator Heyburn was all talk. As the women waved flags and During their stay in this city some of the given the floor and explained his reasons It is thought he will live, but the wound for voting against the bill-

La Foliette Resumes Fight. Before the roll call had been completed present time to answer to the charge of Senator LaFolicite, who had come into assault to kill. They are George Fewler the chamber a short time before and who George Thompson, William Miller and abowed no signs of the strain he had been James Parker. under, made a parliamentary inquiry as to whether be could not change his vote

(Continued on Fifth Page.)

SECRETARIES FOR METHODISTS HONOR TO SOLDIERS Work of General Conference Taken Up with Selection of Heads

Memorial Day is Elaborately Cele-BALTIMORE, May 31 - Elections for the brated by Omaha People.

remaining secretaries and for the assistant secretaries of the various boards of TRIBUTES FOR OLD AND YOUNG the Methodist Episcopal church were continued at the general conference today. Rev. Dr. A. B. Leonard, for twenty years Laurel Wreath on Brow of Living, secretary of the board of foreign missions. was retained. He received 217 votes Trophy at Foot of Dead.

against 26 for Dr. Homer C. Stuntz, field Rev. Dr. Thomas Nicholson, president G. A. R. AT THE AUDITORIUM of Dakota Wesleyan university, Mitchell, S. D., was elected secretary of the new Spanish-American and Mexican Veterans in Hanscom Park. of the former board of education, Freed-HOURS mans Aid and Sunday schools, was named WEBSTER AND FLEHARTY SPEAK

> Former Advocates Annexation of Canada to United States, Justify-BALTIMORE. May 29.-The conference did away with the district boards of home. ing it by Previous Terri> torial Acquisition. pacy relative to the districting of bishops and the assignment of their residences With flags flying at half mast and many f the business houses closed during the Elections were held at the afternoon sesafternoon Omaha joined with the Grand

> Army of the Rupublic and the veterans of sion for editors of the Methodist official publications and secretaries of the various the Spanish-American war in observing the day set apart for the memory of those who fell in battle on southern and foreign soil, The balloting resulted in the re-election of all present incumbents except of the and those who live as examples of American patriotism. Pittsburg Christian Advocate, Dr. J. J. Wallace of Barnesville, O., succeeded Rev.

The weather was a drawback, but even cloudy skies and threatening conditions could not put a damper on the patriotic fire that burns in the breast of every old veteran and the old soldiers, many of them bent and feeble with age, turned out in large numbers to do homage to their comrades. They were soined by the Thurston and Dahlman rifles, the high school cadets city and county officials and citizens generally, and the Sixteenth infantry band from Fort Crook added its presence and music to the success of the occasion.

Public buildings and banks generally were There was no choice on the first ballet closed all day, and so were many private business houses. missions, board of education and an addi-

Laden with Flowers. Laden with flowers, with which to decorate the graves and monuments reared to the memory of the veterans, the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Grand Army posts and the Women's Relief corps met in the forenoon and proceeded to the various cemeteries. The principal ceremonies of the forenoon with the ritualistic service was held at Forest Lawn cemetery. Lee Forby post, Spanish war veterans and the auxiliary post, Florence L Crane post, met at 9:30 o'clock and visited all the ceme-turies to decorate the graves of the soldiers of that war.

The parade of the Grand Army of the Republic formed at 1.30 at Sixteenth street and Capitol avenue and marched to Douglas. street, thence east to Fifteenth and then to the Auditorium. On reaching Pifteenth and Howard streets the high school cadets lined up in double file, open rank and came to present arms, while the veterans, with heads uncovered, marched between the ranks. The Thurston and Dahlman Rifles. sented arms, as the old soldiers passed democratic side. The fact soon develop d solved by himself and his brother by the Anderson, marshal of the day, and it moved from Sixleenth street and Capitol avenue to Douglas street, thence east to Fifteenth street and then to the Auditorium. The line was headed by platoons of police and with flags flying and the martial music by the Sixteenth infantry band it made an impressive sight.

