DISCHARGED COLORED GIRL REINSTATED

has proved that she has powerful friends.

This extract from Dr. French's letter shows that Miss Bosfield will not have to sleep in the morgue or to have her meals served on a tray:

"I write to offer to reinstate you to your former position as clerk and stenographer at the Medfield Hospital. Your work will be the SAME AS BEFORE, and you will have a room as good as the other clerks and stenographers. You will EAT IN THE DINING ROOM WITH THEM. Your pay will be the same as before, and you will be given the SAME privileges as the others."

AMONG RAILROAD MEN, By J. William Shields

"Now is the summer of our discontent made pleasant," or disagreeable, by the many changes around the Union Pacific dining car department by the superintendent.

The Los Angeles Limited is now running from Omaha to Los Angeles, Cal.; the O. W. Limited from Omaha to Portland. Most of the buffet men are resigning, owing to "two much dry territory."

Edward Brown is now on the Los Angeles Limited, Arnold Black succeeded him on the O. W. Limited, Portland.

A. B. Webster and Robt. Scott are still holding their own on the O. W. Limited.

All of the Pullman porters that previously have been laying over in Portland from Chicago, are now going through to Seattle, Wash., much to the displeasure of many who have interests in Portland.

The Golden West hotel, under the proprietorship of W. D. Allen and nager A. G. Green of Portland is the most popular hotel of its kind in this country, strictly first class and up-to-date, devoted to the interests and pleasure of all railroad men. This is where you can meet road men from all over the world. We are also pleased to note that The Monitor can always be found in the Golden West Hotel lobby.

Bud Slaughter, an old railroad veteran of Chicago, is now in Portland and says he will return to Omaha when he can "push them clouds away."

W. H. Whitener is now on the private car of the president of the North Bank R. R.

Barney Gardner has left the buffet of the Union Pacific. Too much "dry territory."

Slim Watkins is one of the oldest and most prominent buffet men of the O. S. L. R. R. and is well known by the traveling public from Chicago to Portland.

Frank Rogers is on the Pacific Limited from Portland to Salt Lake.

George Goosby is on the Los Angeles Limited to Los Angeles.

We find that in rairoading, as well as in any other business, it pays to be congenial to all with whom you come in contact. Honor your position whatever it may be, as no position is "menial" where an honest living is obtained. "Do unto others as you wish to be done by;" and remember that "a soft answer turneth away wrath," but "grievous words stirreth up anger." It is not always what we do that hurts us but often what we say, as we know of several men who talked themselves out of every job they ever had. Moral: "A still tongue."
