

DEATH OF MISS BEULAH WASHINGTON

A telegram from Dowagiac, Mich., to her cousin, Mrs. Jenkins, of Burdette street, announced the death there last Sunday night of Miss Beulah Washington, the oldest and last surviving daughter of Charles H. Washington, formerly of Omaha. Miss Washington was born in Omaha and grew to womanhood here. She was a graduate of the Omaha high school and for a number of years was a member of the choir of the Church of St. Philip the Deacon. Some years ago the family removed to Sodus, Mich., and more recently to Dowagiac. Beulah was in the habit of returning to Omaha for the summer. She was a young woman of sweet disposition and beautiful Christian character. The sympathy of many Omaha friends will go out to Mr. Washington, who, in addition to the death of his daughter, was recently bereft of his wife.

GIVEN AUTO RIDE

A delightful auto ride was given James T. Lewis Tuesday, June 13, in honor of his graduation from the Eighth grade of the Long school by his brother, J. B. Lewis. The party included five of his classmates, Howard Allen, Theron Jefferson, Kenneth Moore, Wallace Thurman, Florence Murray, Herman Lewis, of the Eighth A class, and Henry Smith, of Central high school. After a two and a half hours' ride through the parks and boulevards the young people were landed at Terrell's Drug store where they were treated to ice cream sodas by the proprietor, Mr. Terrell.

WEDDING BELLS RING

Miss Mae Louise Willis was married to Mr. Austin Wilfred Serrant, of Chicago, Ill., at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Jasper E. Brown, 811 North Forty-fifth street, in the presence of a few friends. The wedding march was played by her young niece, Gladys Edrose Brown. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. G. F. Franklin, and was unattended. The Rev. John Albert Williams, vicar of the Church of St. Philip the Deacon, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Serrant left at half past eight o'clock over the Northwestern for Chicago, where they will reside at 3800 Rhodes avenue. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

REVISITS OMAHA AFTER SEVENTEEN YEARS

Mr. Jesse Newman, who for a number of years was a member of the police force in this city, but who has been a resident of Oakland, Cal., for the last seventeen years, was an Omaha visitor last Friday, en route home from Chicago. This was Mr. Newman's first visit to Omaha since going to California, and he said:

"I am simply amazed at the growth of Omaha. I would hardly know the place. I can scarcely believe my eyes."

Mr. Newman is looking remarkably well. He regretted exceedingly that his brief stay in Omaha made it possible for him to see only a very few of his many friends.

HENRY BUFORD CATCHES THIEF

It took "the little sheriff" to catch the light-fingered gentleman who had been relieving the Dunbar safe of its contents. Henry solved the mystery. He went to Des Moines Sunday, returning Monday with about $300 worth of stolen jewelry.
