The North Omaha Woman's club wishes to thank St. John's A. M. E. church, Daughters of Bethel and the many friends who so willingly donated towards the Christmas offering for the people of our race at the county hospital. We were enabled to fill large Christmas boxes with apples, oranges, nuts, candy, a glass of jelly, two pairs of woolen socks, two handkerchiefs and 50 cents in money for each man, and a similar box with a large white apron, two pairs of woolen stockings, two handkerchiefs, for the women. We also gave candy and apples to many of the white inmates, and socks and handkerchiefs to some of the men. We donated $1 to Mrs. Bessie Early. Again we thank you, for without your help we would have been unable to make our people happy this Christmas. Lulu Rountree, president; Josephine Harris, secretary.
