News for This Department Must Be Received by Wednesday Night.

News has reached Omaha of the death of Mrs. Hampton A. Watson, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. Chenault, Sheridan, Wyo., Tuesday, October 12. Mrs. Watson, who was a resident of Omaha for many years, was a woman of beautiful Christian character, and her memory will be cherished in the hearts of her many friends. The body will be brought to Omaha for interment.

The Rev. E. H. McDonald and wife and Mrs. M. A. Hickman of St. Paul, Minn., arrived in the city Thursday morning en route to San Francisco. While in the city they were the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Botts of 2526 Grant St. Mr. McDonald will accompany his party as far as Denver, Colo., and will return to Omaha and preach at Zion Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The Zion Baptist church will have its fourth annual tag day October 21. J. H. Hill made a flying trip to Kansas City, Mo., Saturday and returned Tuesday. He reports a good time.

Mrs. M. D. Marshall entertained the McDonald party with an automobile ride through the important parts of the city Thursday.

The following persons have donated to Mrs. W. D. Marshall for the Negro Woman's Christian Home:

Rev. W. F. Botts, $1; Mrs. J. M. Robinson, 25c; R. B. Rhoades, 25c; Mrs. G. W. Obee, 15c.

Harold Tolson and Miss Inez J. Henry were married at the Church of St. Philip the Deacon Monday afternoon in the presence of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Ball, and Mrs. Carroll.

Mrs. F. A. Young of Lincoln, first vice president of the State Federation of Negro Women's Clubs, was in the city in the interest of the Old Folks' and Orphans' Home, which is soon to be located there. She was the guest of Mrs. J. E. Jeltz, state president of the Clenlen's and Household Economics clubs. Her son Roland accompanied her.

Mrs. M. B. Jones of Kansas City, arrived in the city last week for a month's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Costen.

The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Davis who died October 7, was held at St. John's A. M. E. church last Saturday afternoon. The Rev. W. T. Osborne preached the funeral sermon. The profusion of beautiful flowers presented attested the high esteem in which the departed was held by her numerous friends. Interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery. G. Wade Obee & Co. were the funeral directors.

The Rev. W. B. Scott returned from Boston, Mass., with his bride last Friday and will conduct services at Mt. Moriah Baptist church, Twenty-sixth and Seward streets, Sunday.

The Rev. W. Tecumseh Vernon D.D. ex-registrar of the United States treasury, delivered his famous lecture on Abraham Lincoln to an appreciative audience in St. John's A. M. E. church Friday night. The speaker was escorted to the rostrum by a committee composed of John Grant Pegg, Allen Jones, F. J. McCullough and Mr. Wilks. Dr. Vernon was introduced by Mr. Pegg. Among the many telling points made by the eloquent speaker were that Lincoln was God-ordained for his work; he had an in-born hatred for slavery; the work that Lincoln begun the Negro must himself accomplish in working out his own destiny.

ENTERS THE UNDERTAKING BUSINESS

Mr. H. A. Chiles, for many years the popular and efficient head waiter at the Paxton hotel and who recently resigned that remunerative position to take a course in embalming at the Williams College of Embalming, Kansas City, Kans., having graduated from that school, has returned to the city and has formed a partnership with Mr. Allen Jones, undertaker and funeral director, at 2314 North Twenty-fourth street. The firm, which has a well-equipped establishment, will be known from now on as Jones & Chiles, undertakers and licensed embalmers.

Mr. Chiles, speaking for the firm, says that they will use the latest methods of embalming and sanitation and cosmetic effects.

You will find the firm always ready to serve you. Call Webster 204, day or night. Lady attendant.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING IN INTEREST IF HOME

$50 be added to it within six months. The Rev. John Albert Williams urged that the other $50 be raised on the spot. The chairman endorsed this sentiment and all present acted upon it. Twenty dollars in cash was paid in at once and pledges to the amount of $60 were made. Since the meeting the pledges have been raised to $107.50 and $20 more paid in on the pledges made. It is therefore expected that at the meeting which is to be held at the home next Wednesday at 3 o'clock and to which the public is invited the sum of at least $150 will be available to apply on the property.

ANOTHER BUSINESS FIRM.

Fred Thompson and Ernest Settles have gone into the business of manufacturing and jobbing bootblack supplies. They are prepared to fill large or small orders and guarantee satisfaction. Mr. Settles has had five years' experience in the business in Chicago. It is a gratifying sign to see young men making business ventures.
