"TO THE VICTORS BELONG THE SPOILS"

And there will be some spoils for the victor of the Free Trip Contest. Not alone will she receive the many useful articles already placed into the "Hope Chest" but here we add another useful interesting chain: A nifty boudoir cap, by Miss Freda Campbell; a beautiful casserole by Miss Gladys Counsellor; a half dozen dainty linen handkerchiefs by Mrs. Luther Dillard. Mrs. Susie Smith has consented to give one of the non-excelled Poro scalp treatments. Miss Lutie Bryant will do the honor of giving a Bryant facial massage; while Miss Jennie Robinson will give one of her own artistic manicures.—Adv.

Grow with Growing Omaha.

April 10th, at her home, 2244 Madison St., South Side. Mrs. Dudley has lived in Omaha about twenty-five years. She lived that Christlike life that won the love and esteem of all who knew her. She was an active member of the A. M. E. Church. She was president of the Stewardess Board; vice president of the Ladies' Aid. She was buried from that church Wednesday, April 12th at 3 o'clock. The beautiful and copious floral offerings could only express a small portion of our sympathies toward the bereaved family. She followed her husband by only five months and eleven days. She leaves three daughters and one son and one son-in-law, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. We can only say to these dear girls and this dear boy that their loss is Heaven's gain, and that mother has just fallen asleep and awaits your coming at Heaven's gate. The church will more than miss her.

Easter service will be observed at Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church. Program of the children at 3 p. m. and adults at 8 p. m. Special music by the choir.

Mr. John House, living at 4735 So. 14th Street, was found dead in his bed Tuesday morning. Acute indigestion was said to be the cause. His body was shipped to Curryville, Mo., for burial.

The Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church, is planning for a special effort in May.

We thank our many friends and neighbors for their assistance rendered during the illness and death of our mother, also the many beautiful floral offerings. Especially the members of the Castle Cafe, and of the Green Room at Brandeis' Stores.

PLENTY OF TRUTH IN THIS.

The following was handed to us a few days ago by a prominent young business man. He had copied it, but could not recall the author:

"Man comes into this world without his consent, and leaves it against his will. During his stay on earth his time is spent in one continuous round of contraries and misunderstandings by the balance of the species. In his infancy, he is an angel; in his boyhood he is a devil; in his manhood he is everything from a lizard up; in his duties he is a fool; if he raises a family, he is a chump; if he raises a small check he is a thief and the law raises the devil with him; if he is a poor man, he is a poor manager and has no sense; if he is rich he is dishonest, but considered smart; if he is in politics you can't place him, as he is an undesirable citizen; if he goes to church, he is a hypocrite; if he stays away from church, he is a sinner and damned; if he donates to foreign missions, he does it for show; if he doesn't, he is stingy and a tight wad. When he first comes into the world, everybody wants to kiss him; before he goes out they all want to kick him; if he dies young, there was a great future before him; if he lives to a ripe old age, he is simply in the way and living to save funeral expenses.

This life is a funny road, but we all like to travel it just the same."
