The Omaha Woman's Club met at the residence of Mrs. Sara Severe Tuesday, March 7. This club is known as the General Club. It has several branches or departments, which meet the 2nd, 3rd and 4th Tuesdays. Mrs. Nora Gray is president of the General Club.

Mr. Fletcher Chinn and Miss Ruth Jones were married last Thursday evening by Rev. J. C. Brown of Bethel Baptist Church.

The revival meeting at the A. M. E. Church, South Side, is still going on. There seems to be a renewed interest among the Christians, from which we hope and look forward to much success and many souls brought to Christ. Rev. W. B. Nichols, who is conducting the meeting, will speak Sunday afternoon at three o'clock to men only at Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church.

"Look, who's here!" The Don't Worry Girls Club, ha! ha! with lots of "pep" and "ginger." Meet them at Mrs. Frank Gray's, 1211 Missouri avenue, South Side, March 18, 1916.

segregationists were disqualified.

For several days Colored girls and women have handed out circulars on street cars and in public places bearing a cartoon which depicted a white man driving a Colored man before him and lashing his bare back, with the inscription "back to slavery."

An organization known as the United Welfare Association circulated petitions calling for the election, and the campaign against it has been conducted by the Citizens' Anti-Negro Segregation Committee.

The present legal residences of whites and Negroes are not affected by the ordinance, which apply only to future residences. Not only residences, but theatres, schools, churches, dance halls and other assembly places come within the ordinance.
