We have only eight weeks more to wait to see which young lady wins the contest. Don't forget to vote in the banks for your favorite girl. The banks are placed at the Peoples drug store, Terrill's drug store, Gordon's drug store and S. Jackson's restaurant. A committee visits and opens the banks every Tuesday. We hope the young ladies in this contest, with the cooperation of their friends, will finish the debt on this home. As this is the only Negro enterprise in Omaha let the Negro say, with a few exceptions, they paid for it. So help these worthy girls pay for this home.

- Mrs. Martha Taylor Smith, Chm.
- Mrs. Randolph Worcuff, Sec.
- Mrs. Henry Moore.
- Mrs. R. Marshall.
- Mrs. E. R. West.
- Mrs. Irvine Grey.

A meeting of all the members of the Church of St. Philip the Deacon is called for Wednesday night, May 10, in the Guild rooms. The purpose of the meeting, in addition to hearing the reports for the year, is to take under advisement the question of becoming an organized, self-supporting parish and to elect officers for the ensuing year. As it is a most important meeting, I desire all members of the congregation to attend. John Albert Williams, Pastor.

Maynard L. Wilson, jr., of Chicago, is to be married in that city next Wednesday evening to Miss Johnnie E. Wright of Minneapolis, Minn.

Miss Gladys Councillor will donate a carisole, not a cassarole—although that would be a useful gift—to the successful winner of the Free Trip. Mrs. Hopkins will contribute a boudoir cap and Mrs. W. L. Johnson a combination suit.

Mr. Fred Early, who has been an invalid for two years, continues to improve.

Mrs. A. W. Parker underwent a successful optical operation Wednesday of last week at the Nebraska Methodist hospital. Dr. H. Gifford performed the operation.