> Formation of Parade. The parade was formed as follows:

Piatoons of police.
Marshal of the day, C. W. Allen; D. W. cohrson, officer of the day.
Sixteenth United States infantry band.

FIRST DIVISION.
Commander, Charles L. Thomas.
Thurston rifles, Captain Eleasser, commanding. Daninian rifles, Captain Wilg, com-

High School Cadet battalion. SECOND DIVISION. Fife and Drum corps. Commander, F. W. Simpson. Veterans of the civil war.

CARRIAGES. Chairman of the day, August Lockner, Speake of the day, John L. Webster, Chapm of the day, Rev. T. J. Macksy, of William J. Bryan as United States General Charles Sheehan and that Mr. Sheehan gave other

> Board of Education. Park commission. The Auditorium was brautifully decorated with flags and bunting August Lockner The end of the filibuster came with a after this contribution, give an unqualified was chairman of the day. Detail of Program. The program in detail was as follows:

er, the democratic candidate for president and that Mr. Bryan would "let up in his Dirge, Sixteenth United States infantry attacks on the financiers, who were backading the roll of the dead, Comrade Song, Miss Carrie Rhyn. Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Jeff W.

VETERAN FIFER DROPS DEAD Music. Sixteenta United States infantry W. Allen of Geneva, Exhausted by Drill by High School Cadet battalion.

Drill by High School Cause bactains.
Fing drill by school children.
Ritual services by Grand Army of the Republic. T. J. Creigh, commander; E. W.
Johnson, officer of the day; Rev. T. J.
Mackay, chaplain; T. J. Beaity, adjutant.
Firing sainte, Thurston Rifles. MINDEN, Neb., May 30-(Special.)-Exhausted by the march to the cemetery, W. Allen, an old soldier who came here today Firing salute, Thurston Rifles. Taps, bugler Sixteenth United States in-from Geneva to participate in the Memorial fany exercises fell to the ground while playing the "Dead March" on his fife, and died shortly afterwards.

The sad tragedy cast a gloom over the large crowd which had gone to the cemetery to bonor the soldier dead. Allen was tery to bonor the soldier dead. Allen was more than the soldier dead. Allen was the secretary, and Lillian P. Eddy: chaplain, Mrs. Harriet Wilcox; treasurer, Mrs. E. F. ing the "Dead March" on his fife, and died large crowd which had gone to the cemetery to bonor the soldier dead. Allen was Mrs. old and feeble, and was urged to accept a way through, he sat down and complained but probably no part of it reached the hearts of the audience more effectually Allen leaves a wife and three daughters. than the drill by thiryt-two boys and girls The body will be sent to his home at carrying flags and flowers. At the close of the drill the children saluted the Goddess The stores were closed in observance of of Liberty, represented by Miss Edith the day and the exercises were held in the Bailey. Following this, the children placed the flowers around the monument for the unknown dead. The drill by a picked company of high school cudets also drew ap-NEBRASKA CITY, May 30,-(Special.)-Wilbur Goff and two companions, all work-

Exercises in charge of chairman of me

Song, maie quartet. Address of the day, John L. Webster. Song, Lowe Avenue church quartet. Song, by school children under direction Miss Fanny Arnold. Betiediction, Roy, Frank L. Loveland.

The program was impressive throughout.

Ball tott of Dead. The roll of the year's dead, which was read by Comrade Russell is as follows: GEORGE A. CUSTER POST. No. 1. Comrade George A. Crager. Company E. One Hundred and Fiftieth Pernayiwania In-fantry. Died. April 8, 1983. thusetts sharpshooters. Died.

Comrade Nicholas Mergen, Company B. First Nebrasks infantry, Died, May 1, 1981, Comrade William M. Ryan, Company D. Thirteenth Kenturky cawalay, Died May &

Comrade John B Sawbill, Company A, ourth West Virginia cavalry. Died May 15, CHICAGO May 26.—(Special Telegram )— Holley Clarke, formerly of Lincoln, Neb. has leased the People's theater here of his

U.S. GRANT POST, No. 18.
Comrade Alonio Long, Twenty-minth
Connecticut infantry, Died May 8, 1903.
Comrade Albert H. Palmer, One Hundred