Mrs. L. P. Blagburn has returned to Omaha after a protracted visit in the Southland and will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph La Cour.

Maudelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rix of South Twenty-eighth avenue, was married to J. W. Bondarant in St. John's A. M. E. church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, the Rev. W. T. Osborne officiating. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bride, beautifully gowned in white crepe de chine, trimmed in pearls, carrying a bouquet of white bridal roses, entered on the arm of her father. They were preceded by the maid of honor, Miss Frances Shaw gowned in blue crepe de chene, and carrying pink asters, and the bridesmaid, Miss Corine Thomas, cousin of the bride, gowned in white voile trimmed in pink and carrying a basket of pink and white asters. The groomsmen were Mr. Llewellyn and Mr. Roscoe Miller. The church was tastefully decorated. A reception followed the ceremony.

They will reside temporarily at 2669 Douglas street. Subsequently Prof. Bonderant proposes to open a school to teach the modern languages.

Many beautiful gifts were received. The Monitor extends congratulations and best wishes.

COLORED DELEGATES ATTEND LETTER CARRIERS' CONVENTION

The following colored delegates are attending the National Association of Letter Carriers' convention in session here this week: J. B. Greenwood and S. A. Ware of Atlanta, Ga.; A. B. Jackson, Birmingham, Ala.; Simon Johnson, jr., Jackson, Miss.; H. B. Daniels, Memphis, Tenn.; J. H. Dora and wife, Vicksburg, Miss.; P. M. E. Hill, wife and two children, Yazoo City, Miss., and J. H. Pemberton, wife and daughter, Clarinda, Ia. In addition to these T. H. Sturgess and C. E. Stubblefield were members of the Sioux City delegation which came to Omaha Monday to take part in the parade.

A local committee, consisting of Carriers Henry W. Black, R. W. Freeman and Clerks John James and Geo. P. Johnson arranged a very pleasant informal reception Thursday night from 8 to 11 at Peterson's hall for these delegates and such members of their families as had accompanied them. The opportunity was thus given them to meet and to be met by many of Omaha's best colored citizens. Music, brief addresses, refreshments, social intercourse and conversation made the reception hours pass all too speedily for those whose privilege it was to attend this delightful affair. The ladies assisting were Mesdames H. W. Black, S. D. Brownlow, A. Bowler, C. H. Hicks, T. S. Riggs and M. D. Marshall.

Mrs. John Grant Pegg entertained at breakfast Saturday morning for Mrs. Reeves of Emporia, Kas.
