A SUCCESSFUL PASTOR.

one from the leading Presbyterian minister of that city:

November 8, 1912.

To the Ministers,
Omaha, Nebraska.

My dear brethren:

It affords me more than pleasure to introduce and recommend to your confidence and fellowship, the Rev. W. T. Osborne. He had charge of the colored M. E. church in this city for a number of years. He built a magnificent little church here. He not only served his own people faithfully, conscientiously and loyally, but was a valuable force in our city for righteousness, purity and the salvation of all people. He is worthy of your confidence. I regret that he has left this city.

Praying God's blessing upon all in your federation, I am,

Your friend,

M. A. MATTHEW.

First Presbyterian Church,
Seattle, Wash.

The Rev. Mr. Osborne has been twice married. His first wife was Miss Parthenia Buckner of Monroe City, Mo. She died at Macon, Mo., fifteen years ago. Their two children, a promising son and daughter, within a few months followed the loving wife and mother. Three grassy mounds in Macon awaken tender emotions in the heart of the pastor of St. John's. Twelve years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Earline Jackson of Glasgow, Mo., a highly esteemed school teacher, who has proven a worthy helpmeet of her husband.

To help make the world better and to win the esteem of one's fellow men is an honor all may covet. This is the possibility which lies before us all. Not meteors that flash and disappear, but stars that shine with a steady light count most in darkness.

OHIO UNIVERSITY CLASS ORATOR

Columbus, O., Oct. 22.—For the first time in the history of Ohio State university, it is believed, a colored student was elected to a class office last Friday. He is Daniel Ferguson of Columbus, who has won laurels as a half-miler on the university track team. Ferguson had no opposition to his candidacy for orator of the senior class.
