"THE WAY OF THE WORLD"

We wish to make a correction concerning the statement which appeared in last week's issue which said the Du Bois Dramatic Club were preparing to present a drama entitled "The Way of the World." It was a mistake. It is the Toussaint Dramatic Club No. 2, and not the Du Bois Dramatic Club. Mrs. Tonedeo is the president of the Toussaint Dramatic Club and the Rev. Thos. Taggart is directing the young people.

Mr. Geo. Rose and Mrs. May Smith were quietly married last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Mattie Hilton. The Rev. Thos. Taggart performed the ceremony.

The Rev. Thos. Taggart will preach a special sermon Sunday evening at the Bethel Baptist Church entitled "Losing Jesus."

Mr. Chas. Shafforth, 2514 J street, died Wednesday afternoon at his home. He was buried yesterday from the Allen Chapel. The Rev. J. H. Nichols officiated. Jones and Chiles had charge of the funeral.

Mrs. Louise Holmes left last Thursday night for her home in Minneapolis, Minn., after spending a few weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. Sara Gray, of 4422 South 24th street.

There will be an entertainment Friday night, August 25th, at the home of Mrs. Velma Hill, 5308 South 27th street for the benefit of Bethel Baptist choir.

Miss Beatrice Steward, who has been visiting our city for some time with her uncle, Rev. J. H. Nichols, left Wednesday night for her home in Collinsville, Ill. On her way home she will stop in Kansas City and visit another uncle.

The Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church is planning for a Church Fair to be given by the Stewardess, September 19, 20 and 21, to help raise money for Church claims.—Rev. J. H. Nichols, pastor.

Rev. Harrabellio A. Morangeopa, the African missionary, lectured at Bethel Baptist Church last Tuesday evening.

Rev. Dennis Todd was very agreeably surprised by some of his friends August 2nd. A very pleasant evening was spent and those in attendance enjoyed themselves nicely.

Mrs. Chas. Bush was hastily called to Atchison, Kansas, by the severe illness of her sister, Miss Irma Simmington. Her daughter, Luvetta, accompanied her.

Miss Beatrice Steward was given a four hours' spin about Greater Omaha by some of her friends from the South Side Monday evening, prior to her leaving for home. Everyone in the party expressed themselves as having a delightful time.

The Bethel Baptist Church is having placed in their church a baptismal pool and two neat dressing rooms.

Master John Thornton left Wednesday evening for Kansas City, Mo., and Atchison, Kansas, where he will visit relatives and friends for a fortnight.

A surprise party was given Aug. 7, 1916, for Mr. T. Washington, 2605 Polk street. The evening was spent in games and music.
