Mrs. T. P. Mahamitt and Mrs. H. J. Pinkett gave a delightful Omaha sight-seeing automobile party Thursday afternoon, September 16th, in honor of their guests, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Henry Allen Boyd and daughter Catherine, of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. C. W. Peguese, of Raleigh, N. C. After the return from the ride, luncheon was served and a pleasant social evening was spent, at which an impromptu musical and literary program was given by several of the guests. Dr. Boyd, who is in charge of the National Baptist Publication House of Nashville, gave a most interesting address on Nashville, "the Athens of the South," and Mrs. Peguese, whose husband, Dr. Peguese, is in charge of the State School for the Negro Deaf, Dumb and Blind, at Raleigh, and who herself had been for years a teacher in the school, told of the splendid work being done there and gave a verse of "Nearer, My God, to Thee" in the sign language. About thirty guests were present, and it was a most delightful affair. Dr. Boyd and party were en route to the Pacific coast.

Miss Mattie Banks, of Nashville, Tenn., sister of Mrs. H. J. Pinkett and Mrs. G. D. Gordon, arrived in the city Friday and is the guest of Mrs. Pinkett.
